Southern Union Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—GUAR. ANNUAL REDUCTION AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $390.30. AGE 35.

Southern Union Life Insurance Company, Waco, Tex., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in Waco, Tex., as follows: To Mary Doe, the beneficiary, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured during the continuance of this contract. The insured John Doe, of Waco, county of McLennan, State of Texas.

SPECIAL DISABILITY PROVISION.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid, as hereinafter stipulated, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premiums, if the insured shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has become wholly disabled or bodily injured or diseased, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by endorsement in writing upon this policy, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In such case the premiums so paid shall not be a lien upon this contract, and the cash loans and the values of this contract in the table on the second page hereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured. If, however, the insured recovers so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation during the premium paying period, the company's obligation to pay the premium shall cease, and the insured shall resume the payment of premiums in accordance with this contract on its first premium due date following such recovery.

This policy is non-forfeitable from date of issue.

This contract is absolutely free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel, place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

PREMIUM WHEN DUE.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the application heretofore which is hereby made a part of this contract and the payment in advance of three hundred ninety and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars, being the premium for term insurance for the first policy year ending on the eighteenth day of May, 1911. After the first policy year the insurance will be continued as whole life insurance upon the payment of the annual premium of three hundred ninety and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars on or before the eighteenth day of May in every year during the continuance of this policy, until premiums for twenty policy years including the first have been paid.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—If premiums have been paid for two or more years the company will upon the request of the insured on the company's form therefor, and before default in payment of any premium hereon, advance any and all premiums hereon not paid in cash on or before the date when due or during the period of grace, together with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum in advance to the end of the current policy year and charge such advance as a loan against the policy subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan made under the "cash loan" privilege. However, the company will discontinue to so advance and charge up premiums upon the insured's written request, or if a premium so advanced and interest thereon as aforesaid together with all indebtedness hereon to the company exceeds the cash value of this policy at the end of the period which such premium would cover. While this policy is thus continued in force the insured may resume payment of premiums without medical examination.

CONDITIONS REGARDING PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company at Waco, Tex., or to an authorized agent of the company upon the delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the authorized agent. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly, but should the insured not survive to complete premium payments for the current policy year, the amount necessary for such completion shall be considered an indebtedness hereon to the company. The annual premium is $390.30, the semi-annual premium is $202.96, and the quarterly premium is $103.43. If any premium is not paid on the date when due the policy shall be null and void except as hereinafter provided.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—In the payment of premiums under this policy, except the first, a grace of one month will be allowed without interest charge, but if death occurs during said month of grace the unpaid premium will be considered an indebtedness hereon to the company.

SURRENDER OPTION.—The insured may at any time after the third policy year surrender this policy within the period of grace for its full cash value or for a paid-up life policy.

CASH VALUE.—The cash value at the end of any policy year will be the same as the loan value at the end of the preceding year as stated in Column 1 of the table below, plus a proportional increase for any fraction of a year for which a premium has been paid and less all indebtedness hereon to the company.

POLICY.—The paid-up policy at the end of any year will be stated in Col. II of the table, plus a proportional inc fraction of a year for which a premium has been paid. If there is any indebtedness to the company the amount of paid-up life policy will be approximately 1.

ARITHMETIC CONTINUED INSURANCE.—If a premium has not been paid within the period and the policy has not been surrendered as provided above, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance for the face amount hereof for such term as, at the end of each policy year, is stated in Column 3 of the table below. If premiums have been paid for an additional part of a year, the term of continued insurance will be such as the net value of the tabular continued insurance for the last expired policy year, proportionately increased, to purchase at net single premium term rates. If there is any indebtedness hereon to the company the continued insurance will be for the face amount hereof less the indebtedness such term as the net value of the tabular continued insurance less all indebtedness to the company will purchase at net single premium term rates. The continued insurance shall not be subject to cash loans.

STATEMENT.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, or within the grace, and this policy has not been surrendered, the company will reinstate the policy as of said due date at any time thereafter, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, together with the payment, or reinstatement of any indebtedness on policy on said due date, with interest.

CASH LOAN.—At any time after the second policy year and while this policy is in full the insured can borrow from the company upon the sole security of this policy and assignment thereof any amount within the loan value specified in Column 1 of the table below, subject to the deduction of all existing indebtedness to the company on this and all unpaid premiums for the current policy year. Interest at the rate of five per cent per annum will be collected out of the amount of the loan to the end of the current year and be payable annually in advance thereafter. Failure to repay such loan or any interest thereon shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness thereon exceeds the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until 90 days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee of record, if any.

ASSIGNMENT OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the understanding that the insured by written notice to the company at any time during the continuance of this policy, may designate one or more beneficiaries, provided this policy or any interest herein has not been assigned. No such change shall take effect until it has been endorsed on this policy by the company. If all designated beneficiaries die before the insured, the interest of the insured shall vest in the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both sent to the home office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

INSTALLMENT OPTION.—The proceeds of this policy as a death claim may be left with the insured in trust and will then be payable in annual instalments as set forth in the table of instalment options printed on the back hereof.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application hereof taken together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be taken as true representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy if it is contained in the written application hereof.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

The policy is payable at the Home Office of the Company in Waco, Texas, and proof of death of claimant will be required; any indebtedness to the Company will be deducted from the settlement of this policy or of any benefit hereunder. In case of death by self, suicide, sane or insane, within one year from date of issue hereof, the amount payable shall equal the total amount of premiums paid. The reserve on this policy and the unexpired term of continued insurance and paid-up life policy hereunder shall be determined upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. Only the president or secretary has power in behalf of the Southland Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

COUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $309.

AGE, 35.

Southland Life Insurance Company of Dallas, Tex., hereby insures the life of John Doe, the insured, of Dallas, county of Dallas, State of Texas, and agrees to pay at its home office, in the city of Dallas, ten thousand dollars to Mary Doe, wife, the beneficiary, with right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary) upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, provided this policy is then in full force and effect and is then surrendered and properly released.

This policy is issued in consideration of the payment, in advance, of the annual premium of three hundred nine dollars on the first day of May during the first year of this policy, and the further payment of three hundred nine dollars upon each first day of May hereafter during the continuance of this policy until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the privileges and conditions set forth on the subsequent pages hereof.

In witness whereof, the Southland Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be executed as of the first day of May, 1914.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable assignment, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If the beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company or to any agent of the company on or before date due, upon delivery of a receipt signed by an executive officer (president, a vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary) of the company and countersigned by said agent. The mode of premium payments may be changed, by the insured giving written notice to the company at its home office not less than forty-five days prior to any anniversary of this policy, from annual payments to semi-annual, or quarterly, or vice versa, at the premium rates and the conditions in force at the date hereof. Except as herein provided the payment of premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the year when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. The premium for the first year under this policy is the premium for one year's term insurance.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the period of grace, the unpaid premium for the then current policy shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—Upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy, if it has not been surrendered, may be reinstated at any time after default, upon payment of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, together with the reinstatement or payment of any indebtedness and the interest thereon.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time while this policy is in force, will loan to the insured (or assignee if any) on the delivery of this policy and proper assignment by the insured (or assignee if any) and on the sole security thereof, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum payable annually in advance, a sum not exceeding the cash surrender value at the end of such policy year. The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy, and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. The granting of such loan may be deferred for a period not exceeding ninety days after receipt of application therefor, unless the loan is for the purpose of paying premiums due the company. Any interest if not paid when due shall be added to the principal and shall bear interest at the same rate, provided the entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within limits of the cash surrender value. Failure to repay any such loan, or to pay interest shall void this policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any. The loan or any part thereof may be repaid at any time.

PREMIUM LIEN NOTE.—Whenever the net loan value of this policy shall be sufficient to pay one full annual premium with six per cent interest thereon for one year, the company will, before the expiration of the period of grace, accept a premium lien note in lieu of cash for such premium, said note to be a lien against the policy and subject to the same terms and conditions as cash loans, except that the policy need not be deposited with the company as a pledge. The total indebtedness on this policy, however incurred, shall never exceed its cash surrender value.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—After this policy shall have been in force three years, the insured (or assignee if any), within one month after default in the payment of any premium or premium note may elect.

CASH VALUE.—(a) To surrender this policy for its cash value upon proper notice signed by the insured (or assignee if any). Such cash value shall be equal to the net reserve thereon at date of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company on the policy. The payment of the cash value may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding ninety days after the receipt of application therefor. The cash value shall be at least equal to the amount available for the purchase of paid-up life insurance or paid-up term insurance; or,

PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—(b) To have the policy continued in force from date of default, as paid-up life insurance. The amount of such paid-up life insurance shall be such as the net reserve on this policy at the time of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company on this policy will purchase as a single premium at the attained age of the insured according to the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum; or,

PAID-UP TERM INSURANCE.—(c) To have the policy continued in force from date of default, as paid-up term insurance without the right to loans. The amount of such paid-up term insurance shall be equal to the face of the policy, less any indebtedness to the company under this policy. The term for which such paid-up term insurance be continued shall be such as the net reserve on this policy at the time of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company on this policy will purchase as a net single premium, at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum.

If the insured (or assignee if any) shall not within one month from date of default in the payment of any premium or premium note, elect one of the foregoing three options as provided in (a), (b) or (c), the insurance will be continued as provided in option (c).

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.

The figures in this table are based on the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy and that the premiums have been paid in full for the number of years shown in the table. Due allowance will be made for the proportionate part of the year's premium paid over and above the number of full years indicated.

Values for later years will be furnished upon request.

The loan values provided for in this table for the end of policy years can be obtained (less interest) during such policy years, and as set forth in the above clause entitled "Loans."

LOAN INSURANCE.—Whenever any indebtedness to the company has been incurred on this policy, the company will issue a certificate of loan insurance, not to exceed the amount of such indebtedness, subject to the following conditions: (First) The company must be furnished with satisfactory evidence of the insurability of the insured. (Second) The premiums for such loan insurance shall be paid in accordance with the following table of rates, same to be computed at the attained age of the insured at the time the loan insurance is granted or renewed, the minimum charge, however, to be not less than one dollar. (Third) The loan insurance shall be granted for the period from the date of issuance of the certificate of loan insurance to the next anniversary date of the policy but may be renewed from year to year upon evidence of insurability, and the payment of the premium for the attained age, but no loan insurance shall be granted or renewed red is more than fifty-five years of age. (Fourth) Upon satisfactory proof of the insured, such loan insurance shall be applied to the cancellation of the policy against the policy. (Fifth) The company reserves the right to reduce the loan insurance to an amount not exceeding the indebtedness, in which case any un-

periods of less than one year, the premium shall be at the rate of one tenth of one percent for each month and fraction of a month.

STABILITY.—This policy including the application, a copy of which is attached, shall be the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for the non-payment of premiums.

STATEMENTS.—All statements made by the insured, shall, in the absence of fraud, be representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy, except in defense of a claim hereunder, unless it is contained in the written application, a copy of the application is attached to this policy as a part thereof when issued.

TERMINATION.—If the insured shall within one year from date of issue die by his own act, or become insane, this policy shall be null and void, but in such case the company shall refund the premiums actually received.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

PAID-UP LIFE OR PAID-UP TERM INSURANCE.—If this policy shall be so endorsed as paid-up life insurance or paid-up term insurance it may be surrendered at any time for its full reserve value at time of such surrender.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be paid in any settlement hereunder. Any portion of the premium for the current year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be considered as indebtedness.

RESIDENCE, TRAVEL, ETC.—This policy contains no conditions as to residence, travel, or military or naval service.

RIGHTS OF INSURED.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

AGENTS.—Agents are not authorized to modify this policy, or to extend the time for payment, or in the event of lapse to reinstate this policy.

TERMS, YEARS, ETC.—The policy years and all provisions for loan and surrender values computed from the date of this policy.

MODE OF SETTLEMENT.—If there is no assignment of this policy the insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, shall give written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum payable on this policy upon the death of the insured, paid either in cash or as follows:

(1) Payment of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum on such sum payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the beneficiary upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any interest for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum.

(3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid at the death of the beneficiary shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. When any option calling for payment is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured or by the beneficiary in making such election, the company may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of the same basis as option (2) in the following table; provided that no such surrender shall be made under option (3) except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years:

Southwestern Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $308.50. AGE

Southwestern Life Insurance Company, Dallas, Tex., he insures the life of William Doe, of Dallas, county of Dallas, State of Texas (the insured), and immediately upon receipt at its office in the city of Dallas of due proofs of the death of the insured occurring while this policy is in force, promises to ten thousand dollars at its home office in the city of Dallas. Mrs. Minnie Doe, wife of the insured, as beneficiary, if living otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary subject to the privileges and conditions hereinafter set forth. This policy shall be incontestable after the first policy year except for non-payment of premiums.

This policy is unrestricted as to travel, residence and occupation of the insured in time of peace or war.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

I. PREMIUMS.—This insurance is granted in consideration the payment in advance of the annual premium of three hundred and eight dollars and fifty cents on or before the first day of June until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured, and in consideration of application for this policy, which is hereby made a part of contract.

The company accepts payment of premiums annually, or in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, and upon written request made at its home office, the premium payable on this policy may be readjusted accordingly at the end of any policy year. All premiums are payable at the company's home office in Dallas, Texas. The company may designate a collector to receive them elsewhere on or before the due dates, but no person is authorized to receive any premium on behalf of the company except in exchange for regular receipt signed by its president, vice-president or secretary, and countersigned by the designated collector. No notice of a premium, and no acceptance of a premium after maturity or elsewhere than at its home office, is to be deemed a precedent or a waiver of any provision of this contract, no matter how often repeated. Except as herein provided payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable.

II. GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of one calendar month from the date when it would otherwise be payable shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, subject to a charge of interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, during such month of grace the policy shall remain in force.

III. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—At any time when this policy is in force and assigned, the insured may have any beneficiary thereof changed, and a new beneficiary designated by endorsement on the policy, upon making written application thereof at the home office of the company. The change shall take effect, and all interest of the former beneficiary shall cease, upon the making of such endorsement by the company.

IV. SETTLEMENT.—Upon any settlement under this policy, all indebtedness to the company on the policy and all indebtedness of the holder of the policy to the company and also any unpaid portion or instalment of the full premium for the current policy year shall be deducted from any sum payable by the company. If the insured shall die by self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date hereof the amount payable under this policy shall be the sum actually received by the company for premiums thereon, and no more. If the age of the insured be understated herein, this insurance shall be for such amount only as the premiums paid would have purchased at the age and under the same table of rates.

V. CHANGE OF MODE OF PAYMENT AS A DEATH CLAIM.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the policy as a death claim from payment in one sum as provided on first page to payment by annual instalments for a limited number of years by continuous instalments during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, as provided on the fourth page of this policy.

VI. LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—Loans.—At any time after the first policy year when the policy shall be in force, the company will loan upon proper assignment of the policy, and upon sole security thereof, all or any part of the sum stated in Column 1 of the table on the third page hereof, subject to the deduction of all premiums for the current policy year and all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. The loan shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum payable in advance to the end of the current policy year annually in advance thereafter. Failure to pay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness to the company thereon shall equal or exceed its loan value.

Automatic Continued Insurance.—If at any time after the expiration of the any year, and while this policy is in full force, any premium or instalment of premium shall not be paid or settled in any other way within the time allowed by this policy for payment, the company, acting for that purpose for the legal holder of the policy, shall pay such premium or instalment of premium then due out of the loan value of the policy. Provided that such loan value, as shown by the table on the third page hereof, in excess of all indebtedness to the company then existing thereon, shall be then sufficient to pay such premium or instalment of premium, together with the interest below mentioned, and provided that the company shall not theretofore have received at its home office written instructions from the policyholder not to do so. The sum so paid, together with the interest thereon, shall constitute a loan upon the sole security of this policy to the legal holder thereof, and shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and, together with all other indebtedness to the company thereon, shall constitute a first lien upon the policy. Interest shall be payable in advance for the period covered by each excessive premium, and the current instalment thereof shall be included by the company in each such loan. Such loan may be repaid at any time, but failure to repay it shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness thereon shall equal or exceed the loan value of the policy.

OTHER NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—If default shall be made in the payment of any premium or premium note after payment of premiums for three full years (there being no default if such premium has been paid under the automatic continued insurance privilege above described), then (1) without any action on the part of the insured, this policy shall be extended as a policy of paid-up term insurance (without loan or surrender values) for the full amount thereof and for such a term, beginning at the due date of the unpaid premium, as that the net value thereof shall equal the net value of the paid-up term insurance stated in Column 2 of the table on the third page hereof, less all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Or, (2) if this policy shall be legally surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from the date of such default, the company will pay therefor, in cash, the sum stated in Column 4 of the table on the third page hereof, less all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Or, (3) upon written application therefor made to the company at its home office within one month from the date of such default, the company, on legal surrender of this policy, will issue in exchange therefor a policy of paid-up life insurance, in such a sum as that the net value thereof shall equal the net value of the paid-up life insurance stated in Column 3 of the table on the third page hereof, less all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. The reserves on this policy and all the net values above mentioned will be computed in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

TABLE OF LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.

If there be no indebtedness upon the policy, the loan and non-forfeiture values available at the expiration of each policy year up to and including the twentieth will be as stated in the following table. Policy years date from June 1st, 1911.

Loan and cash values available after the twentieth policy year will be the full legal reserve of this policy, less all existing indebtedness to the company hereon. The amount of any such value available will be stated upon application to the home office of the company.

VII. REINSTATEMENT.—Unless previously surrendered, this policy may be reinstated any time within three years after default in the payment of a premium upon evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured at the time of reinstatement, and the payment of all past-due premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum from their respective dates of maturity; provided, that any indebtedness to the company upon the policy existing at the date of such default together with interest shall constitute a first lien upon the policy as reinstated.

VIII. ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy will be recognized by the company unless it be executed in writing in duplicate, and one of the duplicate copies filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

IX. POLICY AND APPLICATION THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the written and printed application therefor, contained in two parts, constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto. A copy of the application is attached hereto. All states ments of the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and warranties. No person other than the president, vice-president, secretary, actuary, assistant secretary or assistant actuary of the company (and they only by written instrument executed at the home office) has authority to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium; and the company shall not be bound by any promise or statement heretofore or hereafter made by any other person, or by any information possessed by, or any statement made to any other person at any time heretofore or hereafter.

The insurance hereby granted is term insurance for the first policy year, and limited-payment life insurance thereafter and the premium for the first policy year is to be treated as a premium for one year's term insurance.

X. CONTROL OF BENEFITS.—At all times when this policy shall be in force and not assigned, the insured may receive every benefit and exercise every right conferred upon him thereby, without necessity of obtaining the consent of any designated beneficiary.

In testimony whereof, the Southwestern Life Insurance Company has caused these presents to be signed in its behalf by its president and secretary at Dallas, Tex., as of the first day of June, 1911.

NOTICE.—The insured is requested to read carefully the copy of his application hereto attached, and to notify the company by a letter addressed to its home office of any mistake or erroneous statement therein contained.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—At any time when this policy shall be in force and not assigned or pledged, the insured may change the mode of the payment thereof as a death claim, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by annual instalments, as stated below. In such case any instalments maturing after the death of the beneficiary shall be payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured. The following tables are based upon a policy of $1000, and the amounts shown thereby are to be increased proportionately for larger policies. These instalment benefits do not apply to policies of less than $1000.

LIMITED INSTALLMENTS.—Annual instalments limited to the number selected. Any number from two to twenty-five may be selected by the insured.

ILLUSTRATION.—If payment is to be made by twenty instalments, the amount of each will be $68 for each $1000 of insurance. Total amount payable $1360.

CONTINUOUS INSTALLMENTS.—Instalments to continue during entire life of beneficiary; twenty-five annual instalments guaranteed. (Payment by continuous instalments cannot be selected if there be more than one beneficiary).

Age of beneficiary at death of insured.....		16 to 20	21 to 24	25 to 27	28 to 30	31 & 32

ILLUSTRATION.—Under a policy for $1000, if at the death of the insured the beneficiary were thirty years of age at last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment would be $43, payable at least during the entire life of the beneficiary; but if the beneficiary should die before twenty-five instalments had been paid, the remainder of the twenty-five instalments would be paid annually to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured. Total payable could therefore not be less than $1075.

Standard Life Insurance Co. of America (Pa.).ORDINARY LIFE, GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.*AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $281.10. AGE, 35.

Standard Life Insurance Company of America hereby agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars at its home office in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., upon the receipt of due proof of the death, while its policy is in force, of High Standard, hereinafter known as the insured, to Emma Standard, wife, hereinafter known as the beneficiary, or to such other beneficiaries as have been designated in the manner herein provided, less all indebtedness to the company in this policy or secured thereby, together with any unpaid premium or portion of premium for the then current year.

This insurance is granted for one year in consideration of the application hereto attached which, together with this policy, constitutes the entire contract, and the payment in advance of two hundred, eighty-one dollars and ten cents. The first year's insurance under this contract is preliminary term insurance.

In further consideration of the foregoing, this contract will be renewed on like terms, as an ordinary life guaranteed premium reduction policy by the payment of two hundred, eighty-one dollars and ten cents on or before the first day of April, 1913, and on each anniversary of this policy thereafter until the death of the insured.

The special benefits, privileges and provisions stated on the following pages hereof form a part of this policy as fully as if recited in length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the Standard Life Insurance Company of America has this first day of April, 1912, by its duly authorized officers, executed this contract at its home office in the city of Pittsburgh, State of Pennsylvania, but the same shall not be binding until it is delivered to the insured during his lifetime and good health, nor until the first payment herein required has been received and accepted by the company.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office in Pittsburgh, but may be paid to an agent of the company in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary. No modification of this contract shall be made except over the signature of one of such officers.

THIRTY-ONE DAYS' GRACE.—After the first year thirty-one days' grace is allowed for the payment of all premiums, during which period the policy remains in full force. Upon default in payment of any premium the company's only liability shall be such, if any, as is hereinafter provided.

GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION.—While this policy is kept in force by the payment of premiums in cash the company guarantees that after the second year such annual reductions shall be as shown on the coupons hereto attached. These guaranteed reductions may be used in any one of the following ways: First, to reduce the succeeding year's premium. Second, to purchase non-participating paid-up additions to the face of this policy. Third, to reduce the number of premium payments. Fourth, to allow guaranteed reductions to remain with the company and draw three and a half per cent interest per annum. The coupons accumulated under option four may be withdrawn at any time, or in event of death, will be added to the principal sum insured under this policy.

POLICY PAID UP.—If the guaranteed premium reductions are allowed to accumulate in accordance with options three and four mentioned above, this policy will become paid up in twenty-five years and no further premium payments will be required.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel, or the place of death from date of issue. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace. Self-destruction during the first year, whether the insured be sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company; in such cases only the net reserve on the policy will be paid. This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium, except, however, in case of misstatement of age to an adjustment of the insurance proportionate to the premium at the true age.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse, it may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all past due premiums with interest at five per cent per annum and payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness hereon with interest at said rate, unless the cash value has been paid or the lapsed insurance period has expired.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be effectual against the Company unless it is made in duplicate and one copy filed at the home office. The company assumes responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If there be no existing assignment of this policy, the insured may designate a new beneficiary by filing at the home office written notice thereon on forms provided for this purpose.

PAID-UP VALUE.—In the event of the lapse of this policy after the premiums for three full years have been paid, the policy shall become effective automatically for paid-up insurance, payable at the same time as this policy, the amount granted being as stated in the table endorsed hereon for the number of years the policy has been in force. This paid-up insurance shall have increasing cash and loan values.

CASH VALUE EXTENDED INSURANCE.—In lieu of said paid-up insurance, the insured, on satisfactory release and surrender of this policy within the days of grace, may procure either the cash value or extended term insurance as similarly stated in the table endorsed hereon.

LOANS.—After three years' premiums have been paid hereon, the insured, on the security of this policy properly assigned, may borrow at the interest rate of six per cent. per annum, payable annually, an amount not exceeding the loan value shown in the table endorsed hereon, interest to the next anniversary of the policy being payable in advance. If interest is not paid when due, it shall be added to the existing loan and bear interest at the same rate. Non-payments of loan or interest shall not void the policy until the total indebtedness exceeds the cash value hereunder, nor until thirty-one days after the company has mailed notice of such termination to the insured and assignee of record, if any, at their last known address. Payment of cash or loan values may be deferred for thirty days after the applications therefor.

DEDUCTION OF INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on this policy, including any unpaid premium or portion thereof for the then current policy year, shall be deducted upon settlement of any claim hereunder. If there be any such indebtedness, the cash and loan values will be diminished thereby, and the paid-up or extended insurance will be proportioned to the cash value so diminished.

RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy is computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent. The cash or loan value is the same as the net value of the paid-up and extended insurance provided for herein and equals such reserve less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured.

* Extended insurance begins from date of defaulted premium and includes the days of grace.

TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one full payment shall have been made, or before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium on policy No. 09,876 issued by the Standard Life Insurance Company of America, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty years, shall become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease and shall furnish satisfactory proof that he will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing all gainful occupations, the Standard Life Insurance Company of America by an endorsement in writing upon this contract will agree to pay for the insured the premiums upon said policy No. 09,876 which thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case, the premium so paid shall not be a lien on said policy and the cash or loan values on said policy in the schedule on the third page thereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. If, however, the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligations to pay the premiums shall cease and the insured shall resume payment of premiums in accordance with said policy from the first premium due date following such recovery. If the insured shall furnish satisfactory evidence of like total and permanent disability occurring after he shall have attained the age of sixty years, the subsequent premiums, without further action on the part of the insured, shall be allowed to accumulate, without interest, as an indebtedness on said policy. In any such case, the cash or loan values on said policy in the schedule on the third page thereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured.

This contract is issued in consideration of the application for policy No. 09,876 issued upon the life of High Standard and the payment of all premiums provided for therein, in accordance with the terms thereof.

Failure to pay any premium when due will void this contract.

SAMPLE COUPON.—Guaranteed annual reduction at age 35 on ordinary life contract is $5.51 per $1000 insured, or 19.6 per cent.

GUARANTEED REDUCTION.—On demand on or after April 1, 1913, Standard Life Insurance Company of America, home office, Pittsburgh, Pa., will pay to the order of the insured under policy No. 09,876 (or to the order of the assignee, if said policy is assigned) a reduction of fifty-five and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, provided all full annual premiums due on said to and including said date have been paid in cash. Payable at its home office.

State Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $372.

AGE, 35.

The State Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis, Ind., hereby insures the life of John Doe, hereinafter called the insured, of Indianapolis, State of Indiana, and agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, Indianapolis, Ind., to Mary E. Doe, his wife, (or to such other beneficiary or beneficiaries as may be designated by the insured as hereinafter provided), if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of the insured, and of the interest of the claimant, this policy being then in force, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, including any of the current year's premium remaining unpaid.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After premiums have been paid for two years from the date hereof (this policy being then in force, and provided there is no indebtedness against it), at the time any premium becomes due, or within the period of grace, or upon default in the payment of any premium when due, or within thirty-one days thereafter, the owner of this policy may select any one of the options in the following table, and in the event that no such selection is made, the company will continue this policy in force as extended insurance, according to the first option, and all other options will be deemed waived; such extended insurance being non-participating and without loan or cash values. The values in the table apply only in the event there is no indebtedness against the policy; but any such indebtedness may be paid in cash and the values in the table will then be applicable; or if not so paid, the cash and loan values will be reduced by the amount of indebtedness, and the amount of paid-up insurance will be reduced in the ratio of the indebtedness to the net value of such insurance, and the extended insurance shall be for such length of time only as the excess of the net value of extended insurance as shown in the table, over the indebtedness will purchase at the insured's attained age at the net single premium rate by the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. Dividend additions to the policy, and additional premium payments for any fractional part of a year, if any, will increase the values in the table in proportion to the increase in the value of the reserve thereby.

The reserve on this policy is computed on the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance purchased by the whole or a part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana. In every case the values in the foregoing table are equal to the full reserve on the policy less not to exceed one-half of one per centum of the sum insured. After the period covered by the foregoing table, and subject to the same conditions, the cash and loan values will be the full reserve less any indebtedness against the policy.

This contract is made in consideration of the application therefor, which is made a part hereof, and a copy of which is hereto attached, and in further consideration of the sum of three hundred and seventy-two dollars, to be paid in advance to the company on or before the delivery of this policy, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the ninth day of January in each year until twenty full years' premiums, including the first, have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

I. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above in advance, as follows: One hundred ninety-three and $\frac{41}{100}$ dollars semi-annually on each ninth day of January and July or ninety-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars quarter-annually on each ninth day of January, April, July and October. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or any instalment thereof, shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or any instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office or to an agent of the company, upon delivery of the receipt therefor signed by the president or secretary of the company, and countersigned by the said agent. A grace of thirty-one days shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first year, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the period of grace, any unpaid premium for the current year will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder.

II. PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company, except during such time as it may be in force as extended insurance, as apportioned by the board of directors of the company, and at the end of the second year and annually hereafter the divisible surplus so ascertained accruing thereon will be credited to this policy as a dividend. Dividends thus credited, at the option of the owner of this policy shall be: First, paid in cash; or second, applied toward the payment of any premium; or third, applied to the purchase of paid-up participating additional insurance which may be surrendered at any time and the reserve value, not less than the original cash value, applied to pay current premiums; or fourth, left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at not less than three per cent per annum, and payable at the maturity of the policy, or withdrawable on any anniversary of its date. Unless the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise, in writing, the apportioned dividends shall be held to the credit of the policy, in accordance with the fourth option, and if any premium is not paid at the expiration of the days of grace the company will keep the policy in force by applying said dividend accumulations to the payment due on the policy, provided such accumulations are sufficient to pay a quarterly instalment of an annual premium.

III. PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTIONS.—Whenever the reserve on this policy at the end of a policy year, taken together with the reserve on existing additions, shall be equal to or greater than the net single premium by the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three per cent interest for an amount of insurance equal to the face amount of this policy for the attained age of the insured, the company, at the written request of the insured, accompanied by the policy (provided this policy be free from indebtedness), will endorse the policy as full-paid participating insurance payable at the same time and in the same manner as the original policy for such an amount as said reserve will purchase when thus applied; or whenever said reserve at the end of a policy year, shall be equal to or greater than the face amount of this policy, the company, upon receipt of the policy with a full and valid surrender thereof and all claims thereunder, will pay in cash the face amount of this policy and any excess of said reserve, less any existing indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy.

IV. PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.—This policy while in full force and before the insured has attained the age of sixty years, may be changed at any time without medical re-examination, for a policy of the same amount upon any plan issued by the company at the time this policy takes effect, and having a higher rate of premium. Such change shall be effective upon payment of a sum equal to the difference between the premiums on the new policy and the premiums paid on this policy, with compound interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the due date of each payment to the date when the change is made, and upon the surrender of this policy. The new policy will take effect as of the date of this policy, and the premium will be based upon the same age as this policy. The cash value of any dividends standing to the credit of this policy, as well as any additional cash value of such dividends that would have been credited under the new policy, may be used in the settlement of the difference in premiums.

V. LOANS.—After two full years' premiums shall have been paid, at any time while this policy is in force, except such time as it shall be in force as extended insurance, the company will loan on the sole security of this policy upon proper and legal assignment and delivery thereof, a sum equal to, or at the option of the insured, less than the loan value of the policy in the table of options on the first page hereof according to the number of full years' premiums paid, at the time the loan is made, plus the value of the reserve in any dividend additions to the policy, less any existing indebtedness on or secured by the policy and any unpaid portion of the current year's premium. Interest in advance at the end of the current policy year, at five per cent per annum will be charged. Interest at the same rate will be due and payable annually in advance thereafter, and if not so paid will be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest. Provided, that unless applied for on the anniversary of the date of the policy, or within thirty-one days hereafter, the company reserves the right to defer such loan for not exceeding sixty days from the receipt of the application therefor. Failure to repay such loan, or to pay interest thereon when due, shall not void the policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon shall equal or exceed the amount loanable hereunder, at the time of such failure in which case the policy shall immediately cease and become void: Provided, such termination shall not take effect until thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

VI. TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—If the insured, after paying at least full annual premium and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium and before attaining the age of sixty years, shall become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or by disease, so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or from following any gainful occupation, the company, upon receipt at its home office of due proof of such disability of the insured, will waive payment of the premiums due after becoming due, by a written endorsement hereon. Any premiums so waived shall not be a lien on this policy, and the values in the table of options on the first page shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured. The insured should so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the option on the part of the company to waive payment of premiums shall cease, and the insured shall resume payment of premiums in accordance with this contract, beginning with the first premium becoming due after the date of such recovery. Proofs as to those required in the first instance of such continuous disability, must be furnished prior to the payment of each premium by the company, if requested. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, the entire hand and one foot, occurring before the age of sixty, will be considered total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. Upon the written request of the insured and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, after proof of total and permanent disability as aforesaid, and in lieu of all other values, benefits and options hereon provided, the company will pay in full settlement of this policy, one-twentieth of the sum originally insured (exclusive of any accident benefit) and dividend additions, if any, and will pay the same amount annually thereafter, until twenty such payments in all have been made, provided, that if there be any indebtedness against this policy, the amount of such annual payments will be reduced in the same proportion that the indebtedness bears to three-fourths of the sum insured. In the event of the death of the insured prior to the last of said payments, any remaining payments will be paid to the beneficiary, if living, if not, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

VII. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured at any time and without cost, during the continuance of this policy, and subject to the rules of the company regarding assignments and change of beneficiaries, may change the beneficiary by written notice to the company, at its home office; such change shall take effect on the endorsement of same on the policy by the company, and be subject to the rights of any assignee.

VIII. ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy, together with the application therefor, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statements shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in the application therefor.

IX. SUICIDE.—If the insured, whether sane or insane, shall die by his own hand, within one year from the date hereof, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon.

X. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time succeeding default in premium payment upon evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured according to the company's usage, and payment of all premium arrears with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness which existed at the time of such default with interest from that time.

XI. ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it is filed with the company at its home office. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of any assignment. All claims under assignments are subject to satisfactory proof of the assignee's interest in the life insured.

XII. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from the date hereof, except for non-payment of premiums. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

XIII. INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—The insured reserves the right to change the mode of payment of this policy as a death claim without the consent of any beneficiary, by filing at the home office of the company a written request therefor, accompanied by a policy for endorsement of such change thereon, so as to provide that each $1000 of premium due upon maturity of this policy by the death of the insured shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with any one of the following instalment options. In the event there being more than one beneficiary entitled to share in the proceeds of the policy, the continuous instalment options cannot be selected, but the right under the instalment option shall be joint and vest in the survivors, and shall not be severed without the consent of the company. The first instalment will be paid in each case upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, during the continuance of this policy, and interest of the claimant; subsequent instalments will be paid annually thereafter. The insured shall make and file a written request therefor the company will not require any instalment payments during the lifetime of the beneficiary. Option 1. In fifteen annual instalments of $113.80 each, amounting to $1707. Option 2. In fifteen annual instalments of $81.30 each, amounting to $1219.50. Option 3. In twenty annual instalments of $65.25 each, amounting to $1305. Option 4. In annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined from the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, on his birthday, at the date of the death of the insured. If the beneficiary should die before twenty annual instalments have been paid, the company will pay any remaining ents to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. Option 5. In annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured.

XIV. INSTALLMENT COUPONS.—Should the policy become a valid claim by death, and the insured has selected either the first, second or third of the instalment options above provided, the company will upon surrender of the policy, issue to the beneficiary an instalment contract with coupons attached, numbered consecutively according to the number of such instalments under the option selected, and each coupon providing for the payment of one of the annual instalments, and should the fourth or fifth option be selected, the company will upon such surrender of the policy, issue to the beneficiary an annuity contract, providing for the payment of annual instalments, in accordance with the terms of the option selected.

XV. PREMIUMS.—In case any premium should not be paid when due, according to the terms of this contract, then and in every such case, this policy shall cease and determine, except as otherwise herein expressly provided. If any note or other obligation given for the first year's premium or any part thereof on this policy shall not be paid when due, this policy contract shall be and become null and void without any notice or action of the company, notwithstanding any receipt which may have been given for such premium.

XVI. AUTHORITY.—Only the president, a vice-president or the secretary (and then writing only) has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above.

XVII. PROOFS OF DEATH.—In the event of the death of the insured while this policy is in force, application should be made to the company at its home office, for blank forms on which to make proofs.

XVIII. CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—The insured should give prompt notice to the company of any change of residence or postoffice address. Notice of each and every payment due or to become due hereon at the date named is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy, and any further notice of such payment due or to become due required by any statute is hereby expressly waived.

XIX. ANNUAL MEETING.—The insured is hereby notified that, by virtue of this policy, while the same remains in force, he is a member of the State Life Insurance Company, and entitled to vote at its annual meetings, which are holden at its home office, in the city of Indianapolis, Ind., on the third Thursday of January in each year, at two o'clock P. M.

In witness whereof, the State Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, at its home office in the city of Indianapolis, this 15th day of January, 1913.

State Mutual Life Assurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS—TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $366.10. AGE, 35

The State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester, Mass., in consideration of the application for this policy, which is made a part of this contract, a full copy of which application is hereunto annexed, and in further consideration of the payment in advance, of the premiums required by this policy, does insure the life of John Ward of Worcester, County of Worcester and State of Massachusetts, herein called the insured, in the amount of ten thousand dollars, and promises to pay, at its home office, in Worcester, said amount to Mary Ward, wife of the insured, if living, or to such other beneficiary as may, according to the conditions stated herein, be finally designated and recognized by endorsement hereon, and if no such beneficiary be then living, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, upon due proof of the death of the said insured, during the continuance in force of this policy, the unpaid premium, or instalments thereof, if any, for the balance of the policy year then entered upon, and any other indebtedness to the company on account of this policy being first deducted therefrom.

The annual premium required by this policy is three hundred and sixty-six dollars and ten cents, and is due and payable on or before the ninth day of February in each year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the provisions and conditions specified on the second and third pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

This policy shall be incontestable after one year from the date of its issue, except for non-payment of premiums.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

POLICY AND APPLICATION ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application thereon shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all the statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense to a claim thereunder unless it be contained in the written application therefor and a copy of such application be securely attached thereto when issued. This policy shall not take effect until actually delivered and the first premium paid hereon during the lifetime of the insured. The possession of this policy is not evidence that the first premium has been paid. The first and all subsequent premiums are due and payable at the home office of the company in Worcester, Massachusetts, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt for the premium, signed by the president, vice-president, or secretary, and countersigned by the agent or agency cashier designated thereon.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—The premiums on this policy are payable annually, in advance, but the insured may, with the assent of the company, pay the same, in advance, in semi-annual or quarter-annual instalments, according to the company's published rates therefor, provided such semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium amounts to at least the sum of $5.00. In case of failure to pay any premium when due or within the grace period, this policy shall thereupon lapse and become void, and all premium payments previously made shall be forfeited to the company, and its only liability hereunder shall be such, if any, as is stated in this policy. This policy is issued by the company and accepted by the insured with the agreement that, subject to the provisions contained herein, no annual premium, or semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, paid on this policy shall continue in force beyond the date at which the next annual premium or semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, shall become due.

GRACE PERIOD.—After the payment of the first regular premium, annual, semi-annual or quarterly, a grace of thirty-one days, without interest, will be allowed in the payment of all future premiums. During the period of grace this policy shall remain in full force.

PREMIUM LOANS.—If this policy be not assigned, upon request of the insured, may prior to any default in the payment of any premium hereunder, the company will make a loan to the insured, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from due date of said premium, for the sole purpose of paying such premium, provided the cash surrender or loan value hereunder is sufficient to cover such loan with interest to the time the premium (annual, semi-annual or quarterly) is due hereon. Any premium loan, with accrued interest, may be repaid at any time prior to default in premium payment, but until paid will be an indebtedness hereunder.

POLICY LOAN.—After two full annual premiums have been paid on this policy, provided it is not continued as extended insurance, the holder hereof, upon its assignment and delivery to the company, shall, within thirty days of the application therefor, be entitled to a loan from the company on the sole security of this policy.

interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, of a sum not exceeding its loan value, as shown by the accompanying table, less interest on the amount so loaned to the next anniversary of this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company under this policy and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy while the total indebtedness hereon is less than such loan value at the time such default in payment occurs nor until thirty-one days after notice has been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—This policy may be re-instated at any time after default in premium payment, provided it has not been surrendered for its cash value, or its extension period expired, upon the production of evidence, satisfactory to the company, of the insurability of the person whose life was insured and the payment of all over-due premiums and the payment or re-instatement of any other indebtedness to the company under this policy with simple interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—At any time while this policy is in full force, it may be changed, without medical examination, to any other form of policy in use by the company at the time this policy was issued, but without the right to disability benefits, provided the rate of premium be not diminished thereby, upon payment of the difference between the premiums under the new policy and the premiums paid under this policy (exclusive of the special premiums paid for disability benefits) for the same period and the same amount of insurance, with interest compounded annually at the rate of six per centum per annum, and with proper adjustment of differences in dividends apportioned under the two forms of policies. The new policy will be for the same amount, bear the same date, and written at the same age as this policy.

MODIFICATIONS.—Agents are not authorized to modify this policy or to extend the time of paying the premium.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right to do so has been reserved in the application for this policy, the insured, if of full age, at any time during the continuance of this policy, may change and successively change the beneficiary hereunder, whether original or substituted, without his or her consent, provided that any proposed beneficiary shall have an insurable interest in the life of the insured, and, further, that any change in beneficial interest shall be subject to the right of any assignee. The insured may, however, declare the designation of any beneficiary to be irrevocable. During the lifetime of any irrevocably designated beneficiary, the insured shall not have the right to revoke or change the designation of that beneficiary, without his or her consent. If any beneficiary, revocable or irrevocable, dies before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured. Every change or designation must be made by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this policy, and will take effect only when endorsed on this policy by the company.

WAR RISK.—Military and Naval service in time of war is a risk not assumed by the company or covered by this policy during the first year, and if the insured shall engage in such service during the first year this policy is in force, this policy shall thereupon become null and void and no claim shall exist thereunder except for the amount of the premium paid thereon.

SUICIDE.—If the insured shall commit suicide within one year from the date hereof, while sane or insane, this policy shall be null and void, except for the amount of the premium paid thereon.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be valid unless made in writing and filed with the company at its home office. By receiving or filing any assignment, the company assumes no responsibility as to its validity. The claim of any assignee shall be subject to any indebtedness to the company hereunder.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured was incorrectly stated in the application for this policy, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age. Any error in age discovered during the lifetime of the insured will be subject to correction and adjustment of premium.

RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy will be based on the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent per annum.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After two full years' premiums have been paid on this policy, the holder hereof, within thirty days after default in the payment of a subsequent premium, may elect by a writing filed with the company at its home office, (a) to surrender the policy and, with the written assent of the person to whom it is made payable, receive its value in cash, or (b) take paid-up insurance, which shall be participating, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as in the original contract, or (c) have the insurance continued in force as extended insurance from the anniversary last passed for its face amount, including any outstanding dividend additions and less any indebtedness to the company hereon or secured hereby, but without the right to loans.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP PROVISION WITH SPECIAL BENEFITS.—If the holder shall not within thirty days from default surrender this policy to the company for cash, as provided in Option (a), or elect by a writing filed with the company at its home office to take extended insurance as provided in Option (c), the insurance will be binding upon the company from the date of default without any further stipulation or act on the part of the insured, as provided in Option (b). The cash surrender value of paid-up insurance under Option (b), at any time, will be its net legal reserve. Paid-up insurance under Option (b) will have loan values and will participate annually in the divisible surplus of the company.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—Upon the written request of the insured, extended insurance, as described above under Option (c), may be made the automatic option in case of default in the payment of any premium by an endorsement on this policy, made at the home office of the company, provided such request is filed at the said home office when there is no premium due hereon and unpaid.

EXTENDED INSURANCE PARTICIPATING AND CASH VALUES.—If this policy is continued in force as extended insurance, it shall participate annually in the divisible surplus of the company and its cash surrender value will be its net legal reserve; and, upon proper request and release on the part of the insured, may be reconverted into a participating policy for an amount its cash value will purchase as a net single premium at the age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three per cent per annum.

TERM OF EXTENDED INSURANCE AND AMOUNT OF PAID-UP INSURANCE.—The term of this policy will be continued as extended insurance or the amount of paid-up insurance, as given in the accompanying table, is such as the cash value will purchase a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three per centum per annum; but no part contained herein shall operate to continue this policy in force beyond the term for it was originally written.

CASH SURRENDER AND LOAN VALUES.—The cash surrender and loan value for each given in the accompanying table, is the reserve on this policy less a surrender charge a maximum the second year (after payment of premiums for two full years) of ten for each one thousand dollars of insurance hereunder, and decreasing annually thereafter by one dollar and twenty-five cents for each one thousand dollars of insurance here. After payment of premiums for ten full years, the cash surrender and loan value for each year, including the intermediate years beyond twenty not given in the accompanying table, is the full reserve under this policy.

VALUES INCREASED BY ADDITIONS OR BY PAYMENT OF QUARTERLY OR SEMI-ANNUAL PREMIUMS.—The said values will be increased if there are any outstanding paid-up additions to this policy and diminished if there be any indebtedness hereunder. If any annual or one or more quarter-annual instalments of the annual premium have been in any year, the values for that year will be the values at the end of the last policy for which the annual premium was paid in full plus such proportionate part of the increase in the values at the end of the succeeding year.

DIVIDEND PROVISIONS.

DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company. The portion of the divisible surplus of the company contributed by this policy shall be obtained and distributed annually as dividends, beginning at the end of the first policy year. Each such dividend shall, annually, at the option of the holder of the policy, (a) be payable in cash, or (b) be applied in reduction of premiums, or (c) to the purchase of additional insurance, which may be surrendered at any time for cash, or (d) be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of this policy and be payable at the maturity thereof, withdrawable, either wholly or in part, in cash on demand by the holder of this policy as hereinafter set forth. On dividends so left, interest will be allowed less than three per cent per annum, but no allowance for interest will be made for the first part of a year.

AUTOMATIC PAYMENT OF PREMIUM BY DIVIDENDS.—If no election is made by the holder of this policy prior to any anniversary thereof, the dividend for that anniversary shall be held by the company as provided in Option (d) and if any premium on this policy (semi-annual or quarter-annual) is not paid at the expiration of the days of grace, the company will keep this policy in force by applying the dividend accumulations to the payment due on this policy, if such accumulations are sufficient to make such payment in full; provided that nothing herein contained shall operate to continue this policy beyond the period for which any dividend accumulation so applied would have been sufficient to pay the full premium rate, nor beyond the term for which this policy was originally issued. Any dividends which may be apportioned hereon while this policy is continued as extended insurance shall not be applied to continue this policy beyond the term of extension given in the accompanying table of values.

METHOD OF APPLYING DIVIDENDS TO PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—The application of dividends to the payment of premiums will be made as follows: The accumulations will be applied to the payment of the annual premium required by this policy. If sufficient for the annual premium, then to the payment of a semi-annual instalment of the annual premium, and if not sufficient for a semi-annual, then to the payment of a quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, and continuing in like manner until the remaining accumulations to the credit of this policy are sufficient to pay a quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium required by this policy. In case of failure to pay any semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium required by this policy occurs in any year after a payment of an instalment of the annual premium has been made by the insured, then the accumulations will be applied to the payment of unpaid quarter-annual or semi-annual instalments of the annual premium for the year then entered upon. No remaining portion of such accumulations to less than a quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, according to the company's published rates therefor, will be applied to continuing this policy in force but will not be credited to the credit of this policy and be paid with the amount due hereunder when it comes a claim.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MAKE POLICY FULLY PAID-UP.—Whenever the accumulations of dividends (d) and the cash value of dividend additions (c), if any, together with the reserve on this policy, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality at interest at three per cent per annum, shall be equal to the reserve computed in like manner on a fully paid-up policy of the same kind and amount at the age then attained by the insured, the company will, upon the execution and delivery of a proper form of test and release, on presentation of this policy at its home office in Worcester, make endorsement thereon showing that it has become fully paid-up.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO ACCELERATE MATURITY OF POLICY.—Whenever the accumulations from dividends (d) and the cash value of dividend additions (c), if any, together with the reserve on this policy, computed as above, shall be equal to the face amount of this policy, the company will, upon the surrender of this policy, together with a legal assignment of all claims hereunder, pay as a matured endowment the amount of said policy less any existing indebtedness to the company on account of same.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT PROVISION.—If the insured hereunder, after the payment of one full year's premium on this policy, and while no premium is in arrear, shall furnish due proofs that, before reaching the age of sixty years, because of accident or disease he has become wholly, continuously and permanently unable to pursue his usual or gainful occupation and presumably for life will be unable to perform any work, mental or manual, or engage in any business for compensation or profit, and that such disability is sustained or contracted after the date hereof, the company will with the written assent of all the parties in interest, pay to the insured, one tenth of the face amount of this policy, as a like amount annually thereafter, on the anniversary of the first instalment payment, until the continuance of such disability, until said face amount, less any indebtedness hereunder, shall have been paid in full, or until the maturity of the policy when any unpaid instalment of the sum insured, less any indebtedness, shall be paid as provided in this policy. The value of any dividend additions or accumulations then outstanding shall be payable at the final payment. The first instalment shall be paid one year after the receipt of proof of said disability, and then only if it shall appear that the insured is still totally, permanently and incurably disabled as defined above. During said year any medical adviser, or other accredited representative of the company, shall be permitted to examine the person of the insured in respect of the alleged disability, at such time and in such manner as the company may desire. The payment of any premium during said year shall be waived, and this policy shall continue in force as if such premium had been paid. The annual instalment so paid shall reduce by the amount thereof the insurance in force, the values provided under non-forfeiture provisions hereunder shall be for the reduced amount, subject to any existing indebtedness. This policy must be forwarded to the home office for endorsement of the payment of each disability instalment. Whenever the cash surrender value of the reduced insurance is less than any indebtedness hereunder, the difference in amount shall be deducted from the succeeding instalment, and the indebtedness correspondingly reduced. Whenever the amount of the instalments paid together with any indebtedness hereunder, shall equal the face amount of the policy and the value of any dividend additions or accumulations, the liability of the company shall be satisfied. By the acceptance of this contract the insured agrees that, after the said instalments become payable as above described, any medical examiner appointed by the company shall be allowed from time to time, but not oftener than once a year, to satisfy himself of the continuance of such disability by the examination of the person of the insured, if it is established that the insured has recovered so as to be able to again engage in his usual or gainful occupation, or has so engaged, or if the insured refuses to permit such examination by a medical examiner, no further instalment payments will be made by the company. But if the amount of insurance shall then have been reduced under the foregoing provisions, such reduced amount of insurance shall thereafter be the face amount of the policy and the premiums thereafter becoming due will be in proportion to the reduced amount of insurance, and all benefits under the policy will be reduced accordingly. During the period of disability, as defined above, the premiums hereon shall be waived. If the policy becomes paid-up for a reduced amount or is continued in force as extended insurance, no disability benefits shall attach to it nor to any dividend additions payable thereunder. The total and irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes, the severance of both hands above the wrist or both feet above the ankle, or similar loss of one foot and hand, shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. The provision for disability benefits herein set forth is granted in consideration of the payment of a special premium of six dollars and ten cents with each annual premium payable hereunder, and this amount is included in the whole premium charged for this policy. The special premium shall cease (1) on the completion of the premium payments required by the terms of this policy; (2) on the policy anniversary nearest to age sixty of the insured, if prior to completion of said premium payments; or (3) it may be discontinued on any anniversary of this policy on the written request of the insured, accompanied by this policy for endorsement, in which latter event this provision will become void.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.

CONDITIONS OF INSTALMENT SETTLEMENT.—Settlement by instalments may be substituted for payment of the proceeds of this policy in one sum, according to one of the foregoing options, and subject to the conditions stated below. If there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy when it becomes a claim, such indebtedness shall be deducted from its proceeds and the balance due will be the basis of any settlement by instalments hereunder. The insured, at any time while this policy is in force, for an amount not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars and not assigned, may, by notice to the company in writing, choose one of the methods of settlement designated below.

After making a selection of manner of payment, the insured may revoke his selection and select another manner by notifying the company in writing. If such choice is not made by the insured, the same privilege shall be extended to the beneficiary at the time this policy becomes a claim, with the right to receive the present value of any unpaid instalments in one sum. After the death of the insured (selection of instalment option having been made), on the payment of the first instalment upon either of the plans mentioned below, this policy shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement or surrender to the company in exchange for an instalment contract in accordance with the instalment option selected. The first instalment shall be paid upon satisfactory proof of claim upon the company, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter upon the anniversary of the first instalment payment. The beneficiary shall not have the right to commute the instalment payable hereunder unless the insured, during his or her lifetime shall have given such right to the beneficiary, and notified the company in writing to that effect. Should the beneficiary under this policy, surviving the insured, die before receiving all the instalments payable, the then present or commuted value of all such instalments shall be paid in one sum to the executors or administrators of the said beneficiary, unless other provisions shall have been previously made for the continuation of the instalment payments.

EQUAL INSTALMENTS—OPTION A.—On the basis of each one thousand ($1000) dollars due, the proceeds may be paid in any number of equal annual instalments, from five to twenty-five, as may be designated, according to the following table:

Number of instalments....	5	6	7	8	9	10	11

Amount of instalments....	67.78	65.25	62.98	60.92	59.04	57.32	55.78

CONTINUOUS INSTALMENT—OPTION B.—On the basis of each one thousand ($1000) dollars due, the proceeds may be paid in five, ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five instalments, each for an amount determined by the attained age of the beneficiary and the number of the stipulated instalments selected at the time this policy becomes a claim, according to the following table; and in addition thereto similar amounts shall be paid yearly during the after lifetime of the beneficiary.

PARTIAL PAYMENT AND DEPOSIT—OPTION C.—The proceeds or any part of the proceeds of this policy, in even hundreds of dollars, to the amount of not less than $100 may be left with the company and the person entitled thereto shall receive thereon at the end of each year interest at the rate of three per cent per annum. The amount so left with the company may be withdrawn at any time when an instalment of interest is payable, and if not withdrawn the said amount, together with any accumulation of interest accrued thereon from the date when the last full interest instalment was payable, shall be paid in full upon satisfactory proof of the death of the beneficiary.

PARTIAL PAYMENT AND INSTALMENTS—OPTION D.—The person legally entitled to the proceeds of this policy may elect to take part of said proceeds in cash and have the remainder, in even hundreds of dollars and to the amount of not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars, payable in accordance with one of the above instalment options.

MONTHLY, QUARTERLY OR SEMI-ANNUAL INSTALMENTS.—Provision may be made for payment in monthly, quarterly or semi-annual instead of annual instalments which shall be the full equivalent in value of the annual instalments specified.

INSTALMENTS INCREASED BY DIVIDENDS.—The stipulated instalments, payable under instalment options A and C and the first five, ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five instalments under option B, will be increased by any dividends which may be apportioned thereon.

INSTALMENTS INCREASED BY ADDITIONS.—Any outstanding paid-up dividend additions or dividend accumulations to the credit of this policy when it becomes a claim may be taken by the person legally entitled thereto, or included in the amount of the instalment settlement.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

hereby certify that I have read all the statements and answers in Parts I and II of this application, and declare that they have been correctly recorded by soliciting agent and medical examiner, and that no circumstance or information touching my past and present state of health and habits of life has been withheld. I agree that the insurance hereby applied for shall not take effect until this application has been approved by the company at its home office, and the first premium on the proposed policy shall have been paid and the said policy delivered to me while I am in the condition of health described herein, except in case a conditional receipt has been issued as hereinbefore provided. I also agree that military and naval service in time of war is not a risk assumed by the said company or covered by the proposed policy during the first year, and that should I engage in such service during the first year the proposed policy is in force, said policy shall thereupon become null and void and no claim shall thereunder except for the amount of the premium paid thereon. I further agree, that should I die within one year from the date of the proposed policy I shall die by my own hand or otherwise, whether I be at that time sane or insane, the proposed policy shall thereupon become null and void except for the amount of the premium paid thereon.

NTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT— FIVE-YEAR DISTRIBUTION.

UNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $376.50. AGE, 35.

n Life Assurance Company of Canada in consideration of the representations and agreements contained in the application for this policy, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof, of the sum of three hundred seventy-six and ⁶⁰/₁₀₀ dollars to be paid on the ninth day of January, 1913, and of the payment of a like amount yearly thereafter on the ninth day of January in every year during the continuance of this policy, until the full years' premiums shall have been paid, this company insures the life of John Doe, of Linesville, State of Pennsylvania, merchant (herein called the assured), in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which shall be payable at its office, in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., to the executors, administrators or assigns of the assured, on receipt at its head office of due proofs of the death of the assured and of the title of the claimant, deducting therefrom any sums due to the company by either the assured or the beneficiary in connection with this policy, and the undivided balance, if any, of the premium for the current policy year. Both the sum assured and the premiums mentioned herein shall be paid in United States currency.

The privileges, options and mutual agreements set forth on the first, second, third and fourth pages hereof form part of this contract and are binding on both parties hereto.

Witness my hand and sealed at Montreal, this tenth day of January, 1913.

DEPENDENT PROVISIONS.—This policy is issued on the five year distribution plan, the provisions of which are as follows: That this policy shall participate in profits at the end of every five years from the date on which the first premium falls due, and the amount of profits shall be made hereon unless the assured be alive at the end of such period and this policy be then in force. That profits so allotted to this policy be taken in any one of the following forms: (One) As a bonus or reversionary interest on the sum assured. (Two) As a reduction of the premiums for the next five years.

(Three) As a single cash payment. If either the second or third of the above methods be chosen, the assured cannot revert to the first method at any future division, but on producing a certificate of health satisfactory to the company.

ALTERNATIVE METHODS OF SETTLEMENT AT MATURITY.—The assured or the owner, or the beneficiary after the assured's death if the assured shall have made no election, by written notice to the company, elect that in lieu of payment in one sum the net amount payable hereunder may be: (1) Left as a deposit with the company during the lifetime of the beneficiary or payee bearing interest at the rate of three per cent per annum payable at the end of each year. At the death of the beneficiary or payee the deposit with the interest accrued to the date of death shall be payable, unless otherwise directed in the said notice, to the legal representatives or assigns of the beneficiary or payee. The said deposit may be withdrawn at any time by the beneficiary or payee giving three months' notice in writing to the company, provided the company has not been otherwise directed by the assured; or (2) converted into a specified number of annual instalments, in accordance with the table of instalments given below; or (3) converted into equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years, and for so many years longer as the beneficiary or payee may be living at the time the first instalment shall survive. Each instalment shall be for the amount corresponding to the attained age of the beneficiary or payee on the date on which the single cash payment would have been payable, according to the table of instalments given below. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been received prior to the death of the beneficiary or payee entitled to receive the first instalment shall be payable, unless otherwise directed in the said notice, to the legal representatives or assigns of the said beneficiary or payee. Unless the company shall have been otherwise directed by the assured in writing, the remaining instalments may at any time be commuted by the beneficiary or payee at the rate of three and one-half per cent compound interest, and the commuted value drawn in one sum; provided, however, that under the above instalments, contingent upon the beneficiary or payee living after the twenty year period, payments shall have been made, cannot be commuted. The above method of settlement is based upon an assumed interest rate of three per cent, but if in any year the company shall declare for that year on funds held by it under such modes of settlement a greater interest rate than three per cent, the sum payable shall be increased proportionally. This policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary contract shall be issued for the option selected.

PRIVILEGES.

I. RESIDENCE AND OCCUPATION.—The assured may reside anywhere or engage in any occupation.

II. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the head office of the company or to an agent thereof, upon delivery of a receipt signed by either the president, managing-director or secretary of the company and countersigned by the said agent. Thirty days of grace are allowed for the payment of renewal premiums, without interest charge, during which time the assurance shall continue in force.

III. INDISPUTABILITY.—This policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and shall be indisputable after two years from the date of issue, provided the premiums be regularly paid. All statements made by the assured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall void the policy unless it is contained in the written application, a copy whereof is attached to this policy. If the age of the assured has been misstated, the amount payable shall be such sum as the premium paid would have purchased according to the rate at the true age.

IV. CASH VALUE.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, this policy may, in the absence of any legal restriction to the contrary, be surrendered to the company for the amount of the cash value specified in the table of guaranteed values attached hereto, increased by the cash value of any existing bonus additions. Any indebtedness due to the company on this policy by either the assured or the beneficiary shall be deducted from the said cash value.

V. LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid the company will advance on the sole security of this policy any amount not exceeding the cash value of the policy as provided for in Privilege IV. above. The policy must be deposited with the company, together with a properly executed loan agreement on the company's form. The rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent per annum. This privilege is subject to the condition that there is no legal restriction to the contrary and that any indebtedness due to the company on this policy by either the assured or the beneficiary shall be deducted from the said loan. The company may also collect interest in advance to the end of the current policy year. Failure to pay any such loan or the interest thereon shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the assured and of the assignee, if any.

VI. PAID-UP ASSURANCE.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, provided this policy be still in force, the company will, if this policy be surrendered to the company and discharged in writing before the expiration of the days of grace (and otherwise), issue in exchange therefor a non-participating paid-up policy for the amount set forth in the table of guaranteed values attached hereto, increased by any existing bonus additions. This paid-up assurance shall be payable at the time this policy would have become due if it had been continued in force, and shall be subject to indebtedness to the company on this policy by either the assured or the beneficiary.

VII. EXTENDED TERM ASSURANCE.—After this policy shall have been three full years in force, in the event of default in the payment of any premium, provided that there be indebtedness to the company on this policy, and provided the policy be not surrendered in accordance with privilege IV. or VI., the assurance hereunder shall be automatically extended as term assurance from the date of default in premium payment, but without participation in profits or the right to loans or surrender values, for the full amount assured under this policy and existing bonus additions. The said assurance shall be for a period, including the days of grace, set forth in the table of guaranteed values attached hereto, and shall be payable only if the assured die within the specified time. The cash value of any existing bonus additions shall be applied to lengthen the said period. The value of the said term assurance shall be equal to the cash value of this policy as specified in Privilege IV., and shall be at least equal to the reserve on this policy and existing bonus additions, according to the British Offices $O_m^{(5)}$ table with three per cent interest, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the said sum assured and existing bonus additions. If there be any indebtedness to the company on this policy, the assurance hereunder shall be automatically extended as above for an amount equal to the sum hereby assured and existing bonus additions less the amount of the said indebtedness, and the period of term assurance shall be such as the cash value of this policy as provided above, after deducting the said indebtedness, with purchase at net single premium rates by the British Offices $O_m^{(5)}$ table with 3 per cent interest, according to the attained age of the assured.

VIII. PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTION.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the reserve on this policy and existing bonus additions shall equal or exceed the net single premium for the attained age of the assured according to the British Offices $O_m^{(5)}$ table per cent table for an amount equal to the face value of this policy, payable at the end of the time and under the same conditions as this policy, the company, at the written request of the assured and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, will endorse this policy subject to any existing indebtedness) as a fully paid-up participating policy for such amount as the said reserve will purchase according to the said standard table of mortality at a rate of interest; or, whenever the said reserve on this policy and bonus additions shall equal or exceed the face value of this policy, the company, upon a full and valid surrender of this policy and all claims thereunder, will pay in cash the full amount of this policy and any excess of the said reserve (less any indebtedness to the company).

IX. REINSTATEMENT.—In the event of default in the payment of any premium, and provided this policy has not been surrendered in accordance with privilege IV. or VI., it may be reinstated at any time upon written application by the assured with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and upon payment of all arrears of premium with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded yearly, and reinstated, with interest, of any indebtedness existing at the time of default.

X. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the assured may, provided he have not assigned it or any interest therein, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries from time to time during the continuance of this policy by filing with the company a written request, in such form as the company may require, accompanied by this policy; such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same by the policy by the company.

PRIVILEGE XI.

TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.—At any time after one full year's premium shall have been paid, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the assured, before attaining his sixtieth birthday, shall furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or disease, and is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, then: (1) The company by endorsement hereon will agree to pay for the assured the subsequent premiums, if any, as they shall become due, during the period of such total and permanent disability. Any premium so paid shall not be a lien on this policy, and the guaranteed values in the table attached hereto shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums had been paid in cash by the assured, and the policy shall continue to participate in profits. (2) The company will also, upon the written request of the assured or of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, and after payment of all indebtedness to the company in respect of the policy, agree by endorsement hereon to pay in lieu of all other dues, benefits and privileges herein provided, and in full settlement of this policy, one-twentieth of the amount assured and existing bonus additions immediately, and a like amount yearly thereafter until twenty such instalments in all shall have been paid. Should the assured die before the twenty instalments shall have been paid, the remaining instalments shall be paid to the beneficiary as they become due. Provided always that notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the assured shall as often as required by the company furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability. If the assured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if he shall so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, then all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid as originally provided in the policy; and if option shall have been availed of, the company's obligation to pay any further instalments shall immediately cease, and the original policy shall be restored for its face amount, less the sum of the instalments paid, the guaranteed values in the table attached hereto being reduced proportionately, but no reduction being made in the future premiums.

Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, shall be considered and permanent disability within the meaning hereof.

Texas Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DEFERRED DIVIDENDS
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $383.40. AGE

Texas Life Insurance Company hereby agrees to pay thousand dollars immediately upon receipt of due proofs of death of John Doe, the insured, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured and beneficiary, it being understood that the insured may elect the beneficiary or beneficiaries as hereinafter provided.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor, a copy of which is attached to and made a part of contract and of the payment in advance of three hundred and thirty and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, being the premium for term insurance for the first policy year ending on the first day of January, 1930. After the first policy year the insurance will be continued as a life insurance upon the payment of the annual premium of hundred eighty-three and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars on or before the first day of January in every year during the continuance of this policy until premiums for twenty policy years, including the first, have been paid.

This policy shares in the profits of the company as follows: The accumulation of dividends on the first day of January, 1930, if the insured be then living and all premiums have been paid, the company will apportion to this policy its share of the accumulated profits and the insured may then select one of the following:

OPTIONS OF SETTLEMENT.—(1) Surrender this policy for its entire cash value. The guaranteed cash value of $6100 and the profits in cash then apportioned. (2) Receive the profits in cash; or (3) receive the profits converted into additional profit-sharing life insurance, subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and in any such case continue this policy for $10,000 as profit-sharing life insurance without further payment of premiums.

At the end of the accumulation period the company will send to the insured a statement of the result under the foregoing options of settlement. If the insured's selection of one of these options is not received at the home office within one month after maturity of this policy, it is agreed that settlement be made under option 1.

If this policy is continued beyond the accumulation period, profits will be apportioned annually at the end of each year thereafter during its continuance and shall be paid in cash.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—The company will pay for the insurance premiums required hereon for every policy year following the date of approval of a company of proof that the insured has become totally and permanently disabled as hereinafter defined, if premiums have been duly paid in cash by the insured to the end of the policy year in which such proof is approved. The premiums paid by the company in conformity with this provision will not be an indebtedness hereon and this policy shall continue in full force towards maturity, sharing in the profits of the company's policies of its class, and with loan, cash and other guaranteed values increasing progressively from year to year, in like manner as if the premiums were being duly and regularly paid by the insured. The total and permanent disability of the insured shall be due to bodily injuries or disease, occurring while this policy is in full force, and shall be such as to prevent the insured then and at all times thereafter from engaging in any gainful occupation; provided that if the insured should recover so as to be able to follow his usual occupation, the company's obligation to pay further premiums shall terminate and the insured be required to pay all premiums becoming due hereon after the date of such recovery. The irrevocable loss of the entire sight of both eyes or the total and permanent loss, by removal or by disease, of the use of both hands, or of both feet, or such loss of the use of one hand and one foot, will be deemed total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

ANNUAL, SEMI-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PREMIUMS.—Premiums may be paid at semi-annual or quarterly intervals in accordance with the rates in use by the company at the date hereof, and changed from one to another of such modes of payment upon the insured's written request therefor on the company's form; if the insured should not complete premium payments for the current policy year the amount necessary for such completion will be deducted from the amount payable at death.

CONDITIONS REGARDING PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the home office of the company in Waco, Tex., or to an authorized agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and signed by the authorized agent. If any premium is not paid on the date when due, this policy shall be null and void, except as hereinafter provided.

This policy is non-forfeitable from date of issue as follows:

GRACE AND AUTOMATIC CONTINUED INSURANCE.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, the insurance will continue in full force from such due date for a term of one month, which is the period of grace allowed hereunder; but if death occurs during said period any unpaid premium for the current policy year, will be due settlement of this policy. After the second policy year, if a premium is not paid the period of grace, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance, the face amount hereof, for a further term, the total term of such continued insurance including the period of grace, granted at completion of any policy year, being specified in the table below.

PAID-UP POLICY CASH VALUE.—In lieu of this aforesaid automatic term insurance, premiums for at least three policy years have been paid, upon the insured's written request and legal surrender of this policy within one month from said due date, either a paid-up life policy will be issued, or the cash value of this policy paid, the amount of which, at the completion of any policy year, is specified in the table below. The aforesaid automatic term insurance shall be without participation in profits, and the paid-up life policy shall be without participation in profits.

AT-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PAYMENTS INCREASE VALUES.—In case of default in payment of a premium due at an intermediate period the non-forfeiture values will be determined on the same basis as the corresponding values for the end of the policy year expired.

VALUES AUTOMATICALLY ADJUSTED IN CASE OF INDEBTEDNESS.—The foregoing provisions pertaining thereto are based on the assumption that there is no indebtedness to the company on this policy. If there is such indebtedness the cash value will be diminished thereby, the amount of paid-up life policy reduced proportionately, and the continued insurance modified in the following manner: The indebtedness shall be deducted from the net value of the continued insurance and the balance used to secure this policy for its face amount less the indebtedness for such term as said balance will secure at net single premium term rates, by the standard hereinafter named, for the attained age of the insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, or within the period of grace, and this policy has not been surrendered, the company will reinstate the policy as of said due date at any time thereafter, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest, together with the payment, or reinstatement, of any indebtedness on this policy on said due date, with interest.

loan values for subsequent policy years, being the full terminal reserve on the policy, as furnished on application to the home office. All loan values under this policy are subject to the excess of any legal requirements.

LOAN ADVANCEMENTS.—At any time after the second policy year and while this policy is in full force the insured can borrow from the company on the sole security of this policy properly assigned to and deposited with the company, any sum within the loan value specified in the table below, from which loan value any indebtedness hereon and any unpaid premium for the current policy year will first be deducted. The company shall furnish the assignment for the assignment required hereunder and upon completion of the loan will issue its official certificate of deposit of the policy. Interest, at a rate of five per annum, will be collected out of the amount of the loan to the end of the current year and thereafter be payable annually in advance. Failure to repay any or to pay interest thereon, shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value on this policy at the time of failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any.

INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGE.—The insured may change the mode of payment of proceeds of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum to payment in instalments, as provided on the fourth page hereof; such instalments will be by dividends as provided on said page.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—The insured may place the proceeds of this policy as a death claim in trust with the company to secure a guaranteed annual cash income in dividends in addition thereto, as provided on the fourth page hereof.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time during the continuance of this policy, with the consent of the company, provided the policy is not then changed to a beneficiary or beneficiaries herein by filing at the home office a written assignment on the company's form therefor, duly acknowledged accompanied by this policy, change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary in the insured.

This policy is unrestricted from date of issue as to travel, residence or occupation during time of peace or war.

This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, if the insured is duly paid.

AGE.—If the age of the insured is understated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and sent to the home office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be retained by the insured. The company assumes no responsibility for any assignment.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor taken together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of other evidence, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be binding unless it is contained in the written application herefor.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—This policy is payable at the home office of the company in Waco, Tex., and proof of interest of claimant will be required; any indebtedness to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or of any benefit payable thereunder. In case of death by self destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of issue hereof, the amount payable shall equal the total amount of premiums paid. The net value of the term of continued insurance and paid-up insurance hereunder shall be computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality at three per cent per annum. The non-forfeiture values hereunder shall be computed on the reserve at date of default in the payment of premium, and the loan values on the reserve at the end of the current policy year. The deduction from such values in determining such values is in no case in excess of twenty per cent of the reserve and one-half per cent of the sum insured hereunder. Only the president or his power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made, unless made in writing by one of said officers.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, with the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

In witness whereof, the Texas Life Insurance Company has, by its president, duly executed this policy at Waco, Tex., this first day of January, 1910.

ANNUITY PRIVILEGES.—The proceeds of this contract, if in excess of $1,000, may be placed in trust with the company for one of the following purposes: (1) to pay to the insured, as annuitant, if the proceeds become payable during his lifetime in life instalments or annual instalments limited to a period of years as per the accompanying tables; or, (2) to pay to the insured, as annuitant, interest on such proceeds during the continuance of the trust, at the rate of three per cent per annum, the principal thereof, remaining with the company to be returned at the termination of the trust or the death of annuitant; or, (3) to pay to the beneficiary, as annuitant, from when the proceeds are payable, annual life instalments or annual instalments limited to a period of years, as per the accompanying tables; or, (4) to pay to the beneficiary, as annuitant, interest on such proceeds during the continuance of the trust, at the rate of three per cent per annum, the principal, or the part thereof, remaining with the company to be returned at the termination of the trust or the death of annuitant.

The payments guaranteed in this trust privilege are based on interest earning at three per cent. If the interest earned by the company on the proceeds of policies placed in trust shall exceed three per cent in any calendar year, the company will add to the interest or instalment paid in the subsequent year a dividend to be apportioned by the company from such excess earnings. If the trust is created by the insured for the benefit of the beneficiary, the beneficiary cannot assign or commute the payments of life instalments, nor, if the proceeds are placed in trust subject to interest, withdraw principal or anticipate the interest, unless such right is given by the insured in writing endorsed upon this contract by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured. If the trust is created by the insured for his own benefit, the insured may, at any time subsequently commute or assign the unpaid life or limited instalments, or a portion thereof, withdraw the principal, or any part thereof, remaining unpaid, with accrued interest thereon.

trust is created by the beneficiary, the beneficiary may at any time subsequently or assign the unpaid life or limited instalments, or at any time withdraw the principal or any part thereof, remaining unpaid, with accrued interest. No trust agreement created or take effect other than by a writing subscribed by the company at its office and by the persons creating such trust. Where a trust is revoked, and a new trust created, and no other provision is made for the proceeds of the insurance, payment shall be made as directed in the contract. If the annuitant shall die before receipt of the payments of life or limited instalments, the remainder thereof shall be made over to the executors, administrators or assigns of the annuitant; or, if the proceeds are subject to annual interest only, the principal, or any part thereof, remaining unpaid, shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the annuitant. If payment of life or limited instalments shall be made as follows: Upon receipt of proof of death of the insured, where the insurance is payable at the death of the insured or upon the creation of the trust, where the proceeds are payable to the insured or to the beneficiary, or where the trust is created by the beneficiary. The remainder of interest shall be made one year from the date of the receipt of due proofs of death of the insured, where the insurance is payable at the death of the insured, or twelve months from the date of the creation of the trust, where the proceeds are payable to the insured and to the beneficiary, or the trust is created by the beneficiary.

If the annuitant is thirty-five years of age, last birthday, when the proceeds of contract are payable, the amount of each annual income will be $45 for each $1000 proceeds of the contract, payable during the entire lifetime of the annuitant; but if the annuitant should die before at least twenty-five annual instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of such twenty-five annual instalments will continue to be paid and to the executors, administrators or assigns of the annuitant.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby certify on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim interest in any policy issued under this application, as follows: (1) That all statements and answers written in this application marked Part 1, as well as those made and made to the medical examiner in continuation hereof, marked Part 2, are true and complete; that no material information or facts which should have been stated have been suppressed, and that the same are offered to the company as a consideration for contract of insurance. (2) That if within one year from the date of any policy hereon I shall die by self-destruction, sane or insane, the amount due and payable on death claim shall be the amount of premiums paid, and no more. (3) That no statements or answers made to or received by any person or to the company, shall be binding on the company, unless such statements or answers be reduced to writing and made a part of this application. (4) That any policy issued hereon shall be in the form now in use by the company and together with this application and Part 2 thereof constitute the entire contract, which can only be varied by the president or secretary of the company, and then only in writing. (5) That the insurance under any policy hereon shall for the first policy year be term insurance expiring at the end of such year, and then, at age at issue advanced one year, commence and be continued as such term insurance as may be provided in the policy. (6) That in any apportionment or distribution of profits or dividends the principles and methods which may be adopted by the company for such apportionment or distribution are accepted by me, for myself and all persons having or claiming any interest under any policy issued hereon. (7) That the premium hereby applied for shall not take effect unless the premium is paid and the policy delivered to and accepted by me during my lifetime and good health, and that the first insurance or policy shall end on the first anniversary of the date of this application or in any event, on such date as may be fixed by the company in the policy.

Travelers Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $293.20. AGE, 35.

The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, by this contract of insurance agrees to pay (amount of insurance ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company in Hartford, Connecticut, to (beneficiary) Martha Jones, mother of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of (insured) Henry Jones, the insured, of Hartford, County of Hartford, State of Connecticut, during the continuance of this contract and before the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability set forth on the third page hereof.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of two hundred ninety three and $\frac{29}{100}$ dollars, payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company.

WHEN PAYABLE.—The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of February in each year until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until prior death or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

WHERE PAYABLE.—Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from February 1st, 1909. The insurance years, and all subsequent provisions for cash loans, cash values, paid-up and automatic term insurance are computed from that date.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums. It is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace. This contract is subject to the privileges and conditions recited on the subsequent pages hereof.

SPECIAL ANNUITY OPTION.—The cash value at end of twenty years may be converted into an annual income of $487.50 payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

CASH LOANS.—On demand in writing to the home office of the company, after ten full years' premiums shall have been paid, the insured may borrow at any time during the year on the sole security of this contract an amount not exceeding the cash value at the end of the current contract year as specified in the table of cash values hereinafter set forth, provided, interest in advance at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be deducted from the loan; the contract shall be assigned to the company by all of its parties in interest thereunder; the premiums shall be fully paid to the end of the current contract year, or if not already so paid shall be deducted in the adjustment of the loan; the amount available at any time shall include any previous loan then unpaid. If the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed the cash value at the time of failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest when due, such failure shall render this contract null and void at the expiration of one month after due notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the person to whom the loan shall have been made or of insured or assignee, if any.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days during which this contract will remain in full force will be allowed in the payment of all premiums except the first.

REINSTATEMENT OF CONTRACT.—In case of default in the payment of any premium or interest the company will reinstate the contract at any time, if not previously surrendered for its cash value, upon written application by the insured to the company at its home office with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, payment of all premiums that would have been paid in the intervening time if no default had been made with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum computed from the premium due date, and payment or reinstatement, with interest at like rate, of any indebtedness existing at the time of default.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY—SUCCESSION.—Provided this contract is not assigned, the insured may at any time and from time to time during its continuance change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company are endorsed upon the contract at the home office of the company, or when hereto, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If the insured shall survive the beneficiary or beneficiaries or any of them named herein, the proceeds of the contract or the share of the deceased beneficiary or beneficiaries, as the case may be, shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, unless otherwise provided in or by indorsement upon this contract.

INSTALLMENT OPTION.—The proceeds of this contract, if not less than $1000, may be placed in trust with the company to pay to the beneficiary from the time when such proceeds are payable, an annual income limited to a period of years, or an annual life income, according to the accompanying tables.

TRUST FUND OPTION.—The proceeds of this contract may similarly be placed in trust with the company, to pay to the beneficiary during the continuance of the trust interest on such proceeds at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, such proceeds to be returned at the termination of the trust, or to be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary in event of death prior to such termination.

NON-FORFEITABLE PRIVILEGES.

If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, and if there shall be no indebtedness to the company, the insurance will automatically continue from said date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in column 3 of the accompanying table; or in lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up insurance if any, specified in column 2 or pay the cash value, if any, specified in column 1.

If there shall be an indebtedness to the company, and if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, an amount of insurance, equal to the face amount of the contract less the indebtedness, will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance, for the term, including the period of grace, which the excess of the cash due of the contract, if any, over the indebtedness will purchase at the then age of the insured, at the single premium rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest. In lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract, the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up life insurance which said excess will purchase at the then age of the insured, on the mortality and interest basis heretofore designated, or pay said excess in cash.

The term insurance and the paid-up insurance specified above may be surrendered for cash, and paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans. If the premiums on this contract shall be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of the year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.

The values herein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire leg reserve on this contract less not more than two and one half per cent of the amount insured hereby. At the end of the twentieth year and thereafter the surrender value is the full reserve according to this standard. Age thirty-five. The cash and loan value and paid-up insurance available in any year will be ten times the amount stated in the following table:

SETTLEMENT IN EVENT OF PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.*

After one full annual premium shall have been paid upon this contract and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured shall furnish the company with due proof that he has since such payment and before having attained the age of sixty, become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will pay to him during such disability and in full settlement of this contract, twenty annual instalments—the first instalment to be paid six months after receipt of due proof of permanent total disability. The amount of each such annual instalment shall be six and eight-tenths per cent of the amount of insurance stated on the first page hereof after deducting therefrom any indebtedness under this contract. Any instalments remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be payable as they become due to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of this insurance who shall have the right to commute such remaining payments into one sum on the basis of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

The insured shall not have the right to commute any instalments becoming payable under this contract.

If the insured shall furnish proof of like disability occurring after he shall have attained the age of sixty, the company will allow all premiums falling due more than six months after receipt of such proof to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness on this contract and in such case the values in the table on page two shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured.

In addition to or independently of all other causes of permanent total disability the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or of both feet at or above the ankles or of one entire hand and one entire foot as permanent total disability within the meaning of this provision.

The annual premium for the benefits provided in this clause is twenty-five cents per $1000 of insurance hereunder, which premium is included in the whole premium charged for this contract. It is agreed that the insured may at any time discontinue the benefits provided by this clause, and thereafter the benefits thereunder shall cease, and the premium on this contract shall be reduced by the amount provided in this clause if the contract shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement with written request signed by the insured.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No agent can make, alter or discharge this contract or extend the time for payment of premiums nor can this contract be varied or altered or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by the written agreement of the company in compliance with the law of the State in which the contract is issued, signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or secretaries whose authority will not be delegated.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured was incorrectly stated in the application for this contract, the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof.

NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due the liability of the company shall be only as heretofore provided.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless made by an instrument in writing indorsed upon this contract or attached hereto, nor unless duplicate shall be furnished to the company forthwith upon its execution. The company shall not be held responsible for the validity of any such assignment. Any claim made under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this contract will be deducted in any settlement hereunder. Any part of the premium for the insurance year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be considered an indebtedness to the company hereunder.

SUICIDE.—In case of suicide committed while sane or insane within one year from the date on which this insurance shall become effective the limit of recovery hereunder shall be the premiums paid.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This instrument and the application constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements purporting to be made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall be used in defense to a claim under the contract unless it be contained in the application herefor and a copy of such application is attached hereto.

* The contract in this form is not written in Massachusetts.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree for myself and for any person who may have or claim an interest in any contract which may be issued upon this application, as follows: 1. That in case of suicide committed while sane or insane, within one year from date of the contract issued, the limit of recovery thereunder shall be the premiums paid. 2. That every declaration herein above contained, is true; and that the contract issued hereupon shall not take effect unless the first premium shall be actually paid while I am in good health.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—PREMIUM REDUCTION CONTRACT.
AMOUNT, $10,000. AGE, 35.
ANNUAL PREMIUM, 1st YEAR, $273.10; THEREAFTER, $209.50.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of two hundred seventy-three and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, payable annually, in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company.

WHEN PAYABLE.—The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of February in each year during the continuance of the contract, or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

For balance of face of policy, special privileges, disability and general conditions, see preceding contract.

SPECIAL ANNUITY OPTION.—The cash value at end of twenty years may be converted into an annual income of $240.40, payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.

The cash and loan values and paid-up insurance available in any year will be ten times the amount stated in the following table:

GUARANTEED REDUCTION IN ANNUAL PREMIUM.—At the beginning of the second year from the date on which this insurance shall become effective, and annually thereafter, the company will apply to the reduction of each annual premium as required by this contract a sum equal to 23.9 per cent of the first annual premium as follows: First annual premium, $273.10; annual guaranteed reduction commencing with second annual premium, $63.60; annual premium after first year, $209.50. Or in lieu thereof the guaranteed reduction may be applied annually by the insured to purchase a paid-up addition to this contract.

When annual premiums are paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments the reduction will be in like proportion.

Existing paid-up additions may be surrendered separately for cash, according to the company's tables, or may be applied to increase the value of the contract if premium shall be discontinued.

If the contract shall be surrendered for its cash value the cash value of the additions according to the company's tables, will be added to the cash value of the contract; if surrendered for paid-up insurance the amount of such additions will be added to the paid-up insurance value; if automatically continued for the original amount of insurance, or any part thereof, the cash value of the additions will be applied at the single premium rates, according to the mortality table heretofore designated, to extend the term of such insurance.

CERTIFICATE OF MAXIMUM VALUES.—The insured under the above contract having elected in writing to pay annually a premium of $273.10 it is hereby agreed, provided the insured shall duly make such payments, that the values under this contract will be increased yearly to the figures shown in the accompanying table. The increased insurance in any contract year shall become effective immediately upon payment of the annual premium. The remaining values shall be available at the end of the year indicated. If the premium is payable semi-annually or quarterly, one-half or one-quarter, respectively, of the yearly addition will accrue as each partial payment shall be made. The insured may at any time hereafter by election in writing pay the reduced premium under this contract and this certificate shall thereupon become inoperative as to future paid-up additions and other values. The outstanding additions may be surrendered for cash at the end of any insurance year, in which event this certificate shall become void. If the insured shall have duly paid the premium herein specified for twenty full years, a special annuity option provided for in the contract shall be increased to $354. Nothing herein contained shall vary, alter or extend any of the agreements, conditions or obligations of this contract except as set forth herein.

The values under this contract shall be the extended insurance in Columns 4 and 5, and ten times the values specified in Columns 1, 2 and 3.

10-20-PAYMENT LIFE—WITH GUARANTEED ENDOWMENT ADDITIONS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $379.80. AGE, 35

The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., by this contract of insurance, agrees to pay $10,000 at the home office of the company in Hartford, Conn., to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death

John Doe, the insured of Hartford, County of Hartford, State of Connecticut, during the continuance of this contract and before the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability set forth on the third page hereof.

GUARANTEED ENDOWMENT. CONTRACT FULLY PAID.—If the insured shall be living on the first day of April, 1930, and if the premiums in each year shall have been paid, the guaranteed endowment of $2840 shall be paid in cash to the insured, and this insurance shall be continued without further payment of premiums; or in lieu thereof and of all other benefits hereunder the insured may select one of the options designated on the second page of this contract.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of three hundred seventy-nine and $\frac{90}{100}$ dollars (how payable), payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company. (When payable), the first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of April in each year until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until prior death or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

WHERE PAYABLE.—Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from April 1910. The insurance years, and all subsequent provisions for cash loans, cash values, paid-up and automatic term insurance shall be computed from that date. The accumulations for the guaranteed endowment shall commence with the second year.

For balance of face of policy, special privileges and general conditions see first contract even except as follows:

OPTIONS AT END OF TWENTY YEARS.—The insured may select in lieu of all other benefits hereunder one of the following options to become available upon surrender of this contract at the end of twenty years, unless payments shall theretofore have been made under the provision entitled, "settlement in event of permanent total disability." (1) Cash payment of $8500. (2) A paid-up contract for $15,010, without medical examination provided the insured shall notify the company in writing of the selection of this option between the sixteenth and eighteenth anniversaries of the issuance of this contract, otherwise, the insured shall furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. (3) An annual income of $657 payable during the natural life of the insured. (4) A paid-up contract for the original amount of insurance and an annual income of $219.50, payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract.

NON-FORFEITABLE PRIVILEGES.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, and if there shall be no indebtedness to the company, the insurance shall automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in column three of the accompanying table, and the amount of cash, specified in column four, if any, will be paid as a pure endowment to the insured at the end of the twenty years from the date on which this insurance shall become effective; or in lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract the company will, as the insured may elect, either pay the cash value, if any, specified in column three, or issue a contract for the amount of paid-up life insurance, if any, specified in column four. If there shall be an indebtedness to the company, and if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, an amount of insurance, equal to the face amount of this contract less the indebtedness, will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance, for the term, including the period of grace, which the excess of the cash value of the contract, if any, over the indebtedness will purchase at the then age of the insured, at the single premium rates according to the American Experience Table Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest. Should the excess be more than sufficient to extend such insurance for life the amount of excess remaining will be applied to the purchase of a pure endowment payable to the insured if living at the end of twenty years from the date on which this insurance shall become effective. In lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract, the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up life insurance which said excess will purchase at the then age of the insured, on the mortality and interest basis heretofore designated, or pay said excess in cash. The term insurance and the paid-up insurance specified above may be surrendered for cash and paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans. If the premiums on this contract shall be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of the year's premium paid over and above the full number of years premiums indicated.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.—The values herein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire legal reserve on the contract less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereon. The accumulations for the guaranteed endowment commence with the second year and the reserves are upon that basis. At the end of the twentieth year and thereafter the surrender value is the full reserve according to this standard. Age 35. The values in columns one, two and four available in any year will be ten times the amount shown in the following table:

Loan values available during contract year.

If the insured shall have become permanently and totally disabled but shall be living on the date specified on the first page hereof for the payment of the guaranteed endowment, said guaranteed endowment shall be payable to him on the date specified irrespective of any instalment payments which may have been made following permanent total disability.

For disability benefit and general conditions see preceding forms inserting the following after paragraph three of the disability provision.

TWENTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT—INCOME BOND.

AMOUNT, $10,000 (in 20 Annual Instalments).

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $312.70.

The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay twenty annual instalments of five hundred dollars each at the home office of the company in Hartford, Conn., to Mary Richards, wife of the insured, the first such instalment to be paid immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of James Richards, the insured, of Hartford, County of Hartford, State of Connecticut during the continuance of this contract and either before its maturity as an endowment or before the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

MATURITY AS ENDOWMENT.—The insured, if living on the second day of April, 1928, provided the premiums payable in each insurance year shall have been paid, and provided this contract shall not have previously matured under the terms of the provision for permanent total disability set forth on the third page hereof, shall be entitled to receive in full settlement of this contract the annual instalments in the manner described above, the first instalment to be paid on the maturity date aforesaid; or in lieu thereof and of all other benefits hereunder, upon surrender of this contract, to take in cash the commuted value, $7,354.90.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of three hundred fifteen and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars, payable annually, in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company. The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the second day of April in each year until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured. Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from April 2, 1908. The insurance years, and all subsequent provisions for cash loans, cash values, paid-up and automatic term insurance, are computed from that date.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium. It is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace. This contract is subject to the privileges and conditions recited in the subsequent pages hereof.

OPTIONS AT MATURITY.—If this contract shall mature as an endowment the insured may then select in lieu of all other benefits hereunder one of the following options: 1. Receive a cash payment of $3190 and a paid-up contract payable at death for $7350. 2. Receive a paid-up contract, payable at death, for $12,980. 3. Receive an annual income of $568.50 payable during the natural life of the insured. Options 1 and 2 are conditioned upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

For privileges as to cash loans, grace in payment of premiums, reinstatement of contract, change of beneficiary—succession, see first policy given.

PAYMENT OF INSTALMENTS.—If the beneficiary shall die before becoming entitled to the first instalment, the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured shall have the option at his death of taking in cash the present value of all instalments hereunder which may accrue after his death, computed at three and one-half per cent interest. The executors, administrators, or assigns of the beneficiary, in the event that the beneficiary shall die after the insured and before receiving all the instalments hereunder, may exercise the same option. At the maturity of the contract as an endowment, or thereafter upon the anniversary of the first instalment, the insured may likewise commute all future instalments. If the insured shall die after receiving one or more of the aforesaid annual instalments, and provided he shall not have exercised the privilege of commutation, the remaining instalments hereunder shall be paid after like proof of death to the beneficiary upon the same date in each year specified for the payment to the insured. The beneficiary cannot assign or commute future instalments unless this right shall be given to the insured to the beneficiary in writing and shall be indorsed on this contract by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured.

NON-FORFEITABLE PRIVILEGES.

If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, and if there shall be indebtedness to the company, the insurance payable in instalments as hereinbefore provided will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table. The amount of cash, if any, specified in Column 4 will be paid as a pure endowment at the end of the period if the insured is then living, or in lieu of such term insurance on written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up insurance, if any, specified in Column 2, or pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1.

If there shall be an indebtedness to the company, and if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, an insurance payable in instalments of the same number, and at the same periods as hereinbefore provided, will automatically continue on said due date for the term, including the period of grace, but not extending beyond the endowment period, which the excess of the cash value of the contract, if any, over the indebtedness will purchase at the then age of the insured, at the single premium rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest. The amount of such instalments shall bear the same proportion to the original instalments that the said excess shall bear to the cash value hereof, so that if any of said instalments shall thereby be reduced to less than $50 annually in lieu of such instalments the insurance shall be extended for a like term for as equal to the commuted value of the reduced instalments. In either case should excess be more than sufficient to purchase term insurance to the end of the endowment period, the amount remaining will be applied to the purchase of a pure endowment payable to the insured, if living, at the end of the endowment period. In lieu of term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months said due date and surrender of the contract, the company will, as the insured may either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up endowment insurance which said will purchase at the then age of the insured on the mortality and interest basis he designated, or pay said excess in cash.

The term insurance and the paid-up insurance specified above may be surrendered for cash and paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans.

If the premiums on this contract shall be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that of the year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums in

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.

The values herein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire legal reserve on this contract less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount in cash hereby, Age 35. The cash and loan values and paid-up insurance available at any year will be ten times the amount stated in the following table:

TEN-YEAR NON-RENEWABLE TERM.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $102.

AGE, 35.

The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the office of the company in Hartford, Connecticut, to Mary, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of death of John Doe the insured, of Hartford, county of Hartford, State of Connecticut, during the continuance of this contract within ten years from the date this insurance shall become effective.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied on, and of the premium of one hundred two dollars, payable fully in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company.

The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of each year during the continuance of this contract. Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

WHEN EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from June 1st, 1914.

INTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums. It is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required in case of military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

This contract is subject to the privileges and conditions recited on the subsequent page hereof.

WITNESS WHEREOF. The Travelers Insurance Company has caused this instrument to be signed by its president and a secretary, at Hartford, Conn., this first day of June, 1914, in witness whereof, the company has caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and the conditions as to grace in payment of premiums, change of beneficiary, succession, trust fund option and general conditions, see first policy given.

STATEMENT OF CONTRACT.—In case of default in the payment of any premium when due, the company will reinstate the contract at any time provided the contract by the contract shall not have expired, upon written application by the insured to the company at its home office with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all premiums that would have been paid in the intervening time had no default had been made, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum computed from the premium due date.

OPTION TO CONVERT FORM.—Upon receipt of a written request from the insured within ten years from the date on which this insurance shall become effective and provided the insured shall not then be over fifty years of age this contract if in force and not assigned shall be converted without medical examination into any life or endowment contract as may be provided by the company at the time of such conversion. The new contract shall be for a term of insurance, shall bear the date on which the conversion shall be made and the premium thereon shall be at the attained age of the insured, according to the company's rates then in use. Or under the same conditions this contract may be converted into a life or endowment contract, under any life or endowment contract now being issued by the company upon payment by the insured of the sum of the annual differences between the premium for this contract and the premium for the new contract at the company's rates for the age at which this contract is issued, with compound interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, and all of the benefits and concessions therein provided shall be back to the effective date of this contract.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $5000.

The Two-Republics Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $306.80.

AGE, 35.

The Two-Republics Life Insurance Company, El Paso, Tex., promises to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Roe (wife) (herein called the beneficiary), at its office in El Paso, Tex., immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death, during the continuance of this policy, of Richard Roe, of El Paso, County of El Paso, State of Texas (herein called the insured), less any indebtedness of the insured or beneficiary to the company.

This policy of insurance is granted for the term of one year, from the first day of October, 1914, in consideration of the payment of three hundred six and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and will thereafter be renewed and continued as a twenty payment life policy upon payment of a like amount on the first day of October in every year during the continuance of this contract, or until the premiums for twenty years in all have been paid.

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.

The following table shows the loan values available under this policy; also the options that will be available upon default in premium payments:

				20.....	10,000	Paid-up	5,660

Loans will be granted at the beginning instead of at the end of the year, if so desired, provided the entire premium for the year has been paid.

The surrender values in the above table are based upon the American Experience Table Mortality with three and one-half per cent. interest per annum. If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of a year's premium paid over and above the full number of years indicated.

The benefits, agreement and provisions written and printed on the following page are hereby made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, The Two-Republics Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary at its office in the City of El Paso, the first day of October, 1914.

BENEFITS, AGREEMENTS AND PROVISIONS.

PREMIUMS.—1. All premiums on this policy shall be payable in advance either at the office of the company or to an agent of the company upon the delivery of a receipt signed by the president, vice-president or secretary of the company, and duly countersigned by such agent. Any unpaid part of the premium or premiums for the current policy year will be deducted in any settlement of this policy. If any premium or any extension note or other obligation given therefor shall not be paid when due, this policy and thereupon cease, except as herein provided.

GRACE.—2. One month's grace (not less than thirty days) is allowed for the payment of every premium after the first without interest charge, during which month this insurance shall continue in force. If the insured should die during the period of grace the over-due premium will be deducted in any settlement under this policy.

INCONTTESTABILITY.—3. This policy shall constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured, and is free of all conditions as to residence, travel or occupation, and shall be incontestable after one year from date, except for non-payment of premiums; provided that, in the case of the death of the insured, by his own hand while sane or insane within one year from the date of this policy, the company's liability shall be limited to the amount of the premium paid hereon; provided further that, in case of the death of the insured while engaged in naval or military service in time of war, unless the insured has first obtained written permission from the president or secretary to act in such service, the company's liability hereunder shall be limited to the net cash under this policy computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

REPRESENTATIONS.—4. All statements made by the insured in the application of this policy and to the Medical Examiner shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

AGE.—5. If the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable on this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—6. The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and subject to the rules of the company regarding beneficiaries, any time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by written notice to the company at its home office; such change to take effect on the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary should die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall be in the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—7. Any assignment of this policy must be filed at the office of the company in El Paso, Texas. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

REINSTATEMENT.—8. In the event of default in premium payments and the application of the value of this policy to the purchase of other insurance, and if such other insurance shall be in force and the original policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and canceled, this policy may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of arrears of premiums, with interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum.

AUTHORITY.—9. Only the president, vice-president or secretary has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance or to extend the time for paying any premium. The company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above.

LOANS.—10. At any time after two years' premiums have been paid, subject to 30 days' notice at company's option, and while this policy is in force, the company will advance, on pledge of the policy and on sole security thereof, a cash loan not exceeding the amount named in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values" appearing hereon, the loan to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable in advance. It is understood that the company reserves the right to deduct any indebtedness against the policy loan said loan. Failure to repay said loan or interest will not avoid the policy so long as premiums continue to be paid and the amount of said loan with interest does not exceed the amount of the loan value as shown in said table.

NON-FORFEITURE.—11. If this policy should lapse through non-payment of premium after it has been in force for two years, the company will, provided there is no indebtedness against it, and subject to the other conditions of the policy, extend automatically as a term policy, the amount insured by this policy for the time named in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values." In lieu of the extended insurance on the second or any subsequent anniversary of this policy, or within one month thereafter this policy being in force and all premiums having been duly paid, the company will grant the following options: First, Paid-up insurance payable at death for the sum named in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values," policy holder releasing any further claims hereunder; or, Second, Cash surrender value as fixed in said table, policy holder releasing any further claims hereunder. After the expiration of twenty years from the date hereof, the provisions as to loans and cash surrender values will still continue in force, and the amounts will be computed on the same basis as the amounts in the "table of loan and surrender values" given in this policy.

SPECIAL DISABILITY FEATURE.—12. After one full annual premium shall have been paid, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty years, shall furnish to the company satisfactory proof that he has become totally and permanently blind; or that he has suffered the loss of both legs or of both arms; or of one entire foot and one entire hand; or that he has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or by disease, and is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this policy, will continue the insurance in force during such disability without payment of premiums, and the value in the "table of loan and surrender values" shall increase the same as if the premiums were paid by the insured. At any time after such endorsement has been made, the company will, at the option of the insured, provided there is no indebtedness against the policy, make an annual payment to the insured of one-tenth of the face of the policy, the first such payment to be made immediately upon acceptance by the company of satisfactory proofs of such disability, and subsequent payments shall be made on each anniversary date thereafter until such annual payments shall amount to $____ of the full face of this policy, when policy shall be declared fully paid, and no further liability against the company shall arise. Provided, however, that as often as required by the company the insured shall furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of the disability; that should the insured so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation he shall resume payment of subsequent premiums as originally provided in the policy; the annual payments by the company shall cease, and the face of the policy shall be decreased by an amount equal to the sum of the annual payments that shall have been made, and subsequent premiums to be paid by the insured shall be reduced in corresponding proportion.

INSTALLMENT.—13. The proceeds of this policy may, by written request of the insured while this policy is in force, be made payable: First, In a limited number of annual installments, as per following Option 1:

and has requested that the proceeds of this policy shall be paid in instalments, and can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments unless the written consent of the insured has been filed with the home office, and endorsement made on this policy during the lifetime of the insured.

OTHER FORMS.—14. At any time, while in full force, and provided the insured is less than sixty years of age, this policy may be exchanged, without medical examination, for a policy payable in like manner as this policy and for the same amount then issued by the company, and having a higher rate of premium. Such exchange shall become effective upon payment of a sum equal to the difference between the amount paid on this policy and what would have been required at the said higher rate of premium, computed from the due date of each premium payment to the date when the exchange is made, and upon the surrender of this policy. The new policy will take effect from the date of this policy, and the premium will be based on the same age as this policy. The provision for "change to other forms" will not apply where this policy is in force at the time of the exchange.

PAYMENT.—15. In event this policy shall become a claim, the beneficiary named herein can execute the form of draft, for two hundred dollars ($200), which shall be paid on this policy, and on presentation to the home office, if properly executed, and in advance of receipt of proofs of death, and said amount will be deducted from the proceeds of this policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby represent that all of the foregoing and following statements and answers are true and complete as contained in this application, whether written by my own hand or by the hand of another, and are offered to The Two Republics Life Insurance Company as a consideration for the contract with said company under any policy that may be issued by the company. That no statements, promises or information made or given by the person soliciting or taking this application other than those written herein shall have any binding force or in any way affect the rights of the insured under this policy, and the policy which may be issued hereon is to be construed by virtue of the laws of the State of Texas.

I have verified each of the foregoing answers made in the application for this policy with the Medical Examiner, and adopt them as my own, whether written by me or by another, and I represent that they are full, complete and true answers to the questions asked by the Medical Examiner. And I agree that their truth shall be a condition precedent to the contract issued upon the faith of the said answers. I expressly waive the right of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued by this company, or who may hereafter attend or examine me, from disclosing any information which he thereby acquires.

Union Central Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DISABILITY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $343.20. AGE, 35

The Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, O., in consideration (1. Premium) of three hundred forty-three and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars and of the payment of a like amount annually on the seventh day of October in every year during the lifetime of the insured or until twenty such annual premiums shall have been paid (\$11.90) of each of said annual premiums, being the consideration for the disability benefits hereinafter provided, hereby insures the life (2. Insured.) of Richard B. Roe in (3. Amount) the amount of ten thousand dollars, payable, less any indebtedness and advances hereon and any unpaid portion of the premium for the current policy year, at its home office in Cincinnati, Ohio, to (4. Beneficiary.) Mary A. Roe, his wife if living at the death of the insured, otherwise to the administrators, executors or assigns of the insured, (5. Death Claim.) on receipt of due proof of death of said insured during the continuance of this policy. (6. Conditions.) All conditions, benefits and provisions stated on the subsequent pages are hereby made a part of this policy.

7. DATE.—In witness whereof, The Union Central Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed in the city of Cincinnati, State of Ohio, this seventh day of October, 1914.

PREMIUMS AND DIVIDENDS.

8. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums shall be payable in advance, either at the home office, or to an authorized agent of the company on delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such agent. Failure to pay any of the first three years' premiums, or instalment thereof, shall avoid and nullify this contract. After three full years' premiums have been paid, on failure to pay any subsequent premium, this policy shall lapse and its value shall be applied as set forth in article thirteen.

9. GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days shall be granted for the payment of any premium after the first, subject to an interest charge of six per cent per annum, during which period the insurance shall continue in force.

10. DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in profits, as apportioned by the directors. Beginning at the end of the first policy year, provided the second year's premium is paid, dividends shall be declared annually during its continuance.

11. DISPOSITION OF DIVIDENDS.—Dividends may be withdrawn in cash; or applied to the payment of premiums; or applied to the purchase of paid-up non-participating additions to the policy; or left to accumulate with interest at three per cent, increased from surplus interest earnings as apportioned by the directors, until the maturity of the policy, subject to withdrawal at any anniversary thereof. If the owner of this policy shall not exercise any other such option the dividend shall be applied, on the expiry of the days of grace, to the purchase of paid-up additions, except that if the policy shall lapse the dividend shall be paid in cash. Paid-up additions are convertible into cash at any time at the request of the insured for amounts not less than the original dividends.

12. PAID-UP BY DIVIDENDS.—On the written request of the insured this policy will be endorsed as fully paid-up with participation in profits, on any anniversary when its reserve value, together with any accumulated dividends or the cash value of any additions (which shall be surrendered for such purpose) equal the corresponding net single premium for this policy at the attained age. Any excess of such total value over the said single premium will be paid in cash.

POLICY VALUES.

13. POLICY VALUES.—After three full years' premiums have been paid the reserve value at the end of the policy year, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) percent (less a surrender charge in no case exceeding one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) percent of the amount of the insurance, and decreasing annually until the fourteenth year; after which the surrender charge, if made, shall not exceed one-tenth of one percent of the amount of the insurance), may be used at the option of the owner of this policy in any one of the following ways, all of equal value, as set forth in the following tables, provided there be no indebtedness or advances on this policy. If, on failure to pay a premium, no option is exercised, such value shall be applied as provided in Option 1.

14. OPTION 1—EXTENDED INSURANCE.—Applied to the extension of this policy as non-participating term insurance from the date to which premiums have been paid, without any further payment (Table 1). The value of any paid-up additions will be used to increase the term of extension.

15. OPTION 2—PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Applied to the purchase of paid-up non-participating insurance, on written request and the surrender of the policy before the expiration the days of grace (Table 2). Any paid-up additions will be added to the amount of the paid-up insurance.

16. OPTION 3—LOAN.—Borrowed or taken in advance in whole or in part on the sole security of the policy, on assignment thereof, less the unpaid balance of the current year's premium and any indebtedness and previous advance on this policy, at six per cent interest payable annually on the anniversary of the policy, interest to be discounted and paid in advance (Table 3). Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall void this policy whenever the total indebtedness and advances hereon with interest shall equal or exceed the then loan value provided, however, that failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness and advances hereon shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignee, if any. The loan value will be increased by the value of any paid-up additions. Consummation of loans other than to pay premiums on policies in this company may be deferred by the company sixty days.

17. OPTION 4—CASH.—Collected in cash on written surrender of the policy before the expiration of the days of grace (table 4). Payment may be deferred by the company sixty days.

18. CREDIT FOR FRACTIONAL PREMIUMS.—If default shall occur at any time other than the end of the policy year the values for the preceding policy year shall be proportionately increased for the portion of the policy year for which premiums have been paid.

19. DEDUCTION OF INDEBTEDNESS.—If there be any indebtedness or advances on this policy, the cash value shall be reduced thereby; the paid-up value shall be reduced proportionately; and the extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy less the indebtedness and advances and for such term as said reduced cash value will provide.

The loan value is available at any time during the policy year if premiums have been paid to the end of the year. Values for years not stated will be furnished on application.

GENERAL PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

20. CONTRACT.—This policy, together with the application, a copy of which is endorsed hereon or securely attached hereto, shall constitute and contain the entire contract. All statements shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. No such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense to a claim thereunder, unless it is contained in the written application, and unless a copy of such application is endorsed on or attached to the policy when issued.

21. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium.

22. AGE.—In the event of the age of the insured being misstated, the amount payable shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

23. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time within three years from the date of lapse, provided it has not been surrendered, on evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of premium arrears with six percent interest per annum and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness and advance hereon, with accumulated interest.

24. PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.—The insured shall have the privilege on thirty days' written notice and the surrender of this policy prior to lapse, to have substituted therefor without medical examination, at any time within five years of the due date of the first regular premium, a life or endowment policy (except a continuous instalment policy) of the same amount, with a higher premium, written at the same age and bearing the same date, by paying in cash the differences in premiums with interest at six percent per annum, compounded annually from their respective due dates to the date of exchange; or, after five years, according to the company's rules then in force.

25. SUICIDE.—This policy shall be null and void, except for the amount of premium paid, if the insured shall die within one year by self-destruction, whether sane or insane.

26. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured shall have the right at any time to change the beneficiary, by written notice to the company at the home office, for which a form will be furnished on request. The insured may exercise every right and receive every benefit reserved to the insured or the owner of the policy during his lifetime, or upon the death of the insured, to any change in or amendment of the policy, without the consent of the insured or the owner, or any beneficiary.

27. AUTHORITY.—None of the terms of this policy shall be modified, nor any provision hereunder waived, save by an agreement in writing, signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary, whose authority for this purpose shall not be delegated.

SETTLEMENT OPTIONS.

28. SETTLEMENT OPTIONS.—The insured under this policy, or the payee after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, by written notice to the company at its home office, for which a form will be furnished on request, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid in either of the following ways in full or in a single sum.

29. OPTION 1. CERTAIN INSTALMENTS.—In equal annual instalments for any specified number of years (not exceeding twenty-five), the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of net sum:

31. COMMUTATION.—Unless otherwise specified in electing such option, within sixty days after written request and on surrender of the policy, future instalments will be commuted into a single sum, discounted at three percent compound interest; provided that under Option 2 the unpaid certain instalments only will be commuted.

32. OPTION 3. RETAINED AT INTEREST.—Retained by the company at three percent interest payable annually during the lifetime of the payee. The principal sum and accrued interest may be withdrawn at any time, on sixty days' notice, unless otherwise specified in electing such option.

33. FRACTIONAL INSTALLMENTS.—If desired, payment of instalments or interest will be made in semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalments of the same aggregate annual amount, provided that no payment shall be for less than ten dollars.

34. SURPLUS INTEREST.—After the first instalment or interest year subsequent instalments or interest will be increased from surplus interest earnings as apportioned by the Directors, provided that under Option 2 such surplus interest shall not be paid beyond the period of certain instalments.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFITS.

35. DISABILITY BENEFITS.—In the event that the insured becomes disabled as a result of accident or disease, as defined below, after this policy has been in force for one full year, the amount of the policy, less any indebtedness and advances hereon, will be paid to the insured in instalments or retained by the company at interest, in accordance with any of the Settlement options herein, as the insured may elect, provided that payments under the option elected shall continue for five years or more, subject to the following conditions, compliance with which is essential to the validity of any claim hereunder.

36. DEFINITION OF DISABILITY.—The disability must be total, permanent and incurable, and of such a character that the insured is thereby prevented from pursuing any work, or following any occupation, or engaging in any business, for wages, remuneration or profit; the injuries specified in paragraph 37 alone excepted; and must not be due to any cause or condition existing at the time of application for this policy.

37. SPECIFIC INCLUSIONS.—Total and irrecoverable loss of sight of both eyes, loss of both feet above the ankle, loss of both hands above the wrist, or similar loss of one foot and one hand, shall be deemed to constitute total and permanent disability.

38. AGE LIMIT.—Such disability must occur before the premium anniversary nearest to age sixty-five of the insured, and no benefit will be payable in the event of disability occurring thereafter.

39. NOTICE AND PROOF.—Notice of such disability, with the address of the insured, must be given to the company within ninety days from the inception thereof, and due proof of same submitted on the company's forms within one hundred and twenty days thereof, and while this policy is in force and prior to default in any premium payment.

40. PROBATION.—The disability claim will not vest until one year has elapsed since receipt of such proof of such disability (except in cases specified in paragraph 37) and then only if it shall appear that the insured is still totally, permanently and incurably disabled as defined above. During such period of one year, the payment of any premium falling due shall be waived and the policy shall continue in force as if such premium had been paid. If within said year it shall appear that the insured is not totally, permanently and incurably disabled, premiums due thereafter shall be paid according to the terms of the policy. During said year, any medical examiner, or other accredited representative of the company, shall be permitted to examine the person of the insured in respect of the alleged disability at such times and in such manner as the company may desire.

41. LIMITATIONS.—No disability benefit shall attach to any paid-up or extended insurance issued in pursuance of the non-forfeiture provisions of this policy; nor to any reversionary additions, which will be paid in accordance with the terms of the policy.

42. SETTLEMENT.—Payment hereunder shall be in full settlement of all claims under this policy, except as to reversionary additions as provided in paragraph 41 above. If settlement option 1 or 2 shall be elected, the first instalment shall be payable when the disability claim shall vest, and further instalments shall not be commuted during the lifetime of the insured; if settlement option 3 shall be elected, guaranteed interest shall begin to accrue from the date the disability claim shall vest and the principal sum shall not be withdrawn during the lifetime of the insured. On receipt, after proof of disability, of due proof of death of the insured, any sums remaining unpaid shall be paid to the beneficiary, his administrators, executors or assigns if such beneficiary shall be living at the death of the insured.

43. PREMIUM.—The total and permanent disability benefit herein set forth is based for the special premium stated on the first page of this policy, which is non-participating and which will not affect any of the policy values. Said special premium will cease: (a) On the policy anniversary nearest to age sixty-five of the insured, if prior to the completion of the premium payments required by the terms of the policy. (b) At any time, on the written request of the insured, accompanied by the policy for endorsement, in which event the disability benefit will also cease, and the pro rata part of such special premium for the unexpired portion, if any, of the period covered thereby shall be returned to the insured.

FIVE-YEAR TERM, NON-RENEWABLE, CONVERTIBLE—DISABILITY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $137.80 AGE, 35.

The Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, O., in consideration of one hundred thirty-seven and ⁸⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, and of the payment of a like amount annually on the thirty-first day of December in every year during the continuance of this policy ($8.70 of each of said annual premiums being the consideration for the disability benefits herein provided), hereby insures the life of Richard B. Roe for a term of five years ending on the thirtieth day of December, 1919, in the amount of ten thousand dollars, payable, less any indebtedness hereon and any unpaid portion of the premium for the current policy year, at its home office in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Mary A. Roe, his wife, if living at the death of the insured, otherwise to the administrators, executors or assigns of the insured, on receipt of due proof of death of said insured during the continuance of this policy.

All conditions, benefits and provisions stated on the subsequent pages are hereby made a part of this policy.

In witness whereof, the Union Central Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed in the city of Cincinnati, State of Ohio, this thirty-first day of December 1914.

Paragraphs of preceding policy applying to this contract also are 9, 20, 21, 23, 25, 27, also settlement options and disability benefits except paragraph 41.

9. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums shall be payable in advance, either at the home office, or to an authorized agent of the company on delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such agent. Failure to pay any premium shall avoid and nullify this contract.

11. DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in profits, as apportioned by the directors, beginning at the end of the first policy year, dividends shall be declared annually during continuance, provided the second year's premium is paid; but if the policy shall be changed under the second option at the end of the first policy year, the first year's dividend shall be allowed as a credit on the first premium on the new policy.

12. DISPOSITION OF DIVIDENDS.—Dividends may be withdrawn in cash; or applied to the payment of premiums; or left to accumulate with interest at three per cent, increased from surplus interest earnings as apportioned by the directors, until the expiration of the policy, subject to withdrawal at any anniversary. If the owner of this policy shall not exercise any other such option the dividends shall be paid in cash. In the event of death the accumulated dividends with interest will be paid to the payee of the policy; in the event of lapse the accumulated dividends with interest will be paid to the insured.

GENERAL PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

16. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time during its term within five years from the date of lapse, provided it has not been surrendered, on evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of premium arrears with interest at three per cent interest per annum.

18. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured shall have the right at any time to change the beneficiary, by written notice to the company at the home office, for which a form shall be furnished on request. The insured may exercise every right and receive every benefit reserved to the insured or the owner of the policy during his lifetime, or agree with the company to any change in or amendment of the policy, without the consent of any beneficiary. If this policy shall be changed under either option of the privilege of changing the new policy will be written with such beneficiary as the insured may designate.

PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.

20. PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.—The insured shall have the privilege on thirty days' written notice at any time prior to the fifth policy anniversary, and on the legal surrender of this policy prior to lapse, to have substituted therefor, without medical re-examination.

21. FIRST OPTION.—A life or endowment policy (except a continuous instalment policy), of the same amount, written at the same age, and bearing the same date, by paying in cash the differences in premiums with interest at six per cent per annum compounded annually from their respective due dates to the date of exchange; or

22. SECOND OPTION.—A life or endowment policy of the same amount (except a continuous instalment policy) at the premium for the age of the insured attained at the date of exchange; provided, however, that the attained age of the insured shall not exceed sixty-five years.

23. LIMIT OF TIME.—If the change is not completed and settlement made before the fifth policy anniversary this privilege shall be void.

24. CREDIT ON NEW POLICY.—If this policy is changed under the second option, or exchanged for a new policy subject to satisfactory evidence of insurability prior to lapse or expiry, the reserve value of this policy, if any, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent, will be allowed as a credit on the first premium on the new policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I. I agree to be examined by the company's regularly appointed medical examiner, and that my statements in this application and to the medical examiner are made for the purpose of obtaining this insurance.

PART II. I hereby declare that my answers to the questions on Part I and Part II, which together constitute my application to the Union Central Life Insurance Company for life insurance, are complete and true, and I agree that they shall form a part of the contract issued by the said company on my life.

Union Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $363.70. AGE 35.

The Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, Portland, Me., hereby promise to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, the office of the company in Portland, Me., to Mary Doe (wife of John Doe) or such other beneficiary as may be designated hereinafter provided, or if no beneficiary survive the insured, the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, upon receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe, of Portland, in the county of Cumberland and State of Maine; or, instead thereof, to pay said sum, less existing indebtedness, if any, is not less than one thousand dollars, in equal annual instalments, in any number from two to twenty-five, upon the basis of the following table:

INSTALLMENT OPTION.—The instalments in the following table are computed on the basis of one thousand dollars payable hereon. If said amount is more than one thousand dollars, the instalments shown in this table will be increased in the proportion that said amount payable hereon bears to one thousand dollars. TRUST FUND OPTION.—Upon the maturity of this policy, the amount insured, or any part thereof, at the option of the beneficiary, may be left in trust with the company, and the company will pay, as long as said sum remains with it, interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum to said beneficiary. The principal of said trust fund left in the company, as herein provided, may, with accrued interest at the rate aforesaid, be withdrawn at any time by the said beneficiary, and upon the death of said beneficiary, the sum so withdrawn shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the same.

GRACE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—A grace of thirty-one days will be allowed in the payment of the second and subsequent premiums, the policy remaining in force during that time, and in the event of death within said time a deduction of the full year's premium, or that part of it remaining unpaid, will be made.

REINSTATEMENT IN CASE OF LAPSE.—In case of the lapse of this policy by reason of non-payment of any premium hereon when due, it will be reinstated at any time upon receipt of a satisfactory health certificate and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness due to the company upon this policy, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, provided that any extended insurance which may have been purchased with its value has not expired, and that it has not been surrendered for cash value or for paid-up insurance.

CONTESTABLE AFTER ONE YEAR.—After one year from its date of issue, this policy shall be contestable except for non-payment of premiums.

FREEDOM OF TRAVEL AND OCCUPATION.—No permit or extra premium is required for any occupation or for travel or residence anywhere in the world.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, from time to time, while this policy is in force, change any beneficiary hereof, upon filing with the company at its office in Portland, Me., a written request therefor, accompanied by this policy for endorsement, and, however, that in case the insured shall at any time designate any person as absolute beneficiary hereof, or assign this policy, said right to change the beneficiary shall thereupon cease during the lifetime of said person or of said assignment. The right to change the beneficiary is reserved solely to the insured and cannot be assigned.

NON-FORFEITURE RIGHTS.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—In case of lapse for the non-payment of any premium the payment in cash of three full years' premiums, the insurance under this policy be extended from the due date, without grace, of the first premium in arrears, period specified in the following table:

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Or, in place thereof, upon written request made within months of the due date, without grace, of the first premium in arrears, with the sum of this policy by the insured at the company's office in Portland, Me., a paid-up participating life policy will be issued for the sum specified in the following table:

CASH VALUE.—Or, instead of such extended or paid-up insurance, the cash of this policy, as specified in the following table, will be paid in accordance with conditions of the right entitled cash value, as hereinafter set forth.

A paid-up policy will not be issued for less than one hundred dollars, but in case the insured will be entitled to extended insurance or the cash value of the

CASH AND LOAN RIGHTS.

CASH VALUE.—The insured is entitled at the end of any policy year to the cash of this policy as shown by the following table, and at any time during any policy to said cash value less interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum to the end of such policy year, upon the following conditions: (1) Application in writing must be made to the home office. (2) This policy must be surrendered. (3) It must have been in force for at least three full years by the payment of premiums in cash. (4) It must be in force at the date of surrender by the payment of premiums in cash. (5) It must not be in force, surrendered within two months from the due date, without grace, of the first premium in arrears. (6) The cash value as shown by the following table is to be paid in full to the insured or to the company.

LOAN VALUE.—During any policy year after the payment in cash of three full years' premiums, the company will loan to the insured on the sole security of this policy not exceeding the cash value of this policy at the end of said policy year, as shown by the following table, upon the following conditions: (1) That all accrued premiums hereon have been paid in full in cash to the time the loan is made. (2) That interest at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be paid in advance thereon to the next anniversary date of the policy, and annually in advance thereafter until the loan is paid. (3) This policy shall be assigned to the company as collateral security. (4) That the value as shown by the following table is subject to any indebtedness hereon to the company, including any unpaid portion of the current year's premium. Failure to pay any loan made upon this policy, or interest thereon when due, shall not forfeit this policy unless the total amount of the loan with interest thereon at said rate shall equal the cash value of this policy at the time of such failure to pay, nor, in any event, shall the loan value hereof at the time of such failure to pay, nor, in any event, one month after notice that the company will claim such forfeiture shall have been given to the last address known to the company of the insured, or the assignee hereof.

PREMIUM LOANS.—After the premiums hereon have been paid in cash for three full years, the company will, upon the written request of the insured or any assignee insured, (revocable in writing at any time,) apply annually the loan value hereof to the payment of the premiums hereon as they severally become due, except that no application will be made unless the then loan value, after deducting all indebtedness hereon, is sufficient to pay a full year's premium and there has been no default in the payment of premiums hereon. The sums so applied, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum payable in advance, shall constitute an indebtedness against this policy for all purposes, and may be repaid at any time prior to default in the payment of premiums hereon. If the premiums on this policy are payable either quarterly or annually, no such application will be made except for a full year's premium in advance at the annual rate.

TABLE OF VALUES.—The net value of the insurance and the cash and loan value as shown by the following table, are based upon the payment of full year's premiums and are each equal to the other. Each is also equal to the entire reserve upon this policy computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of three per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount of this policy. If premiums are paid semi-annually or quarterly, said

(an value) arising upon any such intermediate payment may be determined by the values for the full year next preceding such payment, as shown by the foregoing table, such proportion of the increase of values for the then current year as such payment bears to the full year's premium. If at any time there be any reversionsary additions to this policy, or if there be any indebtedness existing against the insured, the figures in the following table will not apply, but amended figures will be furnished by the company on demand; the amended figures will be computed in the same manner as the figures in the following table, except that the computation will be made on the amount of insurance with reversionsary additions, if any, and subject to any indebtedness against the policy, if any.

The values, provided for in the table of values, for the end of policy years can be determined (less interest) during such policy years, as set forth in the above sections entitled "Table of Values" and "premium loans." Should this policy be continued beyond the term provided by the foregoing table, figures of values for succeeding years, computed on the basis, will be furnished upon application to the company.

APPORTIONMENT IN PROFITS.—At the end of each policy year, so long as this policy remains in force by the payment of premiums, the divisible surplus accruing hereon as provided by the company, shall be apportioned to this policy, such apportionment of the first and second policy years to be conditional upon the payment of the sum for the succeeding year. Such apportioned surplus will, annually, at the option of the insured, (1) be applied in reduction of the premiums on this policy; or (2) be paid to purchase reversionsary additions; or (3) be paid in cash; or (4) be left to the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, which accumulations shall be payable at the maturity of the policy, or may be withdrawn in cash at any time on demand of the insured. Such accumulations, when sufficient for the purpose, will be applied by the company to the payment of any premium upon this policy, which, at the expiration of the grace thereon, in default, and notice of such application, with a receipt for the payment of the same, will be mailed to the insured. If the insured, on or before the anniversary of the policy, in which the apportioned surplus for any year is payable, shall elect none of the said options, the apportioned surplus for such year shall be payable in reversionsary additions. When option 1 or 3 is elected, the receipt of the insured shall be a release of the company. Whenever, upon any anniversary date of this policy, the accumulations under option 4 (if not withdrawn in cash by the insured nor applied by the company to the payment of premiums as in said option provided) or the reserve for reversionsary additions standing to the credit of this policy under option 2, together with the then existing reserve upon this policy, shall equal or exceed the amount required for fully paid-up life insurance of the face amount of this policy, this policy, at the option of the insured, become a fully paid-up participating life policy of the face amount; or whenever upon any such anniversary date, the accumulations under option 4 shall equal or exceed the face amount of this policy, the insured, at the option of the insured, may elect to mature and pay this policy as an endowment; provided the insured shall, in either case, exercise his option by notifying the company in writing thereof within thirty days after notice by the company that the exercising such option has accrued.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

PAID-UP OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums on this policy are payable at the office of the company in Portland, Me., but the company's agent holding its receipts, signed by the insured, and to be countersigned by the agent, for premiums payable hereon, is authorized to accept payment thereof in exchange for such receipts. A payment made to any other person, or in exchange for any other receipt, will not be binding on the company. Premiums are not paid when due, or within the period of grace, this policy and the benefits thereon become forfeited and all liability of the company ceases, except as otherwise provided. If the premiums are made payable semi-annually or quarterly, the full year's premium, if any, which remains unpaid when this policy becomes due, shall be deducted.

PAID-UP OF POLICY.—The amount due upon this policy will be paid upon receipt of proof of death of the insured during the continuance hereof, but any indebtedness on account of this policy will be deducted in any payment or settlement thereunder.

Should the age of the insured be incorrectly stated, the sum payable under the policy shall be the insurance which the actual premiums paid would have purchased at the age, but, on proof, his age will be admitted in writing on the policy.

SUICIDE.—The suicide of the insured within one year from the date of this policy, voluntary or involuntary, or while said insured was sane or insane, is not a risk covered by this policy.

ENTIRE CONTRACT AND MISSTATEMENTS.—This policy and application hereof constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements made by the insured in the application hereof shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and no such statement shall be used in defense to a claim under this policy, unless it is contained in the written application hereof and a copy of the application is endorsed hereon or attached hereto.

ASSIGNMENT OF CONTRACT.—Any change in the terms or beneficiaries of this contract or any of its terms or conditions or of any forfeiture must be in writing, signed by the insured, president, secretary, assistant secretary, actuary or assistant actuary, and filed on the policy. No person is authorized to make any changes in this contract or to waive any forfeiture of it, except as herein provided.

COPIES OF POLICY.—No assignment of any interest in this policy shall be binding upon the insured unless made in duplicate upon forms furnished by it and both copies sent to the company.

to the home office before this policy becomes a claim. Upon receipt of such assignments, one copy will be returned and the other kept on the company's files. No responsibility for the validity of any assignment in any event will be assumed by the company.

EXERCISE OF RIGHTS AND OPTIONS.—The exercise of any right or option under the "participation in profits," "non-forfeiture rights" and "cash and loan rights" herein before mentioned, by the insured, shall conclusively bind the beneficiaries in this policy and the assigns of such beneficiaries. All of said foregoing rights and options are mere personal rights of the insured, and are not assignable except to the beneficiaries hereof or the assigns of such beneficiaries.

DEFINITIONS.—The term "insured," whenever used in this policy, shall be construed as meaning the person upon whose life this policy is written; the term "beneficiary," meaning the person, assignees excepted, to whom the proceeds of this policy are for the time being payable, and the term "indebtedness" shall include any loan made by the company, or any note given for or application of the loan value to a premium or any part thereof, upon this policy.

It is hereby agreed that the anniversary date of this policy is November 1st, 1911, from which date the policy year shall begin and all calculations hereunder shall be computed, and the same day of the month annually thereafter during the continuance of this policy.

All the foregoing agreements and promises are made in consideration of the written and printed application for this policy, which is hereby made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of the sum of three hundred, sixty-three and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars, and of a like amount payable in advance on the first day of November in every year until premiums for twenty complete years shall have been paid in cash, after which no further premiums will be required, said payments to be evidenced only by the production of the official receipts of the company therefor.
Portland, Me., November 1, 1911.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby apply to the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company for a policy of insurance upon my life, and I hereby agree that all the statements and answers herein contained are full, correct and true, and that they, together with the policy hereby applied for, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto; that said policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been paid during my good health, and that the distribution of surplus which may be adopted by the company is hereby accepted by me in my own behalf and for every person who shall have any interest in the policy now applied for.

United States Annuity and Life Insurance Co.TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—INCREASING INSURANCE—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.*AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $386.10. AGE, 35.

United States Annuity and Life Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., will pay ten thousand dollars (hereinafter called the initial amount), together with a yearly addition of two hundred ninety dollars for each annual premium paid hereon, and also the entire earnings to the credit of this policy to Julia Stiles, wife (subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary, as hereinafter provided), at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., immediately upon receipt by the company of due proofs of death of John C. Stiles, the insured, of Chicago, in the county of Cook, and State of Illinois, during the continuance of this policy.

At the expiration of twenty years from the date hereof, if this policy shall have been kept in full force by the payment of all premiums, and the insured be then living, this policy will become a paid-up policy for ten thousand dollars; and the company will pay to the legal holder hereof the entire credit to this policy, in excess of the cash value of said paid-up policy.

This policy is issued for a term of one year from the date hereof in consideration of the application hereof, a copy of which is hereto attached, and made a part hereof, and the payment in advance, to the company or its authorized agent, of the premium of three hundred eighty-six dollars and ten cents (being the premium to provide the legal reserve and term insurance for one year), and will be renewed for the further term of nineteen years upon the payment at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., of a like amount in advance, on or before the first day of February, in every year hereafter, during the life of the insured, until twenty full annual premiums have been paid.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the agreements, benefits and conditions stated on the following pages, which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof.

In witness whereof, the said United States Annuity and Life Insurance Company has by its president and secretary, signed and delivered this contract at Chicago, Ill., on the first day of February, 1908.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, State of Illinois.
This policy is registered and approved. Securities equal in value to the legal reserve hereon are held in trust by this Department, Springfield, Ill., Feb. 1, 1908.

AGREEMENTS, BENEFITS AND CONDITIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., or to the company's authorized agents, in exchange for receipts signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agents designated therein. Premiums are payable annually in advance, but may be paid in semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalments, in advance, at the company's table rates. Any unpaid part of a year's premium will be deducted in any settlement of this policy. One month's grace will be allowed upon any payment of premium after the first year without interest. If any premium, or any semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalment, or any note therefor, or any indebtedness secured by this policy, shall not be paid when due, this policy shall thereupon cease, except as to the non-forfeiture options hereinafter recited; provided that this policy, if not previously surrendered to the company, may be reinstated at any time within three years after such default, by payment of the past due premiums, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, upon evidence of insurability, satisfactory to the company, and in such form as the company may require.

VALUATION.—For the first year succeeding the date hereof, the reserve value of this policy shall be computed for one-year term insurance. For subsequent years, such reserve premium and valuation for an age at issue advanced one year shall be computed, as will provide for the benefits and guarantees stipulated in this contract.

EXPENSE OF MANAGEMENT LIMITED.—The expense under this policy shall be limited to the loading provided for that purpose in each premium payable thereon, together with any mortality savings of the first policy year, except as hereinafter stated.

EARNINGS.—This policy shall be credited with its apportioned share of the net earnings after the first policy year, arising from the following sources: Excess interest on the reserve and the net profits arising from the investment thereof, gains from lapsed and surrendered policies, savings from mortality, less amounts paid for taxes, license fees, registration fees, medical examination and inspection fees, together with any Governmental charges for examination expenses.

DIVIDENDS.—All earnings shall be apportioned annually after the second year at the option of the insured, may be withdrawn in cash, applied to reduce the amount of the policy, used to purchase additions to the sum insured or left to accumulate at three per cent interest. If the insured shall not elect any other option the dividends shall be paid in cash, on demand.

FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After payment of premiums for three or more full years, the policy, if free from indebtedness, may be surrendered within one month after default of payment of any subsequent premium; upon such surrender the company will grant the insured one of the following options: (a) A cash payment not less than the amount of the value of this policy and of any dividend additions thereto at the time of such redemption upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount by this policy and of any existing additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness the company on this policy. Said cash payment shall not be less than the amount in the table of cash values given on page 3 of this policy; or (b) without such cash payment the policy will automatically continue in force as a participating paid-up policy, the cash value shall be equal to the cash value above defined, and for an amount not less than the amount shown in the table of paid-up insurance on page 3 of this policy; or (c) dividends payable annually; or (d) at the option of the insured expressed in a written application filed with the company at its home office within one month after default, this policy upon non-payment of any premium after the third, and without surrender, will continue in force as a non-participating paid-up term policy for the initial amount hereby (but without further payment of premiums) for the term of years shown in the table of extended insurance on page 3 (the net value of which shall be equal to the cash value above defined); should the cash value be greater than the reserve value required for the paid-up term insurance, such excess will be retained by the company, payable upon surrender of this policy, to the insured, if living at the expiration of the term of the insurance; or, on satisfactory proof of the prior death of the insured, to the beneficiary of this policy, in addition to the initial amount insured. Until the time for payment of the amount so retained, the company will pay to the insured, on demand, equal to three per cent of the amount so retained, payable one year after the expiration of such lapse, and annually thereafter. Any instalments of such interest not so paid added to the amount retained and subsequent interest payments shall be properly increased.

—After payment of premiums for three or more years, upon written request the insured may borrow from the company, upon the sole security of this policy, the full cash value of the policy at the end of the current policy year, less any portion of the cash value of the policy at the end of the current policy year defined, less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy and subject to the payment in advance at five per cent per annum to the end of the current policy year; that this policy unincumbered be legally assigned to the company as security for the loan; that the company's form of assignment for that purpose, and provided all premiums have been paid for the policy year in which the loan is taken. Failure to pay any part of the interest thereon shall not avoid the policy, unless the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value; nor until one month after the loan have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured or assignee if any. It is further provided that the loan above referred to (unless the amount sufficient only to pay premiums then due) may at the option of the insured be deferred for a period not exceeding six months after the application therefor.

—When the guaranteed cash value together with all earnings to the credit of this policy is sufficient to provide a paid-up policy for the amount hereby insured, this policy shall become a participating paid-up policy with dividends payable annually, at the request of the insured and indorsement hereon by the company.

ASSIGNMENTS.—This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is attached and made a part hereof, constitute the entire contract between the parties. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in a written application, a copy of which is attached hereto. No person, except the insured, vice-president or secretary of the company, has power, on behalf of the company, to make or modify this contract, to extend the time for payment of premiums, to surrender the policy, or to bind the company by making any promise, or by accepting any statement or information not contained in the application for this policy. These powers shall not be delegated, and can be exercised by said officers only in writing. This policy shall not take effect until the first premium thereon shall have been actually paid and the insured is in good health and of legal age.

REDUCTIONS.—Any indebtedness to the company, on account of or secured by this policy, including any balance of the current year's premium remaining unpaid, will be reduced in any settlement, from the amount payable under this policy, or from the term of extended insurance, such reductions shall apply first to the amount retained by the insured and the corresponding annuity, and then to the term of extended insurance.

ASSIGNMENTS.—The company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any assignment of this policy, unless such assignment be in writing, and unless the original or a copy shall have been filed at the home office of the company and its receipt duly acknowledged. Any claim under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

RIGHTS OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the rights of any assignee, the insured may, at any time, and from time to time, during the continuance of this policy, change the beneficiary, by filing at the home office of the company a written request therefor (in duplicate), such change to take effect only when the company's acceptance of request shall be endorsed thereon, and also upon the duplicate, which shall be to this policy; whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries, shall if any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary immediately vest in the insured.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy is unrestricted as to change of occupation or military service, residence or travel, and after two years from the date hereof be absolutely incontestable for any cause except non-payment of premiums, subject to the following provisions as to proof of age: The company will admit the age of the insured at any time on satisfactory proof, but if not so admitted, and if the age is to have been misstated, the amount of insurance payable shall be such amount actual premiums would have purchased at the true age.

LIMITATION.—The liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid on this policy, if, within two years from the date hereof, the insured shall die by suicide (whether sane or insane), or in consequence of his or her criminal act.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.

This policy is issued payable in one sum on the death of the insured, but the insured may at any time from the date of issue, provided this policy is not then assigned, change the manner of such payment from one sum to such number of instalments as he (the insured) may elect, as provided in the annexed tables; or he may at any time subsequently change the number of instalments to such other number, provided in the annexed tables as may be desired, or entirely revoke any change, thereby making the proceeds of the policy again payable in one sum, by giving written notice to the company at its office, Chicago, Ill., accompanied by this policy. The insured may also, at any time during his lifetime, in like manner direct that the beneficiary shall have the right, any instalment becomes due, to commute and receive in one sum the then present value of all unpaid instalments. The beneficiary, without such direction, shall not have such right. If the beneficiary should die before all instalments have been paid, the remainder of the instalments shall be commuted on the basis of three per cent compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. The first instalment under this contract shall be due immediately upon the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be due annually thereafter upon each succeeding anniversary of such approval, until all instalments shall have been paid. The following tables are based upon $10,000 of insurance, and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy, in event of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy. If the amount insured hereunder is less than $10,000, or if there is more than one beneficiary the instalment option does not apply.

annuity with Accident Disability Endorsement. Weekly Indemnity for total disability, paid prior to age 60.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $5,000.

United Life and Accident Insurance Company.

TRIPLE INDEMNITY—TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $5,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $191.70. AGE, 35.

The United Life and Accident Insurance Company of Concord, New Hampshire, promises to pay at its home office in the City of Concord, New Hampshire, upon receipt of due proof of the death of James Alfred Jones, of Concord, County of Merrimack, State of New Hampshire, hereinafter called the insured, while this policy is in force single indemnity, five thousand dollars without regard to whether such death of the insured shall be due to accident, sickness or old age; double indemnity and $5,000 additional, making ten thousand dollars in all, in event such death of the insured, occurring before age seventy, shall have been occasioned solely by external, violent, accidental means, resulting in such death within three months thereafter, except during military or naval service in time of war; triple indemnity or $10,000 additional, making fifteen thousand dollars in all, in event such death of the insured, occurring before age seventy, shall have been occasioned solely by accidental means while the insured is or on a public conveyance, including the platform, steps or running board thereof, provided by a common carrier for passenger service, or in a completed building which burns or collapses, or in consequence of a cyclone, tornado, the explosion of a steam boiler, or being struck by lightning, resulting in such death within three months thereafter, except during military or naval service in time of war, to Bertha May Jones, wife of the insured or such other beneficiary as the insured may hereafter designate in writing as hereinafter provided.

CONDITIONS AND PRIVILEGES.

NO RESTRICTIONS.—From date of issue this policy is subject to no restrictions as to travel, residence or occupation; provided, however, that in event of suicide, while sane or insane, during the first year, the amount payable shall be the reserve upon this policy.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year in force, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premium.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days will be granted for the payment of each premium upon this policy, after the first, during which grace this policy shall remain in full force, subject to the deduction of the forborne premium.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—If any premium shall not have been paid at the expiration of the grace, and if the insured shall have elected in writing to accept this provision instead of one of the Non-Forfeiture Options, hereinafter set forth; the company will charge the same against this policy as a loan bearing interest at six per cent. per annum, annually compounded, provided the then loan value, over and above all previous loans then outstanding and interest thereon to date, shall be sufficient to enable such advances; or, if insufficient to cover the entire premium then due, the company will so charge an instalment thereof for a shorter period, but not for less than one-quarter year. Notice of such automatic application or charge shall be mailed to the insured. At any time while the policy is thus maintained in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed and, subject to such indebtedness, this policy shall remain in full force as if all premiums had been paid in cash. When the total indebtedness to the company hereon shall equal or exceed the loan value, this policy shall be void thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed to the insured, unless during such period the indebtedness shall be reduced to an amount not exceeding the loan value.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—At any time after this policy shall have ceased to be in force by failure to pay any premium or premiums, after the first, the company will re-instate the same upon application by the insured, accompanied by proof of good health satisfactory to the company and by the tender of all arrears of premiums, accumulated at interest at six per cent. per annum, annually compounded.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—This policy, at any time after the first annual renewal premium shall have been paid, may be surrendered to the company while in force for: (1) Cash surrender value; or (2) Paid-up insurance without double or triple indemnity for accidental death; or (3) Extended insurance for five thousand dollars, without double or triple indemnity for accidental death. If no other election has been made by the insured in writing the insurance shall be continued in force as extended insurance.

The amount of such cash surrender value, paid-up insurance and the term of extended insurance shall be as per the following table:

Serial Annual Premium ID.	Cash or Loan Value.	Paid-up Insurance.	Term of Extended Insurance for $5,000.	NUMBER ANNUAL PREMIUMS PAID.	Cash or Loan Value.	Paid-up Insurance.	Term of Extended Insurance for $5,000.

values and terms of extension available at the end of each succeeding year will be based on the same basis.

where the insured is indebted, the same shall be deducted from the cash surrender value, and the amount of the paid-up insurance and of the extended insurance shall be reduced accordingly.

The foregoing values and terms of extension and the values and terms of extension available at the end of each succeeding year, shall be at least equivalent to the legal reserve on the policy at the end of the current policy year, less a sum not exceeding two and one-half per cent. of the single indemnity benefit and less any indebtedness to the company on the policy, and the cash value is also at least equal to the sum which would, if not drawn, be available for the purchase of extended insurance.

IMMEDIATE BENEFIT AND MONTHLY INCOME OPTION.—If at any time the insured so requests the company in writing, and provided this policy be in full force and not then forfeited and that there be no indebtedness thereon to the company, the amount payable under at the death of the insured will, in lieu of a lump-sum payment, be paid to the beneficiary as follows: For each $1,000 payable under this policy at the death of the insured, there will be paid to the beneficiary an immediate benefit of $125 and thereafter a monthly income of $5 payable on the first day of each succeeding month for a period of twenty full years; namely, $1,325 in all; and in such case the monthly income benefits shall be commuted by the company after the death of the insured during the lifetime of the beneficiary nor will the company consent to any assignment thereof without the written consent of the insured. Should the beneficiary, original or substituted, survive the full period for which the monthly income is payable and if there be no other beneficiary, the monthly instalments remaining will be commuted at three and one-half per cent. per annum, compound interest, and paid in one sum to the estate of the insured.

LOAN ADVANCE.—After two full annual premiums have been paid the company will at any time advance upon this policy the amount of its then cash surrender value, less all indebtedness upon this policy and interest thereon, the same to bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable annually in advance; provided that failure to repay any advance, either made in cash or in payment of premiums, or to pay interest, shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan advanced.

STATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be mis-stated in the application for this policy, the insurance hereunder shall be the amount which the premiums actually would have purchased at the published rates of the company at the true age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—This company shall not be deemed to have any knowledge of any assignment of this policy unless the same, together with a duplicate thereof, shall have been forwarded to the company at its home office, together with this policy, for endorsement. The company will not be responsible for the validity of any assignment and due proof of assignment must be tendered by the assignee on making claim.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Upon the written application of the insured to the company at its home office, while this policy is in force, accompanied by the policy, the company will at any time by endorsement hereon change the beneficiary to such person or persons as the insured may so designate, subject, however, to any assignment thereof. If the beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

VESTED COST GUARANTEED.—This policy does not participate in, and the cost of this policy to the insured in no way depends upon, the profits or surplus of the company.

PRIVILEGES OF PREMIUM PAYMENT.—The payments of the first annual premium on this policy (or of all quarterly or semi-annual instalments thereof as the same become due) shall secure the insurance thereunder for the term of one year from the date hereof, i.e., noon eighth day of February, 1916, from which date it will be renewed as a triple indemnity, twenty payment life policy by the payment of an annual renewal premium of $1.70 in advance, and thereafter on each succeeding anniversary of the date of this policy until twenty full annual premiums in all have been paid hereon, or the prior death of the insured; provided that after the insured has become sixty years of age the full annual premium shall be reduced to $..... The annual premiums upon this policy may be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance, as per the table of premiums set hereon; and a change in the method of payment may be made on any anniversary of the policy.

The table of premiums endorsed hereon shows the amount of the annual premium and the amount of each semi-annual or quarterly instalment thereof.

TABLE OF PREMIUMS.—(In advance). Annually on the eighth day of February, $1 semi-annually on the eighth day of February and August, $99.70; quarterly on the eighth day of February, May, August and November, $80.80. The payment of a premium & semi-annual or quarterly instalment of the annual premium, shall not have the effect to continue the insurance in force beyond the time when the next premium or instalment of the annual or quarterly instalment of the annual premium, shall not have the effect thereof shall become due and payable except as provided in the "Automatically Forfeitable" provision of this policy. In payment of a death claim on this policy amount equal to any unpaid portion of the full annual premium will be deducted from premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company in the City of Concord, New Hampshire, but may be paid to an agent in exchange for a receipt signed by the president, secretary or treasurer of the company and countersigned by the agent.

PROVISIONS AND CONDITIONS.—No agent has authority to amend or modify any terms of this policy, or to waive any provision thereof or the payment of any premium thereon. The net premium and reserve under this policy are computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent. interest. This policy and the application herefor, a copy of which is attached to and endorsed upon the policy and made a part thereof, together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and warranties, and no such statement shall void the policy, unless it is contained in the application herefor. In event the insured shall engage in military or naval service in time of war, unless a written permit shall have been previously obtained and provision made for payment of additional charges therefor, this policy shall notwithstanding remain in full force, but the insured shall be indebted to the company in the amount of fifty dollars per $1,000 insured thereunder, which, together with interest thereon at six per cent. annually compounded, shall be deducted in any settlement of this policy. In case the insured shall have paid in advance upon making application herefor the annual premium (or the first semi-annual or quarterly instalment thereof) in exchange for the binding receipt of the company, this policy shall, upon approval of such application by the company, take effect as of the date thereof; if a premium or instalment has not been so paid in advance, this policy shall not take effect until the delivery of the same to the insured and the payment of the first annual premium (or the first semi-annual or quarterly instalment of the same) during the lifetime and good health of the insured.

In witness whereof, the United Life and Accident Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed at its home office in Concord, New Hampshire, by its president, secretary and countersigned by its registrar, this eighth day of February, 1915.

ACCIDENT DISABILITY ENDORSEMENT.

For and in consideration of twenty-five dollars per annum which sum is included in the total premium named on the page of this policy, the United Life and Accident Insurance Company hereby agrees to pay to the insured a weekly indemnity at the rate of fifty ($50.00) dollars per week during the time the insured shall be totally and continuously unable to pursue gainful occupation for not to exceed 52 weeks, and thereafter weekly indemnity at the rate of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars per week throughout the period of such disability; but all such weekly indemnities are payable only in case the disability is caused directly and exclusively by bodily injury sustained solely through accidental means, (not including injury sustained during military or naval service in time of war,) during the premium payment period of this policy and before attaining the age of sixty years.

The indemnity for disability is entirely independent of the insurance under this policy and no deduction will be made from the sum payable at death because of any indemnity paid hereunder but this accident insurance cannot be renewed or be maintained in force unless this entire policy is maintained in full force by payment of premiums as provided therein.

"STANDARD PROVISIONS."

1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and covers the entire contract of insurance. No reduction shall be made in any indemnity provided by reason of change in the occupation of the insured or by reason of his age or any act or thing pertaining to any other occupation.
2. No statement made by the applicant for insurance not included herein shall be the policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to modify this policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the company and such approval be endorsed hereon.
3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover loss resulting from accidental injury after sustained.
4. Written notice of injury on which claim may be based must be given to the company within twenty days after the date of the accident causing such injury.

Such notice given by or in behalf of the insured or beneficiary, as the case may be, to the company at Concord, New Hampshire, or to any authorized agent of the company, in particulars sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed to be notice to the company. Failure to give notice within the time provided in this policy shall not invalidate any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.

8. The company upon receipt of such notice, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not so furnished within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, character and extent of the loss for which claim is made.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office within sixty days after the termination of the period of disability for which the company is liable.

8. The company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is forbidden by law.

8. All indemnities provided in this policy for loss other than that of time on account disability, will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof.

(10.) Upon request of the insured and subject to due proof of loss all accrued indemnity for loss of time on account of disability will be paid at the expiration of each four weeks during the continuance of the period for which the company is liable, and any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of due proof.

1. All the indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.

2. If the insured shall at any time change his occupation to one classified by the company as less hazardous than that stated in the policy, the company, upon written request of the insured, and surrender of the policy, will cancel the same and will return to the insured the unearned premium.

4. No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after proof of loss has been filed in accordance with the requirements of this policy, nor shall such action be brought at all unless brought within two years in the expiration of the time within which proof of loss is required by the policy.

16. If any time limitation of this policy with respect to giving notice of claim or furnishing proof of loss is less than that permitted by the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued, such limitation is hereby extended to agree with the minimum period permitted by such law.

10. The insurance under this policy shall not cover any person under the age of fifteen years nor over the age of sixty years. Any premium paid to the company for any period covered by this policy will be returned upon request.

These "standard provisions" shall apply only to this accident disability endorsement. This accident disability endorsement shall not be in any way binding upon the company, unless it is signed by the secretary or assistant secretary of the company.

signed this eighth day of February, 1915.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I am hereby agreed that all the foregoing statements and also those I make to the company's medical examiner, which are hereby made a part of this application, are offered to the company as true and correct, and the policy applied for, which policy I agree to accept, issued as applied for, but the same shall not take effect until this application, which I acknowledge to be true and correct, is accepted by the company, and the premium is paid in full, completely by submitting to a medical examination without delay, has been accepted and approved by the company at its home office in Concord, New Hampshire, and the first premium shall have been paid to and accepted by the company or its authorized agent, insuring my lifetime and good health; provided, that if the premium on the policy herein applied for shall be paid by me at the time of making this application, the insurance shall be in force from the date of the acceptance of the risk by the company.

in force from the date of the acceptance of the risk by the company. If the insured hereby elect, in accordance with the terms of the policy, if any, to be granted hereon, that, in event of my failure to pay any premium when due, the same shall be advanced the "automatically non-forfeitable" provision of such policy, instead of one of the non-forfeiture options, set forth therein, taking effect automatically as provided by law.

* Adopted September 16, 1911.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

United States Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $219.80 AGE, 35.

The United States Life Insurance Company, in the City of New York, in consideration of the annual premium of two hundred and sixteen dollars and eighty cents, and of the payment of a like amount upon each fifteenth day of January hereafter until the death of the insured, promises to pay at the home office of the company in New York City, upon receipt at said home office of a proof of the death of John Doe, of New York, county of New York, State of New York, herein called the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy or upon surrender of this policy, properly received, to Mary Doe, beneficiary, with right of revocation.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the assent of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above, as follows: One-half in cash on due date of premium, and balance by six months' note with interest at six per centum per annum; or, one-quarter cash and balance in three notes of equal amounts at three, six and nine months, respectively, with interest at six per centum per annum.

PAYMENT.—Notes must be for even dollars, the excess being included in the cash payment. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not sustain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt signed by an executive officer, viz.: the president, vice-president, second vice-president, secretary, Assistant Secretary or actuary of the company and countersigned by said agent. A grace of thirty days shall be allowed for the payment of every premium after the first year, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace the unpaid portion of premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable under.

values for later years will be computed on the same basis and be furnished upon request. CONDITIONS.—This policy contains no restriction upon the insured in respect either of travel, residence or occupation, excepting always that if within one year from the date of issue of this policy the insured shall go within the tropics, or north of the parallel of 40th degree north latitude, or engage in military or naval service in time of war, the policy of the company in case of death of the insured shall be limited to the return of premiums actually paid hereon; and in the event of the death of the insured by self-slaughter, whether sane or insane, within one year from the date of issue of this policy, the policy of the company shall be only for the return of the premiums actually paid hereon. INCONTTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums, after one year from its date of issue. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have been based at the correct age.

Non-Participation.—This policy shall not participate in the profits of the company.
LOANS.—The company at any time will advance upon the sole security of this policy, at a rate not greater than six per centum per annum, a sum not exceeding the amount specified in the table of loan values herein set forth, deducting therefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company. Failure to repay any such advance or interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed eighty per centum of the net value of the policy, and thirty days' notice shall have been given by the company.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

No person except an executive officer of the company as aforesaid has power to modify or in event of lapse to reinstate this policy or to extend the time for paying a premium.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this fifteenth day of January, 1907.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby declared and agreed: 1st. That all the statements and answers in this application are true, full and complete; that this application and declaration shall, with the policy herein applied for, be the sole basis of the contract between me and the company, and shall be binding on all parties in interest under such policy; and no information or statement, unless contained in this application, made, given, received or required, by any person at any time shall be binding on the company; and that the policy to be issued hereon shall take effect only upon payment of the first premium, and delivery of the policy during my lifetime, and while I am in sound health and insurable condition. 2d. In the event of my death by self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date of issue of any policy that may issue hereon, the liability of the company shall only be for the return of the premiums paid thereunder. 3d. That any policy to be issued hereon shall not be entitled to participate in the profits or surplus of the company.

* Adopted April, 1912.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Volunteer State Life Insurance Company.

WHOLE LIFE POLICY—FIVE YEAR DIVIDEND.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $268.40. AGE, 35

In consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and endorsed hereon, and of the payment in the manner specified of the premium herein stated, the Volunteer State Life Insurance Company hereby insures the life of Andrew Jackson, of Hermitage, county of Davidson, State of Tennessee, for the amount herein named, payable as specified and subject to all privileges and provisions contained herein.

The amount of insurance is ten thousand dollars, payable in one sum at the home office of the company in Chattanooga, Tenn., upon receipt of due proof of death of the insured and surrender of this policy, properly receipted, unto Rachel Donelson Jackson, wife, if living, if not, to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured.

This insurance is issued for a term of one year from the first day of April, 1912, and is based upon the payment of two hundred sixty-eight and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars on the delivery of this policy as the premium for one year's insurance, and in consideration of one full year's premium being paid, this contract shall be continued as a whole life policy upon the further payment of two hundred sixty-eight and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars on or before the first day of April in each and every year thereafter during the life of the insured.

All premiums are payable at the home office of the company in Chattanooga, Tenn., or as provided under the heading "provisions" on third page hereof.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus earnings of the company apportioned and accruing to policies of this class, and its proportion of the divisible surplus shall be ascertained by the company and distributed at the end of each five-year period from date hereof, provided the policy be then in full force. Such dividend may be withdrawn in cash, applied to purchase a paid-up addition to the policy, or to reduce the premium hereon. Unless the insured shall notify the company in writing within three months from the end of each dividend period which mode of settlement is desired, the company reserves the right to make the selection.

PRIVILEGES.

CASH LOANS.—The company will, at any time after three full years' premiums have been paid, advance upon the sole security of this policy, when legally assigned, a sum equal to the amount specified in the table below, plus the full legal reserve on all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, less any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. The interest on such loan shall not exceed six per cent per annum and shall be payable annually in advance. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay the interest thereon or to pay any loan and interest under the automatic loan clause shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall equal or exceed the then total loan value at such time of failure, nor until one month after the company shall have mailed notice of such fact to the last known address of the insured, also to the assignee, if any.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—In the event the insured should, at any premium date or within the days of grace thereafter, after three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, fail to pay or cause to be paid the then current premium, if the policy be not surrendered by the insured with a choice of one of the options herein guaranteed, and if, at the time of the non-payment of premium there is a loan value hereon in excess of all indebtedness that may then exist against the policy together with interest, the company will apply such available loan value towards the payment of the premium then due, with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, chargeable annually in advance; and will continue to carry said policy in force, in the form as written and at the rate of premium as provided for in the face hereof, subject to its terms and such indebtedness the same as if the premium had been paid in cash, and will continue to apply such loan value as long as such value, at the rate of premium provided in the face hereof, will suffice to pay for even one day's premium. At any time while this policy is thus in force the insured may resume payment of premiums thereon without medical re-examination, and in that event, any indebtedness against the policy may either be paid in cash or allowed to remain as a loan hereon. All such indebtedness shall be a first lien on the policy, and the policy will lapse unless premium payments are resumed by the insured within the actual period of extension.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, it may be surrendered to the company at any time prior to default in premium payment, or within the days of grace thereafter, and as full consideration therefor, one of the following options may be accepted:

1. CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Accept the cash value indicated by the following table, plus the full legal reserve on all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, less any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy; or,

2. PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—Accept a non-participating paid-up life policy for the amount indicated by the following table, plus all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; provided, however, that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the amount of such paid-up life policy will be reduced in the proportion that the total indebtedness bears to the then total cash surrender value; or,

3. PAID-UP TERM POLICY.—Accept a non-participating paid-up term policy without the right to loans for the full amount insured by this policy, plus all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, to be dated on the day to which premiums have been duly paid and to continue in force for the term indicated by the following table; provided, however, that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the amount of such paid-up term policy shall be the face value of this policy, plus all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, less the amount of such indebtedness, and the term for which such paid-up term policy shall run shall be changed to that term for which the cash surrender value of this policy, herein specified, after deducting such indebtedness, will carry the modified amount at the single premium term rates of this company.

Values for later years will be computed on the same basis and furnished upon request. The reserve maintained on this policy and the loan and surrender values in the above table are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent (3½%) per annum.

INSTALLMENT OPTION OF SETTLEMENT.—The amount insured under this policy is payable in one sum, but if the amount payable be not less than $1000, it may, at the option of the insured or beneficiary, be made payable instead in either, five, ten, fifteen, or twenty equal annual instalments. The amount of such instalments shall be based upon the amount insured under this policy, together with any paid-up additions hereon, and shall be determined from the table opposite. The first instalment shall be payable at the same time the original amount would have been payable under this policy, and subsequent instalments shall become payable on succeeding anniversaries of the payment of the first instalment and continue until all of said instalments shall have been paid. Unless the company shall have been otherwise directed by the insured in writing all unpaid instalments, at the time any instalment is due, may be commuted at the rate of three per cent per annum, compound interest, and the equivalent withdrawn in one sum.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of any premium under this policy, except the first, a grace of one month will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in force. If death should occur within the month of grace, the unpaid premium for the current year will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—Should the insured, after having paid the premium for at least one full year, and sixty days before any subsequent premium is due, and before attaining the age of sixty years, furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease, so that he is and will be permanently, continuously, and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, the company will, by endorsement hereon, agree to pay for the insured subsequent premiums hereon as they fall due during such total disability. Any premiums so paid by the company shall not be deducted from the sum payable under the policy, or from the loan and surrender options herein provided for, but such values shall increase as though the premiums were actually paid by the insured in cash; provided that satisfactory evidence of such continued total disability be furnished on or before each annual premium due date in lieu of payment of premium, and that the insured shall, at any time, on demand, furnish the company satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability, and shall, on request, submit to be examined by a physician named by the company, and if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work or to follow any gainful occupation, then all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid in conformity with this contract. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or one entire hand and one entire foot, will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision, and not subject to further proof of disability.

REVIVAL OF POLICY.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premium, it may be revived any time after the date of lapse upon written application and the payment of arrears of premiums, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum; provided, however, that evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished to the company. In the event of the revival of this policy, the loan value hereon will be the same as if it had never lapsed, and the full amount thereof, less any indebtedness, will be available as a loan in the payment of arrears.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time while this policy is in force, by written notice to the company at its home office, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries under this policy, such change to take effect only upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease; provided, however, that no such change of beneficiary shall be valid if the policy or any interest therein be assigned at the time of such change.

CHANGE IN POLICY FORM.—This policy may be changed at any time while in force, and not assigned, for any other form of policy issued by the company at the time of such exchange, provided the amount of insurance is not increased nor the premium rate lowered, and provided that the difference in past premiums, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum is paid on such difference between the premium rate of the policy exchanged and the policy applied for. Such exchange may be made without medical examination; and the new policy shall bear the same date as this policy.

PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The premiums on this policy are payable in advance. If the premiums be made payable in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, any instalments of the annual premium for the current year remaining unpaid at the maturity of the policy shall be considered an indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. Premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized agent of the company on or before the dates when due, in exchange for official receipts signed by the president, vice-president, or secretary, and countersigned by such agent. If any premium be not paid when due, the liability of the company shall be only as heretofore provided.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted from any payment or payments in any settlement under this policy.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No condition, privilege, or provision of this policy can be waived or modified in any case except by an endorsement hereon signed by the president, one of the vice presidents the secretary, the assistant secretary, or the actuary. No agent has power on behalf of the company to modify this contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying a premium to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise or representation.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding on the company unless such assignment shall be in writing and acknowledged under oath, and the original or certified copy thereof filed with the company at its home office and its receipt duly acknowledged. The claims of any assignee shall be subject to proof of insurable interest, and the company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

SUICIDE.—Suicide within two years from the date of this policy, whether the insured be sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company, but in case of such suicide the company will return the premiums actually paid in cash.

INTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after two years from its date except for non-payment of premium and engaging in military or naval service in time of war, for which written permission must be obtained from the company.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the amount of insurance which the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ENTIRE CONTRACT CONTAINED IN THIS POLICY.—This policy contains the entire contract between the parties hereto.

STATEMENTS OF THE INSURED.—All statements purporting to be made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it be contained in a written application.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right, and enjoy every privilege conferred upon him by this policy.

The West Coast Life Insurance Company.TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY. ANNUAL DIVIDEND.*AMOUNT $10 000. ANNUAL PREMIUM $366. AGE 35.

The West Coast Life Insurance Company, San Francisco, California, agrees to pay ten thousand dollars to Catherine O. Watkins, wife of Walter C. Watkins (the insured), or to duly substituted beneficiary, under this policy, at its home office, upon the death of the insured within one year from date, or subsequently if this policy shall be renewed according to its terms, and immediately upon receipt and approval of proofs of death of the insured.

All insurance hereunder is based upon the written and printed application therefor, which is made a part of this contract, a copy whereof is attached hereto and the payment of three hundred and sixty-six dollars on February 15, 1907, as the premium for one year's insurance (which payment may be made in semi-annual instalments of $190.50 or quarterly instalments of $97, covering the period of half year's or quarter year's insurance for which the instalment is paid), and shall be renewed upon the further payment of a like sum (which may be paid in like instalments as aforesaid but subject to the same provisions) on or before the fifteenth day of February in each and every year thereafter during the continuance of this policy, until premiums shall have been paid for twenty years in all from date, when it shall become full-paid insurance.

At any time after the date hereof, should the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty years, become disabled, as defined in the endorsements hereon, the company agrees to pay him, while living, annual advances, according to the provisions in said endorsements, on account of the amount payable under this policy upon the death of the insured.

The benefits, statements and values on the succeeding pages of this policy are made a part hereof.

In witness whereof, The West Coast Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be executed at the City of San Francisco, as of the fifteenth day of February, 1907.

BENEFITS REFERRED TO ON THE PRECEDING PAGE OF THIS POLICY.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue if the premiums are paid as herein provided.

GRACE.—Thirty days' grace without interest shall be allowed in payment of any premium after this policy has been in force one year.

DIVIDENDS.—After four years from the date of this policy, upon payment of the fifth year's premium, and upon payment of accruing year's premiums thereafter, it shall share annually in the surplus earnings apportioned by the company. Each dividend so apportioned may be used in reduction of the premium then payable, but if not so used shall be converted into a non-participating paid-up addition to the policy. It is

CASH LOANS.—Cash loans may be obtained by the insured at any time after three full years' premiums have been paid, subject to the company's then existing rules—the policy being in force for the original amount. The amount of loan available at any time is specified on the fourth page and includes loans then unpaid. Interest will be charged at a rate to yield the company six per cent per annum, payable in advance to the next anniversary, and annually in advance on that date and thereafter.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—First.—In case of default of any premium payment after three or more full years' premiums have been paid, if not indebted to the company at the time of such default, the insured shall be entitled to one of the two following benefits based upon completed policy years: (1) Such paid-up life insurance, without request or demand therefor, as is specified on the fourth page, increased by any existing paid-up dividend additions; or, (2) term insurance for the full amount of this policy for the term specified on the fourth page, provided, however, this policy is surrendered to the company during the lifetime of the insured, and within three months after said defaulted premium payment became due.

cond.—In case of default of any premium payment after three or more full years' premiums have been paid, if indebted to the company at the time of such default, the insured shall be entitled to one of the two following benefits based upon completed policy:

(1) Such paid-up life insurance without request or demand therefor as any excess reserve under this policy over such indebtedness will purchase at the attained age of insured, computed on same basis as when not indebted, increased by any existing unpaid dividend additions; or, (2) term insurance for the net amount payable as a claim for such time as any excess of the reserve under this policy over such indebtedness will purchase at the attained age of the insured, computed on same basis when not indebted, and no longer; provided, however, that this policy is surrendered by the company during the lifetime of the insured and within three months after said death premium payment became due. The automatic paid-up insurance and term insurance, as specified above, shall be subject to the provisions of this policy, except shall be no right to loans or participation in earnings.

CASH VALUE.—After three or more full years' premiums have been paid, the insured shall be entitled to the cash value shown on the fourth page provided this policy is surrendered to the company while in force or within three months after default.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums upon this policy are due and payable at the office of the company, in the city of San Francisco, but may be paid to agents of company producing receipts signed by the president, a vice-president, secretary or assistant-secretary, and countersigned by such agents. The mode of premium payment may be changed by the company, upon request (on any anniversary of the date of this policy), from annual to semi-annual or quarterly or vice versa at the premium rates set by the company at the date hereof, but such semi-annual or quarterly payment shall not have the effect to continue this policy in full force longer than for the six months next months, covered by such payment, subject to the above provisions relating to interest. It is agreed, if this policy becomes a claim by death that the company shall have the right to deduct any part or parts of the policy year's premiums unpaid.

RESTORATION.—If default is made in payment of premium this policy, if not then surrendered, will be restored to full force and effect upon written application to the home office, and the payment of premiums to the date of restoration and any indebtedness due insured to the company, both with interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, deducted the insured shall with such application then submit evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—At any time while this policy is in force, if not then assigned, if there is no permanent beneficiary under it then living, upon receipt by the company of this policy together with written notice from the insured to substitute new beneficiary previously designated beneficiary, or to make permanent any beneficiary then or previously designated, such change will be made by the company effective only after the endorsement upon the policy by the company. During the lifetime of a permanent beneficiary the insured shall have no right to name new beneficiary.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum as provided on the first page hereof, to payment by annual instalments as provided on the fourth page hereof.

BENEFITS FOR PERMANENT DISABILITY.—At any time after the date hereof, and while this policy is in full force and effect, should the insured, prior to attaining the age of years, become disabled, as hereinafter defined, without default in payment of any sum, the company agrees to pay annually as an advance to the insured, while living, a sum of the amount payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, all as follows:

The company's maximum aggregate limit of liability for such advance payments shall be this and any and all policies upon the same life shall not, in any event, exceed one thousand dollars, and in no case shall there be more than ten payments, nor shall the total amount payable annually exceed one thousand dollars, and all payments shall be deducted from the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

In case of any and every such advance payment, this and every other policy upon the same life providing for any such advance payment must be produced at the home office of the company to have the amount of payment or payments endorsed thereon in full or extinguishment of the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

The premiums payable after satisfactory proof of such disability shall have been deducted from the company as hereinafter provided, shall be only for the insurance if any, and the maximum aggregate limit of liability as provided in clause 1 hereof.

Immediately after the happening of the disability, full particulars thereof must be furnished in writing to the company at its home office, together with the then address and whereabouts of the insured, and, within one hundred and twenty days after the happening of the disability, there must be given the company at its home office, upon blanks furnished by it, satisfactory proof of disability, and, after the payment of the first advance, a proof must be made, if required by the company of such continuing disability, at the time of each subsequent annual advance payment.

Any medical adviser of the company shall be allowed to examine the person of the insured in respect of any alleged disability, in the manner and at the times the medical officer may require.

No suit on account of alleged disability shall be maintainable, if commenced before the expiration of one year or after the expiration of two years from the date of the happening of the disability.

If there is a failure to comply with any one of the foregoing provisions, no claim on account of disability or for any advance payment shall arise or be valid or enforceable.

8. Any valid claim for such advancement shall extinguish all other rights, options, values, and benefits under this policy, except: (a) As to balance, if any, of amount payable upon death of insured not exhausted by such advance payment or payments actually received by the insured; and (b) as to such insurance, if any, as exceeds the maximum limit of such advances and which is kept in force by continuing premium payments.

9. The disability above referred to must be total and permanent, and such that there is neither then nor at any time thereafter, any work, occupation, or profession that the insured can ever sufficiently do or follow to earn or obtain any wages, compensation or profit.

10. In the event that the company has erred in determining that the disability is permanent and in case the disability shall cease before the completion of the contemplated payments, then such payments shall cease and all amounts paid, together with interest at six per cent per annum from respective dates of payment, shall be deducted from the sum originally insured, and thereafter only the remainder shall be the insurance under this policy, and premiums shall be paid as herein provided on such remainder only in the fraction of the original premium that such remainder bears to the original insurance. Accidental injuries which, independently of all other cause and within ninety days from the happening of such accident, result in the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes, or in the amputation of both entire hands at or above the wrist, or in the amputation of both entire feet at or above the ankle, or in the amputation of one entire hand at or above the wrist and one entire foot at or above the ankle, shall also constitute such disability. This permanent disability insurance may at any time after the payment of three years' premiums be canceled by the insured, and thereafter the premium on this policy will be reduced by fifty cents per annum for each thousand dollars insured. Limitation as to commencing suit on account of permanent disability does not apply after payment by the company of the first instalment.

STATEMENT.—(1) Only the president, or a vice-president, together with the secretary or assistant secretary (and they only in writing signed by them), have power in behalf of the company to issue permits or make or modify this or any contract, or to extend the time for making any premium payment, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above-named officers, and by them only in writing and signed conjointly as stated. (2) Any error in stating the age of the insured shall be adjusted by the company paying such an amount as the premium actually paid would have purchased at the table rate at the correct age. (3) Any indebtedness of the insured to the company shall first be deducted from any money, payable or in any settlement under this policy. (4) A duplicate of any assignment of this policy shall be filed with the company. The company will not assume responsibility for the validity of any assignment. (5) In any apportionment or distribution of surplus earnings, the principles and methods which may be adopted by the company for such apportionment or distribution, and its determination of the amount belonging to this policy, shall be conclusive upon the insured and upon every person having or claiming any right under this policy. (6) This policy shall lapse if any premium is not paid as herein provided, and no right thereunder nor on account of previous premium payment shall exist, except as herein expressly provided. (7) Engaging in any military or naval service, except in time of peace, is not a risk assumed under this policy, unless the company shall have first issued a written permit. (8) Proofs of death of the insured shall be made on the forms prescribed by the company, and no suit under this policy shall be sustainable unless commenced within one year from the date of the death of the insured. (9) The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, except in the case of a permanent beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

TRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be thirty years of age, the amount of each annual instalment will be $43 for each $1,000 of insurance, payable during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, but if the beneficiary is before the twenty-five instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of the five instalments shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

The insured may subsequently change any selection of instalment benefits; and may make any selection, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. Each change or revocation of a selection, shall be made by the insured in writing, and shall not take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. The amount of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt and approval of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually. If the beneficiary should die before all instalments certain have been paid, the remainder of the instalments shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. The beneficiary can neither assign nor pledge unpaid instalments, unless such right is given to the beneficiary by the insured in writing, and is endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office.

the lifetime of the insured. If, however, the proceeds of this policy or any part thereof are payable to executors, administrators or assigns, such proceeds shall be paid in lump sum. If more than one beneficiary has a right under the limited instalment plan, which special or otherwise, such right shall be joint and vest in the survivors and shall not be severed without the consent of the company.

ACCIDENT AND DISEASE DISABILITY INSURANCE

Attached to and made a part of Policy No. 09876, dated February 15, 1915, on the life of Walter C. Watkins, and subject to all conditions of said policy, as to method of premium payment, "grace" period and lapse.

The West Coast Life Insurance Company (called the company) in consideration of the payment of forty dollars as the premium for one year (which payment may be made in semi-annual installments of $20, or quarterly installments of $10, covering the period of half-year's or quarter-year's insurance for which the instalment is paid); hereby also insures the said applicant (called the insured), subject to the conditions and provisions herein contained, against: First—Disability as hereinafter set forth, resulting directly and independently of all other causes, from bodily injuries effected through external, violent and accidental means. Second—Disability as hereinafter set forth, resulting directly and independently of all other causes from disease, which disease is contracted and begins not less than 15 days after the date hereof.

ACCIDENT BENEFITS.—(a) Fifty dollars per week while disability so accidentally caused, consists of continuous total loss of business time and such disability immediately follows the accident, herein called total disability. (b) One half of the amount stated in clause "a" per week while disability, so accidentally caused, is not total but consists of continuous disability to prosecute one or more important daily business duties, from either the time of accident or the termination of such total disability. Liability under clause "b" is limited to twenty-six weeks, and under clause "a" or clauses "a" and "b" together, fifty-two weeks.

DISEASE BENEFITS.—(c) Fifty dollars per week, while disability so caused by any disease consists of continuous confinement inside the house, accompanied by regular visits by a legally qualified physician. (d) Two-fifths of the amount stated in clause "c" per week, in case of valid claim under clause "c" while disability so caused by disease continues after termination of such confinement and visits and consists of inability to transact any and every kind of business. Liability under clause "d" is limited to twenty-six weeks, and under clause "c" or clauses "c" and "d" together, fifty-two weeks, and no disease benefits shall be payable for the first three days' disability.

PROVISIONS.

If the insured be injured after having changed his occupation to one classed by the company as more hazardous than that stated in the application for this policy, or be injured while doing any act or thing pertaining to any more hazardous occupation, the company's liability shall be only for such proportion of the accident benefits as the premium hereon would purchase at the rate fixed by the company for like insurance for such more hazardous occupation, and according to the company's rates and classification of risks filed with the insurance commissioner at, or prior to, the date of issuance of the policy under which indemnity is claimed.

If the insured has or shall become entitled to or make claim for accident benefits under any policy issued by the company, it shall not for any portion of the same period of time be liable for disease benefits under any policy. Any accident or disease benefits paid shall be deducted from any amount payable as advances under the provisions of said life insurance policy as to "benefits for permanent disability," if the sole or contributory or secondary cause of such permanent disability is also the sole or contributing or secondary cause of the disability on account of which accident or disease benefits were paid.

Accident and disease benefits shall be payable to the insured if living at the time of actual payment, otherwise to the person or persons entitled to receive payment of moneys payable on account of the death of said insured under said life insurance policy.

Written notice of any accident and injury or any disease with full particulars must be given the company at its home office, San Francisco, California, within twenty days from the date of the accident or beginning of disability from disease, and satisfactory written affirmative proof of the character and effects of any accident and disability or any disease and disability must be furnished the company within ninety days after the termination of such disability if it be less than thirteen weeks, otherwise within ninety days after the termination of each thirteen weeks' period of continuous disability, and each such period shall constitute a separate and distinct claim and shall be payable within sixty days of the receipt by the company of such satisfactory proof. The company shall have the right and opportunity to have the person of the insured examined when and so often as it requires in case of injury or disease. In case of failure for any cause to so furnish such notice or proof, or to allow such examination, no claim shall arise or be valid for disability. Legal proceedings for accident or disease benefits shall not be brought before three months nor after six months from date of filing proofs at the company's home office.

This accident insurance covers freezing and unprovoked assaults (including assaults burglars and robbers), but neither accident nor disease insurance covers disability due to the use of intoxicants or narcotics or disability from injuries received while affected by or under their influence.

This accident and disease insurance may be cancelled at any time by the insured filing written notice at the home office of the company at San Francisco, or by the company mailing written notice by registered letter to the insured at either last known residence or the residence given in the application for said life insurance policy, together with cash or money order for the unearned portion of the premium. Such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim arising from disability contracted and beginning prior to the date of such cancellation. Disease insurance ceases upon the insured becoming fifty-five years of age, and accident insurance upon his becoming seventy years of age, and both disease and accident insurance upon default in payment of any premium, also when premiums upon said life insurance policy ceases to be payable.

Dated as of the 15th day of February, 1915.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION

Do you agree (1) that only the officers of the company, at its home office, can accept or reject this or any application? (2) That no knowledge of any person and no statement made or given by or to any person shall bind the company or in any manner affect its rights unless such knowledge and statement are set forth in writing in this application? (3) That no policy issued hereunder shall take effect until the first premium shall have been paid and accepted by said company or its authorized agent and such policy delivered to and accepted by you while you are in good health? (4) That unless written permission is first expressly granted by the company no policy shall be valid if during the first year following its date you engage in any of the following extra hazardous occupations or employments: submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, manufacture or handling of any highly explosive substance? (5) That, if during the first year following the date of said policy you commit suicide, sane or insane, or die in consequence of your own unlawful act, the only liability under said policy shall be for a fixed sum equivalent to five per cent of the principal sum of said policy? (6) That any physician may, at any and all times, disclose any information, heretofore or hereafter in any way acquired or communicated to him, concerning any question arising under any of the statements or answers for such contract of insurance?

VOLUNTEER STATE LIFE.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare that I am in good health and of sober and temperate habits, and that the statements and answers to the foregoing questions are complete and true and that the foregoing, together with this declaration, shall constitute the application and become part of the contract for the insurance hereby applied for. I agree that if within two years from the date hereof I shall die a suicide, whether sane or insane, the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of premiums paid on this policy. I further agree that I will not engage in any military or naval service in time of war during the continuance of the said contract without first obtaining written permission from the company. I hereby agree that the policy herein applied for shall be accepted, subject to the privileges and provisions therein contained, and said policy shall not take effect until the same shall be issued and delivered during my continuance in good health and the first premium thereon paid in full.

* Adopted March, 1915.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Western and Southern Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.
BOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $297.60. AGE, 35.

The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, by this policy of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, on receipt at the home office of the company, in Cincinnati, Ohio, upon blanks furnished by the company, of due date of the death of William F. Clark of Cleveland (hereinafter called the insured) in the State of Ohio to Carrie M. Clark, wife, beneficiary, (with right of revocation) if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured; less any indebtedness hereunder to the company, and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year. This policy is conditioned upon the payment of premiums as follows: Two hundred ninety-seven and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, annually, in cash in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the authorized agent designated thereon, on delivery of this policy during the life and sound health of the insured; and on or before the fifth day of April in every year during the continuance of this policy until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in Cincinnati, or they may be paid to agents on or before the dates when due, in exchange for official premium receipts signed by the president or secretary of the company.

The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above, as follows: Semi-annually, one hundred fifty-four and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, or quarterly, seventy-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, but in any event this policy shall continue in force only for the period actually paid.

In grace of one month, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the month of grace the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in settlement hereunder.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of default of any premium the company will, within three months after such default, reinstate this policy, if not previously surrendered for its cash value, upon written application by the insured to the company at its home office, with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company; the payment of all premiums that should have been paid in the intervening time if no default had been made, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the payment or renewal of any indebtedness existing at the time of default.

POLICY VALUES.—The insured, if living on the fifth day of April, 1935, provided the premiums theretofore payable in each insurance year shall have been paid in cash, and he is not indebtedness hereunder, may select one of the following options: 1. Continue this policy without further payment of premiums. 2. A cash payment of $5660 and surrender this policy. 3. An annual income of $420, payable during the natural life of the insured, and surrender this policy. The first payment to be made at time of said surrender. Agents are not authorized to alter this policy or waive or modify any of its conditions, in any respect, nor to extend the time for the payment of premiums.

TRUST FUND AND INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGES.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy, if not less than $1000, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon three per cent per annum, payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee, and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee—unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the accompanying table (B) for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty-five years and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive, in accordance with the accompanying table (A) for each $1000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee, shall be paid—unless otherwise directed in said notice—to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If, at the death of the insured, the beneficiary is fifty years of age the company will pay the beneficiary annually $52 for every $1000 of insurance, so as the beneficiary shall live. At least twenty-five annual payments will be made, should the beneficiary die in say ten years the remaining fifteen payments would be paid to the executors or assigns of the beneficiary.

† ILLUSTRATION.—If the insured should direct that the policy should be paid in two annual instalments, the beneficiary would receive $65 per $1000 of insurance every year for twenty years; a total of $1300.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING PRIVILEGE.—If the trust is created by the insured for benefit of the beneficiary, the beneficiary cannot assign or commute the instalment nor, if the proceeds are placed in trust subject to interest, withdraw the principal anticipate the interest—unless such right is given by the insured in writing, and is drossed on the policy by the company at its home office, during the lifetime of the insured. If the trust is created by the beneficiary, the beneficiary may at any time subsequent commute or assign the unpaid instalments, or at any time withdraw the principal or part thereof remaining unpaid, with accrued interest.

HOW TRUST MAY BE CREATED.—Trust agreement for interest or instalment may be created at any time by the insured, but shall only be created and have effect when made in writing, subscribed by him, and by the company at its home ist agreement may be created by the beneficiary after the death of the insured, and in the proceeds of this policy become payable to the beneficiary. When a trust is created and a new one is not created, and no other provision is made for the proceeds of this insurance, payment shall be made in cash, as provided in this policy.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

1. This policy cannot be varied or altered, or its conditions waived or extended in respect, except by written agreement of the company, signed by the president, president or secretary, whose authority in this respect will not be delegated.

2. All statements made by the insured in the application for this policy, a true copy of which is hereto attached, shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations, and not warranties.

3. No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it be filed with the company at its home office, and a duplicate of such assignment must be attached hereto. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

4. In case of suicide while sane or insane, within two years from the date on which the insurance begins, the limit of recovery shall be the amount of premiums paid hereon.

5. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

6. No action or suit to recover any claim hereunder shall be commenced after five years from the time such action shall accrue, and it is expressly agreed that if such suit or action is commenced after such period, the lapse of time shall be conclusive evidence against such claim, all statutory provisions to the contrary notwithstanding.

7. VALUE OF THIS POLICY AS SECURITY FOR CASH LOANS.—After three years' premiums have been paid, the company, at any time while the policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at six per cent interest per annum, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the cash value at the end of the current policy year on this policy, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying Table (C).

The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy, and any unpaid balance or instalment of the premium for the current policy year with interest in advance on the loan to the same date. Interest on loans, not paid annually, shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest. Loans may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. Failure to repay policy loan, or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless and until the total indebtedness to the company hereon shall equal or exceed the loan value of this policy at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall be mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, or of the assignee, if any. No condition other than herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such loan or advance.

Values for years beyond this table, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, will be furnished on request.

VALUES OF THIS POLICY IF PREMIUMS ARE DISCONTINUED.—After this policy shall have been in force for three full years, the owner, within two months after any default in premium, may elect to accept the value of this policy in cash, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying Table (C), or to have the insurance continued in force from date of default as term insurance (specified in Column 3), or to purchase paid-up insurance (specified in Column 2), payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. The cash value will be the reserve at the date of default on this policy, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum; less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy. Payment of such cash value may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. The amount of paid-up insurance, or the term for which the insurance will be extended, will be such as the cash value will purchase a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. If the owner shall not within two months from default, surrender this policy to the company at its home office for a cash surrender value or for endorsement as paid-up insurance, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance from date of said default, as stated in Column 3 of accompanying table. Any existing indebtedness due the company on account of or secured by the policy shall reduce amount or term of such extended insurance in the ratio of such indebtedness to the value of such insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided the right of revocation has been reserved in application herefor, and this policy has not been assigned, the insured may at any time and from time to time, change the beneficiary, to take effect when such change has been endorsed on this policy with the written approval of the president or secretary of the company, whereupon all rights of former beneficiary shall cease. In the event of death of an irrevocable beneficiary not a creditor, the insured may designate a new beneficiary with or without the right of revocation. If there shall be no beneficiary at the death of the insured, the proceeds of the policy shall be payable in cash to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

CONTRACT INCONTESTABLE.—This policy and the application herefor, a true copy of which is endorsed hereon or securely attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties, and shall be incontestable after two years from its date, except non-payment of premiums.

PROVISION OF NON-FORFEITURE.—This policy is non-forfeitable after three full years' premiums have been paid, and may be surrendered at any time thereafter for its value in cash, or the equivalent in paid-up or extended insurance.

In witness whereof, The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary at Cincinnati, Ohio, this day of April, 1915.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare and agree, that I am now in good health, and ordinarily have good health; that I am temperate in my habits, that in my statements and answers in application and to the medical examiner, no information has been withheld touching my past and present state of health and habits of life, occupations, employments and avocations; that the statements and answers to the printed questions above, together with this declaration, as well as those made to the company's medical examiner, shall constitute the application and be the basis of this contract. It is also understood and agreed on behalf of myself and any beneficiary under any policy issued hereunder by The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company on my life, that the company shall incur no liability until this application has been received, approved, the policy issued thereon by the company and delivered and the first premium paid in cash during my lifetime of good health.

Maximum amount carried on a single life, $10,000.

Western Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DEFERRED DIVIDENDS
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $369.30. AGE, 35.

The Western Life Insurance Company will pay ten thousand dollars to Martha Washington, wife of the insured, if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, or to such other beneficiary as may have been duly designated, at the home office of the company, in Des Moines, Iowa, immediately upon receipt of satisfactory proofs of the death of George Washington (the insured) while this contract is in force.

This contract is granted in consideration of the application therefor, which application is hereby made a part of this contract, and a copy is attached hereto or endorsed hereon, and in further consideration of the sum of three hundred, sixty nine dollars and thirty cents in advance, being the premium for one year's term insurance, and payment of further sums of three hundred, sixty nine dollars and thirty cents on or before the first day of February in every year during the continuance of this contract until twenty full annual premiums have been paid.

ADDITIONAL INDEMNITY.—Should the insured meet with accidental death while passenger on a common carrier, all as hereinafter defined, and while this contract is in full force and effect, all as provided on the succeeding pages of this contract, the company will pay to the beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder the sum of twelve thousand dollars.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—Should the insured become permanently totally disabled, as hereinafter defined, before attaining the age of fifty-five years, and while this contract is in full force and effect, the company will pay to the insured annual advances on account of the amount payable as a death claim hereunder, all as provided on the succeeding pages of this contract. The privileges, conditions, loan and surrender values stated on the following pages, form a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures of the president and secretary, hereto affixed.

Dated, signed and sealed at Des Moines, Iowa, this first day of February, 1915.

This policy is protected by a deposit of the full legal reserve, in approved securities actually deposited with the auditor of the state of Iowa under chapters 6 and 8, title 1 of the code.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.—Arranged in condensed form for ready reference and convenience of the insured, but governed by the conditions as hereinafter specified in detail.

1. This contract is incontestable after one year.
2. This contract grants freedom of residence and travel from date of issue.
3. This contract grants freedom of occupation after one year.
4. This contract has no restrictions as to time, place or manner of death after one year.
5. The insured may reinstate this contract at any time, in the event of lapse on satisfactory proof of condition of health.
6. This contract may be exchanged for another without re-examination.
7. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly and on the payment of any premium thirty days' grace allowed without interest.
8. This contract grants loan, cash surrender, extended insurance and automatic premium values, after three years.
9. The insured may change the beneficiary at will, or assign this contract.
10. This contract participates in the surplus of the company.
11. This contract pays the beneficiary a special mortuary dividend in addition to the face of the contract.
12. This contract pays extra for accidental death occurring while a passenger of common carrier.
13. This contract provides that all premiums stop and the insured receives advances in case of permanent total disability.
14. On maturity of this contract, any cash settlement may be converted into a monthly or yearly income or an annuity for life.
15. This contract pays the beneficiary immediately upon receipt of proofs of death.
16. The reserve on this policy is based upon the combined experience table at 6 per cent interest and preliminary term method.

PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS, WITH DETAILED CONDITIONS GOVERNING EACH.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue.

FREEDOM OF RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—Is granted from date of issue.

FREEDOM OF OCCUPATION.—No restrictions as to occupation after one year.

RE-INSTALLMENT.—This contract will be re-instated on the written application of the insured at any time after nonpayment of any premiums, subject to evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, and payment of premiums to date of re-installment together with any indebtedness to the company under this contract existing at the time of lapse, with interest at not to exceed 6 per cent per annum.

CONVERTIBILITY.—This contract may be converted at any time without medical examination, to any other contract issued by this company, on which a higher premium is charged, at the age at which this contract was issued, providing the difference in the premiums is paid in full at 6 per cent interest.

e.—Thirty days' grace will be allowed in the payment of any premium on this, during which time the insurance will be in full force and effect, but if not then a contract will be absolutely void, except as hereinafter provided in the non-forfeiture, and all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company. The sending of premium payment, or other notice after the forfeiture, or lapse shall not be a evidence of waiver of such lapse or forfeiture.

ITY FOR MAKING PAYMENTS.—The premiums hereon may be paid annually, monthly, or quarterly after the first contract year, as herein provided.

ENDED INSURANCE.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years, in the event of the failure to pay any premium upon written request of the insured in good health and within sixty days of the due date hereof, the contract may be in force as non-participating term insurance for the time stated in the table below in column four, provided that if any indebtedness exists against this contract at the time of non-payment, the time of continuance shall be correspondingly reduced.

GE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time during the continuance of the contract, provided the contract is not then assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiary or assign this contract pursuant to the laws of Iowa, by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this contract, such change to take effect on the assignment of the same on the contract by the company; but the company assumes no liability for the validity of any such change or assignment.

s.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years, and while it is in force under its original conditions, the company will, in conformity with its original conditions, loan to the insured the amount of cash stated in the table below in column one, at the interest rate of 6 per cent, payable in advance, except that no loan will be made for a shorter period than one year, provided all premiums be fully paid to the company for the contract year in which loan falls due.

MATIC PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years, in the event of the failure to pay any premium, and the insured has made no written request for cash settlement or extended insurance, the company will automatically issue a non-participating paid-up policy for the amount of cash stated in the table below in column two, less the paid-up insurance value of any indebtedness against this contract.

ATION FOR RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy shall be valued by the preferred method in accordance with the laws of Iowa, except valuation may be made to comply with the laws governing the valuations for the states in which such policy is delivered; but the basis shall be the combined experience table and four per cent interest.

VALUE.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years from the date hereof, and provided it has not been extended as term insurance for more than three years, the company will, upon a full and valid surrender of this contract, pay the insured as a cash surrender value, the amount stated in the table below in column three, less the indebtedness against this contract.

ENDS.—This contract is issued on the accumulative dividend plan and no distribution of surplus will be made hereon, except in the case of special mortuary dividend payable the first day of February, 1935, at which time, if in force, the insured or assigns shall receive the full share of the profits of the company that shall then be apportioned to this contract as a cash dividend under one of the following options:

OPTIONS.—Option One—Surrender this contract for its guaranteed cash value, less unpaid premium and three hundred and ninety dollars, and in addition thereto its cash dividend as provided in the table below in column two; or Option Two—Surrender this contract for the amount of paid-up insurance or annual income for life that Option One will purchase; or Option Three—Surrender the dividend in cash and surrender this contract for the amount of paid-up insurance as provided in the table below in column two; or Option Four—Receive the dividend or converted into an annual income for life, and continue this contract under the conditions as heretofore, and participate annually in profits thereafter. The insured may notify the company in writing within sixty days of dividend date which one of the above options of settlement he selects, or the dividend will be converted into an annual income for life, as provided in Option Four. Any paid-up insurance under the above conditions in excess of the face value of this contract is subject to evidence of insurability for the company, and the amount of paid-up insurance will be computed by the company's present printed table of single premium rates.

ERS NOT DELEGATED TO AGENTS.—No agent has power in behalf of the company to modify this or any contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying any premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by any promise, or making any representation or information. These powers can be exercised only by the insured and secretary jointly and by written instrument, and cannot be delegated.

S NOT ASSUMED WITHIN ONE YEAR.—This contract shall cease and be null and void if no effect:

(1) within one year from the date hereof, the insured shall commit suicide or die by fire, flood, or act, whether sane or insane at the time, or if the death of the insured occurs while engaged or in consequence of having been engaged in blasting, undermining (except quartz), submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, manufacture or use of inflammable or explosive substances, or in any capacity upon any steamship, motor vessel, except as captain, purser or engineer, or handling electric wires or electric machinery with a voltage in excess of six hundred volts, or in handling electric wires as a telegraph man or repairer, or in employment upon any train or tracks of a steam railway as a conductor on a passenger train or sleeping car, or section foreman, or shall occur in the manufacture or sale of alcoholic liquors as a beverage, or shall occur in the insured shall engage in any military or naval service in time of war, insurrection without the written permission of the company and an additional premium therefor, the liability of the company shall cease, and in case of death from such advice without such written consent, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of the then legal reserve on this policy.

Inasmuch as the foregoing risks are not assumed by this company within one year after the death of the insured (on account of the foregoing ways), the amount payable hereunder shall be restricted to the amount of premiums paid on this contract at the time of the death of the insured.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—Should the insured, before attaining the age of five years, become permanently totally disabled, as hereinafter defined, while this contract is in full force and effect under its original conditions and prior to default in the payment of any premium, the company will pay annually as an advance to the insured one-tenth of the amount payable under this contract upon the death of the insured provided as follows:

1. This company's maximum aggregate liability for such advance payments on this and any and all contracts upon the same life shall not, in any event, exceed ten thousand dollars, and in no case shall there be more than ten payments, nor shall the amount payable annually exceed two hundred dollars and all payments shall be made from the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

2. In case of any and every such advance payment, this and every other contract upon the same life providing for any such advance payment must be produced at the office of the company to have the amount of payment or payments endorsed thereon in reduction or extinguishment of the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

3. The premiums payable after permanent total disability, and notice and continued proof thereof, as hereinafter provided, shall be such only as will keep the contract in full force the insurance, if any, in excess of two thousand dollars.

4. Within sixty days after the happening of the disability, full particulars must be given in writing to the company at its home office, together with the then and whereabouts of the insured, and, within ninety days after the happening of the disability, there must be given the company at its home office, upon blanks furnished by the company, satisfactory proofs of disability, and, after the payment of the first advance, similar proof must be made, if required by the company, of such continuing total disability, prior to each subsequent annual advance payment.

5. Any medical adviser of the company shall be allowed to examine the person insured in respect to any alleged disability in the manner and at all times the medical adviser may require.

6. No suit on account of alleged permanent total disability shall be maintained until commenced before the expiration of one year from the date of the happening of the disability.

7. If there is a failure to comply with any one of the foregoing provisions, the contract on account of disability or for any advance payment shall arise or be valid or enforceable.

8. Any valid claim for such advancement shall extinguish all other rights, values and benefits under this contract, except: (a) as to balance, if any, of amount payable upon death of insured not exhausted by such advance payment or payments received by the insured; and (b) as to such insurance, if any, in excess of two thousand dollars, the maximum limit of liability for such advances which is kept in force by the company for premium payments.

MORTUARY DIVIDEND.—In the event of the death of the insured after five years from the date hereof, and during the accumulation period, the contract being in full force and value, and all premiums having been fully paid, the beneficiary hereof shall be paid a mortuary dividend in cash of so much of the accumulated fund that may be apportioned on account of this contract in addition to the full amount of the death benefit payable under this contract.

is company's maximum aggregate limit of liability for such additional indemnity and any and all policies, upon the same life shall not, in any event, exceed two dollars.

such death results from accident and is sustained (1) while the insured is a passenger on board a railway passenger car provided by a common carrier of passengers propelled by mechanical power; (2) or while the insured is a passenger and on board a vessel licensed for and regularly employed in the transportation of passengers; (3) or while he is a passenger and is within a passenger elevator (mine elevators excepted); (4) or as the consequence of the destruction of a building by fire while he is therein (firemen, fire fighters, and fire inspectors excepted); then the amount payable as an additional indemnity shall be double the amount payable as a death claim hereunder, not to exceed the amount herein provided.

as additional indemnity benefit shall in no case be construed to include death by any manner whatsoever unless said accidental death occurs while this contract is in force and effect and does not include accidental death if such accidental death while the insured hereunder is taking advantage of any of the special benefits of this contract, but more especially permanent total disability benefits.

AL REGULATIONS.—1. Notice of each and every premium to become due hereon, and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this contract, and any further hereby expressly waived by the insured. Notification of premiums becoming due shall be sent to the insured, but without any agreement on the part of the company and without any responsibility for omission or miscarriage.

any premium due, and payable in advance at the home office of the company, Des Moines, Iowa, unless otherwise agreed in writing, but may be paid by the agent or collector on the date when due, but only in exchange for an official receipt by the president or secretary and countersigned by the agent or person to whom payment is made as evidence of such payment to him. If any premium is not paid as specified, this policy shall become void, and all payments previously made shall be property of the company, except as herein provided. The premium hereon shall be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, in advance, after the first policy year, and in accordance with the statement of rates endorsed hereon, but in any event this policy shall remain in force only for the period actually paid.

ly the president and secretary have power to make or modify any contract of this company and only when they jointly execute a written instrument.

Proofs of death and validity of the claim must be furnished to the company at its ce, on its blanks, within four months after the death of the insured. No suit shall be maintained on this contract unless said suit or action is commenced a year from the day of the death of the insured.

If the age of the insured is understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be the amount of insurance or other benefit the actual premium paid would have purchased at the age of the insured.

any indebtedness to the company, including any unpaid balance of the premiums insurance year, will be deducted in any settlement on this contract.

VESTED OPTIONS.—The company will at the written request of the insured at any time insure hereunder payable in equal annual instalments as provided in any of the following options, provided this contract has not been assigned; but no age shall take effect until it is endorsed by the company on this contract. The amount shall be paid on the death of the insured, or at the end of the endowment instalment shall be paid on the endowment plan. Unpaid instalments can neither be commuted, and in the event of the death of the beneficiary after the death of the insured, any unpaid instalments shall revert to the administrators, executors or assigns of the beneficiary. The payment of all benefits hereunder shall be subject to conditions and proofs as are required by this contract for the payment of the insurance hereunder. Western Reserve Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300. AGE, 31.

Western Reserve Life Insurance Company, of Muncie, Ind. hereby agrees, while this policy is in force, to pay at its home office within thirty days after receipt of due proof of the interest of the claimant and of the death of John Doe of Muncie, county of Delaware, State of Indiana, the insured, ten thousand dollars less any indebtedness on account of this policy to Mary Doe, wife if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators, or assigns, or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured, subject to the conditions and privileges on the following pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the agreements and representations contained in the application hereof, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and of the payment, in advance, of three hundred dollars, on or before the tenth day of March in each and every year for twenty years from date hereof, or until the prior death of the insured.

The full legal reserve on this policy is deposited with the auditor of State of Indiana in approved securities required by and in accordance with the compulsory reserve law of Indiana.

In witness whereof, the Western Reserve Life Insurance Company, by its proper officers, has issued, executed and signed this policy at Muncie, Ind., on the tenth day of March, 1914.

CONDITIONS AND PRIVILEGES.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, Muncie, Ind. They may, however, be paid elsewhere to any authorized agent or collector, but only in exchange for a receipt duly signed by the president or secretary of the company, and countersigned by the agent or collector to whom payment is made. The failure to pay any premium, or any note, or interest upon notes given to the company for any such premium or part of premium, on or before the days upon which such premium, note or interest becomes due, shall void and annul this policy without action on the part of the company or notice to the insured or beneficiary, and all payments made upon this policy shall be deemed earned as premiums during its currency, and shall remain the property of the company, except as hereinafter provided.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—In case the age of the insured shall have been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age according to the published premium rate now in use for the correct age.

SUICIDE.—If within one year from the date hereof the insured shall die by suicide, whether sane or insane, or in consequence of his (or her) own criminal action, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid on this policy.

ASSIGNMENTS.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless made in writing, duly witnessed and filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

MODIFICATIONS.—No agent has power on behalf of the company to change, modify or alter this policy, to change or extend the time for paying any premium hereunder, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by any promise or by making or receiving any representation or information. These powers may be exercised only by the president, vice-president or secretary, and cannot be delegated. No change, modification or alteration of this policy shall be binding unless endorsed hereon and signed by the president, vice-president or secretary of the company.

MILITARY SERVICE.—Military or naval service in time of war, without a permit, are risks not assumed by the company under this policy; and in case of death while engaged in such service without such permit, the amount payable hereunder shall be the full reserve on this policy at date of death.

TRAVEL, ETC.—This policy is absolutely free of conditions as to residence, occupation, travel and habits of life, except military or naval service in time of war.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, a copy of which is attached hereto or endorsed hereon, constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto, and is incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premiums or violation of the conditions hereof in relation to military or naval service in time of war without a permit. All statements by the insured in said application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

GRACE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Thirty days' grace will be allowed in the payment of premiums hereon after this policy has been in force one year, without interest, during which time this policy shall remain in full force. If the insured shall die within any such period of grace, the unpaid premiums for the then current policy year shall be deducted by the company in any settlement hereunder.

CHANGE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—The mode of premium payments may be changed at the time any premium falls due from annual to semi-annual, or quarterly, or vice-versa, according to the company's schedule for this kind of policy, endorsed on the back hereof, but the payment of any premium shall not have the effect to continue this policy.

for a period longer than designated in the receipt therefor. In case the premium on this policy is paid semi-annually, or quarterly, the company shall deduct in any settlement hereunder on account of the death of the insured an amount equal to the premiums otherwise would have accrued on this policy during its then current year.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case there has been default in the payment of any premium due hereunder, or of any note or interest thereon, by reason whereof this policy has become lapsed, this policy may be reinstated at any time, providing the same has not been surrendered to the company and cancelled, upon written application therefor, and the payment of all overdue premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, subject to evidence of good health of the insured satisfactory to the company.

CHANGE IN BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time during the continuance of this policy, providing same has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries filing with the company, at its home office, a written request therefor, accompanied by this policy; such change to be effective only from and after the endorsement of the company on this policy by the company.

CHANGING PLAN OF INSURANCE.—This policy, at any anniversary of its date of issue, on written application to the company at its home office, may be exchanged for any other form of policy issued by the company, without medical re-examination, providing the amount of insurance under such policy shall not exceed or the rate of premium thereof less than as herein provided for, and provided the first premium on the new policy shall be paid while this policy is in force. Such change may be effected in one of the following methods, to-wit: (a) The company will issue a new policy, to date concurrently with the date of exchange, in which case the entire net reserve value of this policy shall be applied toward the payment of premiums on the new policy; or, (b) the company will issue a new policy to date concurrently with the issuance of this policy upon the request by the insured of the difference between the reserve upon this policy at date of such change and the amount of reserve required for a policy to which the change is requested at the end of the same period.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—This policy is issued payable in one sum at maturity or on the death of the insured, but the insured, at any time, this policy then being in effect and not assigned, may elect by written request on the company's form, that each $1000 of insurance due hereunder upon the maturity of this policy shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with either of the following installment options, the first installment being due in each case when the one sum becomes payable as hereinbefore provided, and election may be changed subsequently in like manner to any other option provided above, or revoked entirely. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid installments, without the previous written consent of the insured, given to the company and by it endorsed on this policy at its home office during the lifetime of the insured.

Option 1. In five annual installments of $211.99 each, amounting to $1,059.95. Option 2. In ten annual installments of $113.32 each, amounting to $1,133.20. Option 3. In twenty annual installments of $51.83 each, amounting to $1,036.60. Option 4. In twenty annual installments of $65.28 each, amounting to $1,305.60. Option 5. In annual installments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each installment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured. In case of the death of the beneficiary before twenty annual installments have been paid, the company will pay the commuted value of the remainder of said twenty installments in one sum to the estate of the beneficiary. Option 6. In annual installments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each installment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured.

The values in the above table are for the end of the respective policy years, and they and the reserve on this policy are based upon the American Experience Table with three and one-half per cent interest. Values for later years shall be equivalent to the full reserve then due on this policy, and will be furnished upon request. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid hereon, if default be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, this policy, without action upon the part of the insured, will become a non-participating policy for paid-up term insurance for the number of years and days stated in the above table for the end of the last year for which full annual premiums shall have been paid, subject to all the conditions of this policy, except the further payment of premiums, all other loan or surrender values being waived while this policy is in force as extended insurance; provided, that any existing indebtedness to the company on account of, or secured by this policy, if not paid in cash, shall be deducted from the net value of such paid-up term insurance and the difference shall be applied to purchase paid-up term insurance for such an amount as this difference, considered as a net single premium upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, will purchase for such time.

CASH.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, upon a full and valid surrender thereof and of all claims thereunder at the home office of the company, within one month (including the days of grace) after the date upon which the last unpaid premium hereon became due as provided herein, the company will, upon request of the holder hereof, pay to the insured within six months of the date upon which such premium became due, the cash value specified in the above table to be paid at the end of the last year for which full annual premiums have been paid, less the amount of any unpaid note given to the company for premiums hereon and any existing indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy; the cash value herein specified shall not, in any event, be less than the sum available for the purchase of extended insurance, as above indicated.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, no default having been made in the payment of any premiums hereunder, the company, at any time thereafter while this policy is in force, will loan within six months after receipt of written application therefor, upon the sole security of this policy, any sum not exceeding the amount specified in the above table to be loaned during the last year for which complete annual premiums have been paid, plus the value of the reserve on any dividend additions to this policy; providing: (1) That this policy be duly assigned to the company as security for such loan; (2) that such loan shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum and that interest at such rate shall be paid in advance for the remainder of the current policy year; (3) that in determining the loan available hereunder, there shall be deducted from the loan value herein specified any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the then current policy year; (4) that failure to repay to the company any such loan, or interest thereon, when due, shall not void this policy until the total indebtedness to the company on or secured by this policy shall equal or exceed the loan value of this policy at the time of such failure, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and to the assignee, if any.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After three or more full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, if default be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, upon written application therefor by the insured within sixty days (including the days of grace) of such default, the company will, upon a full and valid surrender of this policy and all claims thereunder at the home office of the company, issue a paid-up non-participating life policy for the amount stated in the above table for the last year for which complete annual premiums shall have been paid; provided, that any existing indebtedness to the company on or secured by this policy, including any unpaid note given for premiums hereon, if not paid in cash, shall be deducted from the net value of such paid-up life insurance and the difference shall be applied to purchase paid-up life insurance for such amount as this difference, considered as a net single premium upon the American Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, will buy.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—Upon written request of the insured and beneficiary herein, accompanied by this policy for endorsement hereon, the company will that if any premium hereon shall not be paid before the expiration of the days, the company will charge such premium as a loan against this policy at five per cent interest, if the cash value of the policy available at that time be sufficient to cover loan and interest thereon from the due date of such premium to the due date of next premium; provided, that if the available cash value be not sufficient to cover premium and interest the company shall apply the available cash value to the payment of the premium and interest thereon for such period as the same will pay. While policy is thus in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed by the insured without medical examination, and the accumulated loans and interest may be repaid at any time to stand as a lien against the policy. Such request for automatic premium may be revoked at any time by written notice to the company accompanied by this policy for endorsement, provided that such revocation shall not affect any lien already established against the policy while such option remained in force.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that all provisions of law forbidding any physician who has attended or may attend me, from disclosing any and all information which he has or may acquire in attendance, are hereby expressly waived; that in any distribution of surplus, the rates and methods which may then be in use by the company for determination of amount and its apportionment are hereby accepted; that the policy shall not take effect unless I am alive and in good health at the time of its delivery to me; nor then unless the premium has been paid in cash or a note for extension of time for such payment accepted by the company at its home office in Muncie, Ind., and that the method of conducting the business of said company may at any time be changed to such plan as may be provided by any law of the State of Indiana relating to life insurance companies. I agree that each statement made herein and in Part II of this application by whom they are written are full, true and complete, and that each of the same is material and correct.

I hereby agree for myself and any person who may at any time have or claim any interest in any policy issued upon this application, that the place of the contract is the home office of the company, in Muncie, Ind., and that said contract shall in all things be governed by the law of said State, and that no statement, promise or information made orally or to the person taking this application, or any other person, shall be binding upon the company or in any way affect its rights, unless reduced to writing and presented to the company at its home office.

Western States Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—COUPON SAVINGS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $383.40. AGE 35.

Western States Life Insurance Company agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in San Francisco, Cal., as follows: To the beneficiary, Mary Doe, wife of the insured (without right of revocation reserved in the insured), immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured, during the continuance of this policy. The insured, John Doe, of San Francisco, county of San Francisco, State of California.

TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid, before default in payment of any subsequent premium, if due proofs shall be furnished to the company that the insured has become wholly disabled by bodily injuries, disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will agree, by endorsement on this contract, to pay the face amount of insurance under this policy, in twenty annual instalments, or ninety-three per cent of the said face amount in fifteen equal annual instalments, or eighty-five per cent of the said face amount in ten equal annual payments to the insured or the executors of the insured, and will continue to make equal payments of the same amounts during the life of the insured, after the said twenty, or ten instalments shall have been paid; the said instalments and payments to the insured or the executors of the insured shall be paid immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the said total disability. The first instalment shall be paid immediately upon acceptance by the company of due proofs of the said total disability. Payment of premiums on this policy shall cease when endorsement of the disability benefit has been made hereon. It is further agreed, that should the insured subsequently recover from the said disability, so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the payments of instalments shall immediately cease. This policy may then be reinstated on payment of the full amount, and all the original benefits thereunder restored, without medical examination, on payment to the company of the total amount of instalments paid and arrears of premiums, with compound interest at five per cent per annum; the said payment to be made in cash, or, if not in excess of the reserve on the policy, the amount of said payment may remain as a loan on the policy subject to other loan provisions hereon. Any medical adviser of this company shall have the privilege at any time to examine the insured regarding any alleged disability. This benefit shall not be available if disability occurs after the insured shall have attained the age of sixty years.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.—INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

This policy is registered and the reserve thereon is deposited as required by Section 634 of the political code of California.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., July 1, 1910.

This policy is absolutely free from conditions or restrictions as to residence, occupation or place of death, from the date of its issue. Neither a permit nor extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war, or in time of peace.

GUARANTEED VALUES AND BENEFITS UNDER THIS POLICY.

LOAN IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy shall have been in force one hundred and thirty-one days of grace (without interest) will be allowed in payment of premiums, during which time the policy shall remain in full force.

LOAN ON AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, the full amount of insurance hereunder will, without action upon the part of the insured, automatically continue from said due date as term insurance, for the term, including the period of grace, specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table.—At any time after two full years' premiums shall have been paid, and while this policy is in force, the company will advance, on the execution of a proper loan agreement and upon proper assignment and delivery of this policy and on the sole security of the company, an amount which, with interest thereon to the end of the current policy year, shall be equal to, or at the option of the owner less than, the cash value at the end of the current policy year, as shown in Column 1 of the table of values given below; any existing loan on the policy, with accrued interest, and any unpaid portion of the premiums due or to become due at the end of the said policy year and interest on the said loan to the end of the said year shall be paid out of such advance. Interest on the loan will be at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable at the end of each policy year, and this interest, if not paid at the end of each policy year, shall be added to the existing loan and shall bear interest at the same rate. The insured may repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the insured is indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash value at the end of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the insured to the last known address of the insured or of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of the automatic term insurance, the company will, on this policy, the amount of paid-up life insurance, if any, specified in Column 2 of the accompanying table, upon written request therefor made by the insured within the time from said due date.

CASH VALUE.—Upon written request, and on surrender of this policy, the company will pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying table, which is the net value of the extended or paid-up insurance stated above. If any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall exist at the time the above values become available, such indebtedness shall reduce the amount of the said loan, cash or paid-up values, or shall shorten the extended insurance period, which values or period is then be adjusted on the basis originally used in their calculation. The cash value of the net value of the term insurance and paid-up insurance specified above shall not be less, at the time the same become available, than the reserve on the policy at the end of the year for which premiums are paid, less a sum not greater than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured under this policy.

The above values are computed on the assumption that all coupon amounts have been used to reduce the premiums or drawn in cash.

In case of default in payment of a premium due at an intermediate period, the above values will be computed on the same basis as the corresponding values for the end of the policy year last expired. Values for subsequent years not shown above will be based on the full reserve on this policy, and will be furnished on request of the insured.

ANNUITY OPTIONS.—(1) At the end of twenty years from date hereof, or, (2) on anniversary nearest the age of sixty-five of the insured, if this policy be then in force for the face amount of insurance hereunder, and the extended insurance provision shall not have become operative, and no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall exist, an annuity policy, in lieu of all other benefits hereunder, will be issued by the company on surrender of this policy, guaranteeing an income payable annually to the insured during his or her life, of the amounts stated below, the first payment thereof to be made on the following dates: (1) $470; on the first day of January 1931; or (2) $830; on the first day of July, 1943. No fractional part of any annuity payment hereunder shall be payable on the death of the insured.

REINSTATEMENT PRIVILEGE.—At any time after default in payment of any premium hereon, or after any non-forfeiture or surrender value option except cash surrender value herein given shall have been taken, this policy may be reinstated to its original face and amount on payment to the company of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum; provided, that such reinstatement shall require evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured may at any time and from time to time, subject to any existing assignment of this policy and during its continuance, name a new beneficiary with or without right of revocation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for a suitable endorsement thereon, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

GUARANTEED COUPON OPTIONS.

OPTION I.—Beginning with the second year, the annual premiums payable hereon may be reduced by the amount shown on the coupons attached hereto and the company will accept, on the dates thereon, or within thirty-one days thereafter, the said coupons in partial payment of the annual premium then due.

OPTION II.—If the premium for the year commencing on the date of any coupon shall have been paid in full in cash without use of the said coupon, the amount shown thereon shall be placed to the credit of the policy on the said date, and interest thereon, compounded annually at the rate of three and one-half per cent, shall also be credited on the same date; any part of the amounts so credited may be withdrawn by the insured at any time and interest on the amount so withdrawn shall then cease. Any balance remaining to the credit of the policy under this option shall be paid in cash by the company to the insured or beneficiary in any settlement thereunder.

OPTION III.—If all premiums due hereon shall have been paid in full in cash, and if the amounts credited as in Option II shall have remained with the company, the insured shall have the option, at the end of fifteen years from the date of the policy, of surrendering the accumulated amount of the coupon and interest credits to the company.

upon this policy shall become fully paid up, and endorsement to that effect shall be by the company on the policy on presentation thereof at its home office.

OPTION IV.—If all premiums due hereon shall have been paid in full in cash, and all amounts credited as in Option II shall have remained with the company, at the thirty-one years from date of the policy, it may mature as an endowment, and the amount thereof shall then be paid in cash to the insured. Any balance of coupon accumulations above the amount necessary at net single premium rates to make the policy paid-up to mature it as an endowment for its face amount, under the above options, shall be paid in cash to the insured.

OPTION V.—If the premium for the year commencing on the date of any coupon shall have been paid in full in cash without use of the said coupon, the amount shown thereon, on written request of the insured, and on surrender of the coupon, be applied to the company as a single premium, at the company's rates now in force, and at the time the insured at that time, to purchase additional paid-up non-participating life insurance, without medical examination. Such additional insurance may be surrendered at any subsequent anniversary of the policy for its legal cash surrender value, or the said value may be applied to reduce any subsequent premium, or drawn in cash, by the insured.

The said additional insurance may be applied, on any policy anniversary, to increase the paid-up value, or its cash value applied to increase the cash or loan values, or this policy. If the extended insurance specified on the second page hereof shall become operative, any said additional paid-up insurance remaining in force shall be paid to the beneficiary hereunder with the face amount of the policy if the insured die before the end of the extension period, or the cash surrender value of such remaining additional insurance shall be paid to the insured, if living, on the expiration of the extension insurance period, or said value may previously be paid to the insured on demand. The cash or paid-up values, increased under this option, and the accumulated amounts under Option II, are shown in the following table:

SETTLEMENTS UNDER COUPON OPTION II, END OF TWENTY YEARS.—If all premiums on this policy shall have been paid in full, and all coupon accumulations shall have remained with the company until the end of twenty years, as in coupon Option II herein, and the insured is indebtedness to the company on account of the policy exists, the insured may have the choice of one of the following options, on surrender of this policy: (1) receive in cash $7739.70, (2) receive a policy of paid-up life insurance of $10,000 and $2079.70, (3) receive a policy of paid-up life insurance of $13,670, (4) receive a paid-up policy guaranteeing a life annuity, first payment at the end of one year, of $650. Option (3) shall only be available on receipt of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—(1) No agent can make, alter or discharge this policy or extend the time for payment of premiums, nor can the policy be varied or altered or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by the written agreement of the company, signed by the president or secretary, whose authority will not be delegated. If the age of the insured shall have been incorrectly stated in the application for this policy, the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the actual premium would have purchased at the true age of the insured, unless a different method of statement be required by the laws of the State in which this policy shall be delivered, if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, the liability of the company hereunder shall be only as hereinbefore provided. (4) No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless made by an instrument in writing endorsed upon this policy or attached hereto, nor unless a duplicate shall be furnished to the company forthwith upon its execution. The company shall not be held responsible for the validity of any such assignment. Any claim made under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof. (5) Any indebtedness to the company, including any balance of the premium for the insurance year remaining unpaid, will be deducted in any cash settlement of this policy or will reduce, proportionately, any other benefit thereunder. (6) The reserve on this policy shall be computed, for purposes of policy valuation and calculation of premiums and loans and surrender value benefit by the first year preliminary term method, on the basis required by the laws of the State in which this policy shall be delivered, and the American Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest. (7) This policy and application therefor (a copy of which application is attached hereto) constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto. All statements of the insured in the said application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it be contained in the written application therefor and a copy of such application be attached to the policy when issued.

THIS POLICY IS INCONTESTABLE AFTER ONE YEAR if all premiums shall have been duly paid. In case of suicide of the insured, committed while sane or insane, within one year from the date on which this insurance begins, the limit of recovery hereunder shall be the total amount of the premiums paid.

PREMIUMS.—The consideration for this insurance and all benefits hereunder shall be the declarations, answers and agreements made in the application for this policy, which is made a part hereof, and the payment of three hundred and eighty-three and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars in advance before this contract shall take effect, which sum consists of the initial reserve at the date of this policy and the term premium for an insurance terminating on the first day of July, 1911.

In consideration of the said application and the payment to the company of a like amount in the succeeding nineteen years or until the prior death of the insured, at the home office of the company on or before the same days, or upon the presentation of a receipt for the said amounts signed by the secretary of the company and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company, this contract shall be renewed and continued until the death of the insured.

The insured shall have the privilege, on written request and on any anniversary of the date of this policy, of paying the premiums hereon semi-annually or quarterly, and such semi-annual premiums shall be fifty-two per cent and such quarterly premiums twenty-six and one-half per cent of any annual premium payable hereunder.

In witness whereof, the Western States Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, at the home office of the company at San Francisco, Cal., this first day of July, 1910.

NOTE.—Coupons provide for a reduction in annual premiums as follows, $57.50, $59.90, $62.40, $64.80, $67.20, $69.50, $71.90, $74.20, $76.50, $78.80, $81.10, $83.40, $85.70, $87.90, $90.10, $92.20, $94.50, $96.70 and $98.80.

OPTIONS AT THE DEATH OF THE INSURED.—The insured, by written notice to the company, at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect that the net sum payable under this policy at the death of the insured shall be payable either in cash or as follows: (Option 1) On demand of the beneficiary, as may be directed by the insured in the said notice; interest on the net sum, at the rate of three and one-half per cent, to be paid by the company annually to the beneficiary until the said net sum is paid on the said demand. (Option 2) In the payment of equal annual or monthly instalments for a specified number of years to the beneficiary or executors thereof, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of the said net sum. (See table, Option 2.) (Option 3) By the payment of equal annual or monthly instalments, the first instalment being payable immediately, for a fixed period of twenty years, to the beneficiary or executors thereof, the said payments to continue during the life of the beneficiary after the said fixed period. (See table, Option 3.) Unless otherwise specified by the insured, the beneficiary may, on any interest date, receive the amount of the said net sum yet due, under Option 1, or may, at any time, receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as Option 2 in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under Option 3 except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

See as follows: 1. That the insurance hereby applied for shall not take effect the first premium is paid and the policy delivered to and received by me during time, and that, unless otherwise agreed in writing, the policy shall then relate and take effect as of the date of this application. 2. That any payment on account of the first premium before delivery of the policy to me shall be binding on the company only in accordance with the company's receipt therefor on the coupon receipt duly filled out and detached from this application, which is the only authorized receipt for such payment. 3. That the agent taking this application has no authority to make, modify or discharge contracts, or to waive any of the company's requirements.

* Adopted January 1, 1910.

Western Union Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $264.00 AGE, 30.
 Western Union Life Insurance Company of Spokane, Wash., pay ten thousand dollars, at the home office of the company Martha Washington, wife of the insured, beneficiary, immediately after receipt of due proof of the death of George Wash-ton, the insured, while this policy is in full force.

TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid hereon and in default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, before attaining the age of sixty years, shall furnish due proof that he has, since such payment, become totally disabled by bodily injuries or disease and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by an endorsement in writing hereon, will continue this insurance in full force during such disability, without additional cost to the insured, and the values in the schedule on page two hereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. The insured shall, however, upon due date of any premium, if requested by the company, furnish due proof of the continuance of such disability. If the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, the company's obligation to continue this insurance in force hereunder shall cease and the insured shall then resume payment of premiums hereon. The entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes or severance of both hands at or above the wrists or of both feet at or above the ankles, of one entire hand and one entire foot as above, shall also be deemed to constitute total and permanent disability.

PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS.

LOANS WITHOUT REQUEST OF THE INSURED.—After three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, if any premium hereunder shall not be paid when due, and if no surrender value has been chosen by the insured within the period of grace, the company will, without request on the part of the insured, charge the amount then due hereunder as a loan against the policy, with interest in advance thereon at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, if the loan value hereon at date such premium was due, is sufficient to secure all indebtedness hereunder, with interest. If the premium is so charged this policy will be continued in force the same in all respects as though said loan had been requested by the insured. The same benefit will be applied from time to time as the premiums become due hereunder and are not paid, as long as the increasing loan value hereunder is sufficient to pay for one day's insurance on a quarterly premium basis. Notice of such loans will be mailed to the assignee, if any assignment is recorded at the home office of the company. The insured may resume the payment of premiums hereunder at any time, without medical re-examination, while the policy is so continued in force. The indebtedness hereon may be repaid in cash wholly or in part or may be allowed to remain as a loan against the policy, subject to interest as aforesaid.

INDEBTEDNESS.—In any settlement under this policy any indebtedness to the company hereon shall first be deducted.

Values for later years not included above will be equal or equivalent to the entire reserve hereon.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid hereon the company will loan, upon proper assignment of the policy and upon the sole security thereof, a sum not greater than the entire reserve hereon at the end of the then current policy year, upon payment of premiums to the end of the then current policy year. The actual amount of loan available at any time is specified in Column 1 of the table of loan and surrender values herein. Interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum shall be payable in advance to the next anniversary of the policy and annually in advance thereafter. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at date of such failure.

CASH VALUES. PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE. EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE.—In case of default in the payment of any premium hereon after three full years' premiums have been paid, the insured shall, upon written request and surrender of this policy within the period of grace after such default, be entitled to (1) a cash value, or (2) paid-up life insurance, or (3) extended term insurance. The cash values, paid-up life insurance and extended term insurance are shown in Columns 1, 2 and 3 of the table of loan and surrender values herein, and said values shall be, without exception, equal or equivalent to the entire reserve on this policy at the date of default in payment of any such premium according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum.

In the event of death of the insured, while this policy is in force, the attached draft will be honored for an amount equal to one hundred dollars.

SPECIAL FUNERAL BENEFIT.—At sight pay to the order of myself one hundred dollars and charge against any claim that may arise under policy No. in the Western Union Life Insurance Company, issued to George Washington, deceased. It is hereby understood and agreed that the payment of the above amount is a loan to the beneficiary, made in consideration of the death of the insured, and the acceptance and payment hereof shall not be considered as an acknowledgment, by the company, of the validity of any claim by reason of said policy. To the Western Union Life Insurance Company, Spokane, Wash. I hereby certify that the insured under this policy is deceased.

NOTICE.—This draft must be accompanied by the receipt of the company showing that premium has been paid beyond the date of the death of the insured before it will be accepted, and the death of the insured must be certified by the president or cashier of some bank. Affidavit must also be included, showing time, place and cause of death, which affidavit must be signed by the beneficiary.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from date hereof this policy shall be incontestable. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the amount which the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age. The policy and the application hereof constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy or be used as a defense to a claim hereunder, unless such statement is contained in the written application hereof. If the insured, whether sane or insane, shall commit suicide during the first policy year, the amount payable hereunder shall be the amount of premiums actually paid hereon.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of all premiums hereunder after the first policy year there will be allowed a grace of one month (not less than thirty days), without interest, during which time this policy shall remain in full force and effect. If the insured shall die while this policy is in force any unpaid premiums for the then current policy year will be deducted in any settlement hereunder.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After the first policy year premiums hereunder are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in Spokane, Wash., and may be paid to any authorized agent of the company producing a receipt signed by the secretary of the company and countersigned by such agent. On any anniversary of this policy the mode of premium payments will be changed by the company, upon due request from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, at the premium rates in use by the company at the date of issue hereof. No payment of premium or part thereof shall have the effect of continuing this policy in force longer than for the period covered by such payment, except as otherwise provided herein.

RIGHTS OF THE INSURED.—The insured may, without the consent of any beneficiary hereunder, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured herein.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time while this policy is in force without the consent of any beneficiary hereunder, upon written request, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, provided such request is made upon the company's form for this purpose, and is accompanied by this policy and provided the policy is not then assigned. Such change shall not take effect until the endorsement of the same is made hereon by the company. If any beneficiary hereunder shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall be payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, unless otherwise provided on page one hereof.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse or become void by reason of the non-payment of any premium or of any indebtedness or interest thereon, said policy may be reinstated at any time upon written application to the home office at Spokane, Wash., and the payment of all indebtedness of the insured to the company, with interest thereat at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, provided proof of insurability satisfactory to the company is furnished with such application. The company will loan to the insured an amount equal to the free loan value hereon at date of reinstatement.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until a duplicate copy thereof upon the company's form has been filed with the company and receipt thereof acknowledged. The company does not assume any responsibility for the legality of any assignment.

ALTERATIONS.—No alterations of any of the privileges and provisions of this policy will be valid unless made in writing and signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the company.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—The insured or the owner or the beneficiary after the death of the insured, in case the insured shall have made no election, may, by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the amount payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, paid in accord with one of the benefits on page one CONSIDERATION.—The consideration for this contract is the cation hereof, which is made a part hereof, a copy of which cation is attached to this policy when issued, and the advance ent in cash to the company, of an annual premium of two red sixty-four dollars and no cents, for term insurance e year ending on the first day of November, 1913, and the ent of an equal amount upon each annual anniversary date, twenty annual premiums in all shall have been fully paid, til the prior death of the insured.

ILUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary shall be thirty years e last birthday, the amount of each monthly payment under this policy will be en dollars and twenty cents ($19.20) for every five thousand dollars insured by this policy, said monthly income continuing for at least twenty years and as much long as the beneficiary shall survive.

The first monthly income will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof of death of the insured and succeeding incomes on the first day of each month thereafter.

This benefit may not be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy nor if the amount insured hereby is less than two thousand five hundred ($2500) dollars.

GENERAL.—The insured may at any time change his selection of the "method payment of death benefit" under this policy; the insured may also revoke all selections thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. If, upon the selection of one or two or benefit three above, the beneficiary shall die before all the payments due hereunder have been made, the remainder of said payments will continue to be paid as annuities by the insured under this policy, or, if the insured has made no such selection, will be commuted at three and one-half per centum compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. If the insured so dies during his lifetime, the beneficiary may neither assign or commute any payments due under before same are due. No selection, change or revocation of any one of the above benefits shall take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. After endorsement this policy will be returned to the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I hereby agree that this application, the medical examination in connection hereof and the bond hereby applied for, taken together, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and hereby warrant that all the answers to questions as above set forth and those that shall be made to the medical examiner are true and form the basis of an insurance contract, which contract shall not take effect until the bond shall have been issued and delivered and the first premium thereon paid during my good health.

PART II.—The statements and the answers to the questions thereto contained in Part I and in Part II, of this application, are warranted by me to be true. I agree that they shall be the basis of and form part of the proposed contract for insurance. I further agree that any and all conditions, stipulations, terms, provisions, clauses, and agreements, printed, written or otherwise, in any policy or contract of insurance, which may be issued hereafter, shall be null and void if, within one year from the date of said policy I engage in blasting, mining, submarine operations, or in the production of highly inflammable or explosive substances, or any electrical employment where the voltage used exceeds over six hundred; or if (without the written consent of the company) I engage in ocean navigation, in switching or coupling or uncoupling of cars, or am employed in any capacity on the trains of a railroad except as sleeping car conductor, mail agent, express agent or baggage master. I hereby declare and warrant that I am in good health and of sound mind and temperate habits, and that in the event of my death by my own act, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of this policy, recovery shall be had against the company for a sum not to exceed the amount of the premium paid. I certify that I have carefully read the foregoing and that my answers are correctly recorded by the medical examiner.

American National Insurance Company.

INDUSTRIAL WHOLE LIFE POLICY.

In consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of the weekly premium hereinafter stated in schedule below, which, it is agreed, shall be paid to the company or its authorized representative, on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract the American National Insurance Company promises to pay at its home office in Galveston, Texas, unto the beneficiary of the insured named below, or if the insured survive the beneficiary, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, the amount of insurance in the schedule hereafter referred to within twenty-four hours after acceptance at its said office of satisfactory proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, which is issued and accepted subject to the privileges and concessions, agreements and conditions named hereinafter and on the reverse side hereof, each of which are hereby referred to and made part of this contract.

PRIVILEGES AND CONCESSIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid, except for fraud.

OCCUPATION, RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—There are no restrictions under this policy after the delivery of the same as to travel, residence or occupation, except as to the provision regarding military service in the time of actual war.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—Should the insured die while the premiums on his policy are in arrears for a term not exceeding four weeks, the company will pay the benefits provided herein subject to the conditions of this contract.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse for the reason of the non-payment of any premium it may be re-instated at any time upon written application and payment of all arrears, subject to the satisfactory evidence of the sound health of the insured.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may from time to time during its continuance change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by filing with the company a written request on blanks furnished by the company, accompanied by this policy for its proper endorsement by the president, vice-president or secretary of the company, provided this policy has not been previously assigned.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After three or more years' premiums have been paid hereon, if this policy shall become forfeited for the non-payment of any premiums and the insured shall be over 15 years of age at the date of such forfeiture, the company agrees to issue a non-participating paid-up life policy for an amount which the legal reserve value of this policy, at the time of surrender, shall purchase as a single premium, provided this policy and receipt books hereto belonging are surrendered to the company within eight weeks from the date of such forfeiture and application made for paid-up policy on blanks furnished by the company for that purpose.

CASH SURRENDER AND LOAN VALUES.—After ten years from the date hereof, and at the end of any fifth year thereafter, the company will pay the insured, as a cash surrender value for this policy, such an equitable amount as the legal reserve which may have accumulated shall warrant, provided this policy is duly surrendered to the company within three months after the expiration of said ten years or any fifth year thereafter, or the company may grant the insured, on application, a cash loan at five per cent interest per annum, payable in advance, within the limits of the cash surrender value referred to upon the due assignment of this policy to the company as a collateral security for such loan.

SCHEDULE (ABOVE REFERRED TO).

Name of Insured. Amos N. Carpenter. Name of Beneficiary. Anna N. Carpenter.	Age Stated to be at Next Birthday, 35 Years.	Weekly Premium 10 Cents.	Amount of Insurance if Life is Rated at or over 10 Years of age Next Birthday, $126.*
--	--	--------------------------------	--

* One-half only of the above sum payable if death occur within six calendar months from date of this policy; and the full amount if death occur thereafter. If the age of the insured is not correctly stated no greater amount will be paid than the premium herein would have purchased at the true age.

AGREEMENTS AND CONDITIONS.

FIRST.—All premiums are payable at the company's home office, but may also be paid to an accredited representative of the company. Payments to be recognized by the company must be entered when paid in the premium receipt book belonging with the policy. If for any reason the premium is not called for when due, by an accredited representative of the company, it shall be the policyholder's duty, before said premium shall be four weeks in arrears, to bring said premium to the company's home office or to one of its district offices.

SECOND.—The insured may serve in the navy or army of the United States or in the State militia in time of peace or for the purpose of maintaining order in case of riot; in time of actual war, however, a written permit must be obtained from the company for such service and an extra premium paid. Should the insured die from service in such war without such permit, the company's liability will be restricted to the net reserve on this policy, computed according to the legal standard of the State of Texas.

THIRD.—Proofs of death under this policy shall be made upon blanks to be furnished by the company, and shall contain answers to each question propounded to the claimant, physicians, and other persons, and shall contain the record, evidence and verdict of the Coroner's inquest, if any be held. All the contents of such proofs of death shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in behalf of, but not against the company. In event of the death of the insured the company may pay the sum of money due under this policy to the families, heirs, blood relatives, affianced husband or affianced wife, or to persons dependent upon the insured at the time of death, and the production by this company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons shall be conclusive evidence that such sum has been paid to the persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

FOURTH.—This policy is void if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company, and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement, signed by the president, secretary or manager of industrial department, that such prior policy may be in force. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition; or if any of the representations upon which this policy is issued are not correct; or if the said weekly premium is not paid according to the terms of this contract. If for any cause this policy becomes void, all premiums paid hereon will be forfeited to the company, except as in the privileges and concessions herein provided.

FIFTH.—Cessation of premium payments. Should the insured survive to the first anniversary of date of this policy after age seventy-four, no further payment of premium will be thereafter required.

SIXTH.—This policy is issued upon an application which omits the warranty usually contained in application, and contains the entire agreement between the company and the insured and the holder and owner hereof. Its terms cannot be changed or its conditions varied, except by a written agreement, signed by the president, secretary or manager of the industrial department. Therefore, agents (which term includes superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four weeks, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not.

When the amount insured according to the terms of this table reaches $100, it will continue at that sum till the death of the insured, when that sum will be payable, subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

Colonial Life Insurance Company of America.

INDUSTRIAL LIFE POLICY—ADULT—NON-PARTICIPATING.

The Colonial Life Insurance Company of America, home office, Jersey City, N. J., hereby insures the person herein designated as the insured, subject to the conditions, agreements and privileges outlined below and on the subsequent pages hereof, and agrees to pay at its home office in Jersey City, New Jersey, the benefit stated in the schedule below, to the executors or administrators of the insured immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, unless payment be made under the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph.

ACILITY OF PAYMENT.—It is understood and agreed that the company may make payment or grant any non-forfeiture privilege provided for in this policy to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, for his or her burial, or for any other purpose, and the production by the company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons or of other sufficient proof of such payment or grant of such privilege to any or either of them shall be conclusive evidence that such payment or privilege has been made or granted to the person or persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.—Name of insured, Eugenie Ehrhardt; amount of benefit, $222; date of policy, January 4th, 1915; age next birthday, nineteen years; weekly premium, ten cents.

If the insured shall die within six calendar months from the date hereof, the company will pay only one-half of the amount of benefit above stated. After the said six calendar months the policy will be in force for the full amount.

In witness whereof, the Colonial Life Insurance Company of America has caused this policy to be executed at its home office on the above-named date.

CONDITIONS AND AGREEMENTS.

A. CONSIDERATION.—This contract is made in consideration of the payment of the weekly premium hereinbefore stated on or before each Monday during the continuance of this policy.

B. PRELIMINARY CONDITION.—No claim will be paid on this policy in case the insured dies before the date hereof, nor unless on said date the insured was alive and in sound health, but in either event the premiums paid hereon, if any, shall be returned.

C. ALTERATIONS AND WAIVERS.—This policy contains the entire agreement between the company and the insured and the holder and owner hereof. Its terms cannot be changed or its conditions varied, except by a written agreement, signed by the presidents, one of the vice-presidents, or the secretary of the company. Therefore, agents (which term includes managers and assistant managers) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or to receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four weeks, or to receipt for the same in the premium receipt book belonging with this policy, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the premium receipt book or not.

D. GRACE PERIOD.—A grace of four weeks shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the weeks of grace, the overdue premiums shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder, but neither this concession nor the acceptance of any overdue premiums shall create an obligation on the part of the company to receive premiums which are in arrears over four weeks. After the expiration of the said period of grace the company's liability under this policy shall cease, except as herein provided.

E. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the company's home office, but may be paid to an accredited representative of the company. Payments to be recognized by the company must be entered when paid in the premium receipt book belonging with the policy. If for any reason the premium is not called for when due by an accredited representative of the company, it shall be the policyholder's duty before said premium shall be four weeks in arrears to send or bring said premium to the company's home office or to one of its district offices.

F. REVIVAL OF POLICY.—If this policy lapse for the nonpayment of premium it may be revived, if not more than fifty-two premiums are due, upon payment of all premiums in arrears, provided evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished, but such revival shall not take effect unless at the date thereof the insured is living and in sound health.

G. INCONTESTABILITY.—If the insured shall die one or more years after the date hereof, and if all premiums due shall have been paid, this policy shall be incontestable, except for fraud and as provided in paragraph J.

H. MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

I. POLICY WHEN VOID.—If this policy be assigned or otherwise parted with, or if any erasure or alteration be made herein except by endorsement signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or the secretary of the company, this policy shall be void; or, if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement signed by the one of the vice-presidents or the secretary of the company that such prior policy be in force, then this policy shall be void. The company shall not be presumed to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition. If this policy lapses for non-payment of premium, all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as hereinafter provided.

J. NAVAL AND MILITARY SERVICE.—The insured may serve in the navy or in the United States or in the national guard in time of peace or for the purpose of maintaining order in case of riot; in time of actual war, however, a written permit obtained from the company for such service and an extra premium paid. Should the insured die from service in actual war without such permit, the company's liability shall be restricted to the net reserve on this policy computed according to the legal rate of interest.

LIMITATION OF INSURANCE.—In the event of the death of the insured before the age of twenty-one years, the maximum amount payable under all policies issued by the company and all other companies and societies shall not exceed that given in the table below at the age at date of death:

If Under Age	$	If Under Age	$	If Under Age
10.....	240	14.....	520	18.....
11.....	300	15.....	520	19.....

If the amount of all other insurance payable under policies issued prior to this policy is less than that stated in the table above, then the amount to be paid under this policy shall be the difference between the amount in said table and the total amount of other prior insurance; but in no case shall the amount to be paid under this policy exceed the benefit named in the schedule on the first page hereof. Should the amount payable under this policy be reduced in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the company will refund a proportionate part of the premiums paid; and should there be no other insurance payable, the full amount of premiums paid will be refunded.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—If this policy lapses for non-payment of premium after premiums have been duly paid for three full years, the company, without action on the part of the holder of the policy, will continue the policy as an automatic paid-up life insurance policy, payable at the same time and under the same conditions as the original policy for a reduced amount of insurance. In computing the benefits, proportionate increases will be made for each completed quarter of a year. Premiums paid over and above the full number of completed years' premiums shall be refunded.

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After this policy has been in force for ten years upon written request to the company and the surrender of this policy and books or other evidence of payment of premium, the company will pay a cash surrender value. In computing cash surrender benefits, proportionate increases will be made for each completed quarter of a year that the policy has been in force over and above the full number of completed years.

If there be any indebtedness under this policy, such indebtedness will be deducted from the cash surrender value, or the amount of the paid-up life insurance policy will be in the same proportion as the cash surrender value is reduced.

The non-forfeiture privileges of this policy are based upon the American Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest per annum, and the value of any such non-forfeiture privilege is at least equal to the entire reserve on this policy according to the foregoing standard, less a surrender charge during the first ten years, which in no case exceeds two and one-half per cent of the amount of the policy.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.—If this policy is not satisfactory to the insured it may be surrendered within two weeks from the date hereof at the office of the manager or agent, and the premium receipt book belonging hereto. The premiums paid will be returned to the insured.

Commonwealth Life Insurance Company.

WHOLE LIFE INDUSTRIAL POLICY.

Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, Louisville, Ky., in consideration of the payment of the premium stated in the schedule below, on or before each Monday during the continuance of this contract, does hereby agree, subject to the conditions, provisions and privileges below and on the second and third pages hereof, each of which is hereby made a part of this contract, and contracted by the insured to be a part hereof, to pay to Mary Doe, the beneficiary if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns the amount named in the schedule below, upon the receipt of satisfactory proof of the death of the insured and upon the surrender of this policy and all receipt books.

Provided, however, that no obligation is assumed by this company prior to the date and delivery of this policy, nor unless on said date the insured is alive and in sound health.

OTHER INSURANCE PERMITTED.—A person insured under this policy is permitted to carry additional insurance in other companies, and the carrying of such additional insurance will in no way affect the validity of this policy.

Name of insured, John Doe; age next birthday, five years; weekly premium, five cents.

SCHEDULE REFERRED TO ABOVE INFANTILE TABLE.

The tables below are for a premium of five cents per week.

ACCIDENTS.—In event of death of the insured by accident during the first six months, the benefits payable herein are the same as provided for in the schedule hereon, when the policy has been in force more than six months, but less than a year.

In witness whereof, the president and secretary of said company have signed this policy at its home office in the city of Louisville, Ky., this first day of April, 1912.

CONDITIONS.

1. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the home office of the company in Louisville, Ky., but may be paid to an authorized representative of the company; but no payment will be recognized by the company unless entered at the time on the premium receipt book of this policy. For purpose of valuation, as required by law, the first fifty-two weeks under this policy is term insurance, and, after the payment of the premiums for the first fifty-two weeks, the policy shall be a life policy. If, for any cause, this policy shall become void, all premiums paid thereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided for in the clause in this policy referring to cash surrender, extended or paid-up insurance.

2. GRACE PERIOD.—Should the death of the insured occur while any premium is in arrears not exceeding four weeks, the company will nevertheless pay the policy, subject to its conditions.

3. NO RESTRICTION.—From date of issue, this contract shall be without restriction as to travel, residence, occupation or place of death.

4. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after two years from date except for fraud or misstatement of age, and in the latter event, the amount payable on settlement of the policy shall be such as the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age.

5. AGREEMENT.—Unless otherwise stated in the blank space below in a waiver signed by the secretary, this policy is void if the insured before its date has been rejected for insurance by this or any other company, or has been attended by a physician for any serious disease or complaint within five years from date of this policy; or has had before said date any scrofula or consumption, or chronic bronchitis, or cancer, or disease of the heart, liver or kidneys; or if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement signed by the secretary that such prior policy is in force. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition.

6. ALTERATIONS OR WAIVERS.—No person except the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary of the company, can alter this contract or waive any condition, privilege or provision thereof. Therefore agents, (which term includes superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four (4) weeks, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not.

7. In case of self-destruction within one year from date of issue, whether the insured be sane or insane, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon.

PROVISIONS.

1. TIME OF PAYMENT.—The amount of insurance provided in the schedule on the first page hereof, will be paid by the company, subject to the terms and conditions of this contract, at its home office, in the city of Louisville, Ky., immediately upon receipt of satisfactory proof of the death of the insured, made upon blanks furnished by the company at its said office, and upon surrender of this policy and all premium receipt books.

2. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the approval of the company, the insured, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy be not then assigned, may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect on the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. After endorsement the policy will be returned.

3. EXCHANGE.—After this policy has been in force for five years by the payment of all due premiums, and the insured has attained the age of sixteen years, it may be exchanged for any form of ordinary policy issued by the company, by the insured standing a satisfactory medical examination and paying the premiums for the attained age, at which the company will give credit on the ordinary policy for the full legal reserve on this policy.

PRIVILEGES.

1. PRIVILEGE OF SURRENDERING POLICY WITHIN TWO WEEKS.—If the terms of this policy are not satisfactory, or if its conditions are not accepted and agreed to, the policy may be surrendered for cancellation at the office of the superintendent of the district at the address shown on the premium receipt book covering this policy, within two weeks from the date hereof; and if so surrendered within said period, the premiums paid hereon will be refunded.

2. SURRENDER VALUE.—If premiums on this policy have been paid for five full years, or more, and it should then lapse, paid-up or extended insurance or cash surrender value will be allowed, in accordance with Chapter 32, Section 659, Kentucky Statutes, Act of 1902, upon proper legal surrender of the policy and the receipt book belonging thereto.

Witness whereof, the Home Life Insurance Company of America, Inc., has caused this policy to be signed by the president and secretary, at its executive office in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., this third day of April, 1911.

CONDITIONS.

Contract is made in consideration of the delivery of this policy during the life time health of the insured, and the payment of the weekly premium hereinbefore provided by the company or to its authorized representative on or before every Monday next to the anniversary of this contract, until the seventy-fifth birthday of the insured. Amount of benefit provided in the schedule on the first page hereof shall be paid to the beneficiary at its executive office in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., unto the beneficiary named herein, unless settlement shall be made as provided in article entitled "Beneficiary," or "Provisions," immediately upon approval of due proof of the fact and cause of death of the insured and the surrender of this policy and the premium receipt required by the continuance of this contract.

PRIVILEGES.

Policy be continued in force, the company will grant automatic extended insurance up to life insurance or cash surrender values as follows:

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After this policy has been in force three full years premium shall not be paid when due, the company, without any action on the part of the insured, will grant extended insurance dating from the day to which premium has been duly paid and to continue for the period indicated in the following table. Amount of insurance payable if death occur within the said period shall be the amount as that which would have been payable if this policy had been continued by the payment of the premiums.

LIEU OF THE ABOVE, PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—After this policy has been in force three full years, if any premium shall not be paid when due, the company, upon request at any time prior to or within four weeks after the date when said premium was due, and the legal surrender of this policy to company, will grant non-participating insurance as specified in the following table.

POLICY BE LAPSED AFTER TEN YEARS, IN LIEU OF EITHER OF THE FOREGOING, CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After this policy has been in force ten full years, upon written request and the legal surrender of this policy to the company, the company will pay the cash surrender value of this policy to the insured.

1172 POLICIES—HOME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA.

company, will pay as a cash surrender value for this policy the amount fixed by the following table.

NOTE.—Tables of automatic extended insurance, paid-up life insurance and cash surrender values after twenty years will be furnished on application.

The surrender values under this policy are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest per annum, and the net value of any such surrender value, for the first fifteen years is at least equal to the entire reserve on this policy, according to the foregoing standard, less a surrender charge which does not in any case exceed twenty per cent of the reserve, or one and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy; thereafter such net value is the full reserve by said standard.

In computing benefits from the foregoing tables, due allowance will be made for each completed quarter of a year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

PROVISO.—The values in the foregoing tables of automatic extended insurance, paid-up life insurance, and cash surrender values are based on the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy. If there be any indebtedness on the policy the value of any surrender value shall be reduced by the amount of such indebtedness and the term of extended insurance, or the paid-up life insurance, or the cash surrender value reduced accordingly.

PROVISIONS.

THE INSURANCE UNDER THIS POLICY BEGINS at 12 o'clock noon, of the date hereof, and the company's liability is limited to a return of the premiums paid hereon if the insured die before said date, or if on said date the insured be not in sound health.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable on Monday of each week, in advance, at the executive office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized representative of the company, but payments to be recognized by the company must be entered at the time of payment in the premium receipt book belonging to this policy. If, for any reason, the premium be not called for when due by an authorized representative of the company, it shall be the duty of the policyholder, before said premium shall be in arrears four weeks, to bring or send said premium to the executive office of the company or to one of its district offices.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—Should the insured die while the premium on this policy is in arrears for a period not exceeding four weeks, the company will pay the benefits herein provided, subject to the conditions of the policy.

POLICY WHEN VOID.—If, at any time, more than four weeks' premiums are due this policy shall thereupon become void; or if there be in force upon the life of the insured an industrial policy previously issued by this company, this policy shall be void unless it contains an endorsement, signed by the president or the secretary, acknowledging the first policy to be in force at the same time. If for any cause this policy be or become void, all premiums paid hereon shall be forfeited to the company except as provided herein.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premium, the company will reinstate the contract at any time within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid, provided all arrears are paid, and evidence of insurability, satisfactory to the company, be furnished.

BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time, change the beneficiary under this policy with the written approval of the company and the corresponding endorsement on the policy. In any event, however, the company may make any payment provided for in this policy to the executor, administrator, husband or wife, or any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or to any other person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, for his or her burial, and the production of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons shall be conclusive evidence that all claims under this policy have been satisfied.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its executive office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

MIS-STATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be incorrectly stated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof.

ALTERATION OF CONTRACT.—No person except the president or secretary of the company has power to modify, or in the event of lapse, to reinstate this policy, or to extend the time of payment of a premium. No agent has power in behalf of the company to waive any ature or to bind the company by making any promise or making or receiving any presentation or information.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or any benefit hereunder.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year except for non-payment of premiums.

LIMITATION.—No suit or action at law or in equity shall be maintained hereon unless actually begun within five years after the cause of action shall accrue.

ENTIRE CONTRACT CONTAINED IN THIS POLICY.—This policy contains the entire contract between the parties hereto.

SURRENDER.—This policy, if not satisfactory to the insured, may be surrendered at any time after its date, at the office of the superintendent, whose name appears on the receipt book accompanying this policy, and the premiums paid hereon will be refunded.

TWENTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT POLICY.

The Home Life Insurance Company of America hereby insures and endows the life of the person herein designated as the insured, and agrees to pay the benefit stipulated in the following schedule to the beneficiary named below, subject to the conditions, privileges and provisions contained on the second, third and fourth pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

SCHEDULE.

Name of Insured.	Age Next Birthday.	Benefit.	Weekly Premium.
John Doe.	35	$80
Name of Beneficiary.	Relationship to Insured
Jane Doe.	Wife.		10 cents.

This policy is in full immediate benefit from date hereof.

VALUES AT THE END OF TWENTY YEARS.—The insured, if living twenty years from date hereof, provided there be no indebtedness on this policy, may select one of the following options, upon surrender of this policy and the premium receipt book: (1) A cash payment of the amount of benefit stated above. (2) On evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, full paid life insurance of $142.

CONDITIONS.

This contract is made in consideration of the delivery of this policy during the life time of good health of the insured, and the payment of the weekly premium hereinbefore provided to the company or to its authorized representative on or before every Monday of the continuance of this contract, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

The amount of benefit provided in the schedule on the first page hereof shall be paid by the company at its executive office in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., unto the beneficiary named herein, unless settlement shall be made as provided in article entitled "Surrender," under the head of "provisions," immediately upon approval of due proof of fact and cause of the death of the insured and the surrender of this policy and the premium receipt book within twenty years from the date hereof during the continuance of this contract.

PRIVILEGES.

This policy be continued in force, the company will grant automatic extended insurance, paid-up endowment insurance, or cash surrender values as follows:

1. AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After this policy has been in force three full years, if any premium shall not be paid when due, the company, without any action on the part of the insured, will grant extended insurance dating from the day to which premiums have been duly paid and to continue for the period indicated in the following table.

The amount of insurance payable if death occur within the said period shall be the same amount as that which would have been payable if this policy had been continued in force by the payment of the premiums, or if the insured be living twenty years from the date hereof, the company will pay the pure endowment specified by said table.

2. IN LIEU OF THE ABOVE, PAID-UP ENDOWMENT INSURANCE.—After this policy has been in force three full years, if any premium shall not be paid when due, the company, upon written request at any time prior to or within four weeks after the date when premium was due, and the legal surrender of this policy to the company, will grant participating paid-up endowment insurance as specified in the following table.

3. IF THIS POLICY BE LAPSED AFTER TEN YEARS, IN LIEU OF EITHER OF THE FOREGOING OPTIONS, CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After this policy has been in force ten full years, the company, upon written request and the legal surrender of this policy to the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company.

WEEKLY PREMIUM POLICY, PAID-UP AT AGE 75—PARTICIPATING.

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, in consideration of the representations and agreements in application hereof, which is copied hereon and made a part of, and of the premium stipulated herein, to be paid on or before each Wednesday, grants this insurance with the privileges and benefits and subject to the conditions and provisions on and the three following pages, which are made a part of this contract.

Policy number, 0000000. Date, January 1, 1912. Weekly premium, ten cents. Age at birthday, thirty-five years.

Name of insured, John Hancock. Name of beneficiary, Dorothy Q. Hancock. Relationship to insured, wife.

Full policy amount, one hundred and thirty-six dollars. During the first six months of the date hereof, the sum insured hereunder will be one-half only of the full policy amount in case of death from any cause other than accident. In case of death from accident during the first six months and thereafter in case of death from any cause, the sum insured will be the full policy amount.

On satisfactory proof of the death of the insured, made in the manner and to the extent required herein and upon surrender of the policy and premium receipt books, the company will pay the amount due hereunder. The company may make payment either to the beneficiary above named, if living, or to such other living beneficiary as may be named and finally designated, and recognized by endorsement hereon, or to the executor or administrator of said insured or to any relative by blood or connection by marriage, or to any person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled thereto by reason of having incurred expense in any way on behalf of the insured for burial or for any other purpose; and the receipt of any such payee shall be conclusive evidence that payment has been made to the person or persons entitled thereto and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

This policy shall not take effect unless upon its date the insured shall be alive and in good health and the premium duly paid.

In witness whereof, the said John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, executed and delivered this contract on the date herein above set forth.

LIMITATION OF PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—If the premiums shall be duly paid until the anniversary of the date of this policy next following the insured's seventy-fourth birthday, it will be continued in force thereafter without the payment of further premiums.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—With the consent of the company, the insured, if of lawful age, may from time to time change the beneficiary by request to the home office upon the company's prescribed form accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect only upon endorsement hereon by the company.

INCONTINGENCY.—After this policy shall have been in force for two full years, it shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums, or for assignment or pledge, or for failure to have the policy endorsed in case of previously issued insurance as herein provided, but it shall nevertheless be subject to adjustment for error in age. In case of error in age, no greater sum will be paid hereunder than the premiums paid would have been for the true age according to the table of rates and benefits on which this policy was issued. No suit shall be maintained under this policy unless commenced within six months from the time when cause of action accrues.

DISTRIBUTION OF SURPLUS.—Beginning not later than the end of the fifth year from its date, if all the premiums then due shall have been paid, this policy shall annually participate in such distribution of the surplus as the company may apportion. Dividends shall be applied in payment of premiums unless the holder elects to receive them in cash.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time within one year from default in payment of premiums, if the cash surrender value has not been paid or the extension term expired, this policy may be reinstated upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and approved at its home office, and upon payment of arrears of premiums and payment of reinstatement of any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby.

CLAIM CONCESSION.—This policy will be paid subject to its conditions if the insured dies while premiums are in arrears not more than four weeks, but neither this concession nor the acceptance of any overdue premium shall create an obligation on the part of the company to receive premiums which are in arrears, nor shall it be a waiver of their payment on Wednesday of each week in advance.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—Automatic extended term insurance after three years. If premiums shall have been paid on this policy for three full years, then, in case of failure to pay any subsequent premium, the policy, without any further stipulation or condition, will be binding on the company for its full amount as extended term insurance, commencing from the date to which the premiums shall have been paid, the length of the term to be determined by the period of premium payments, according to Table A. The insurance will wholly cease and expire at the end of the term of extension to which the policy is entitled under its conditions.

ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS OF PAID-UP POLICY OR CASH SURRENDER VALUE AFTER FIVE YEARS.—After premiums shall have been paid on this policy for five full years, then, in case of failure to pay any subsequent premium, if the holder hereof, instead of having the policy continued as extended insurance as above provided, shall elect in place thereof to avail himself of either one of the following options, and shall signify his preference by writing filed with the company at its home office while the extended insurance is in force and not later than thirteen weeks from the date to which the premiums shall have been paid, the company will, upon surrender of the policy:

OPTION 1.—Issue in exchange therefor a paid-up policy according to Table B, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy.

OPTION 2.—Or, with the written assent of the person to whom the policy is payable, pay the cash surrender value according to Table C, within sixty days after written demand therefor.

The figures in Tables A, B and C are for the end of the full paid policy year, on the assumption that there is no indebtedness then existing hereon. The figures for additional years will be furnished on request. If neither the option of paid-up policy nor of cash surrender value be chosen as above provided, then the policy will be continued as extended insurance, subject to its terms.

This policy is based on reserves calculated upon the standard industrial mortality table with interest assumed at three and one-half per cent. The values and extension term stated herein are the equivalents of the reserve at the end of each full paid policy year, less an amount not exceeding two and one-half per cent of the full policy amount. The will be increased by a proportionate part of the difference between such reserve and that of the succeeding year for each thirteen weeks premiums paid beyond the full paid policy year, and will be lessened by deduction from such reserve of any indebtedness to the company on or secured by the policy.

A paid-up policy issued under the terms hereof will have a surrender value which will be its net value at the date of the demand therefor, less any indebtedness on or secured by the policy; and if this policy shall become extended insurance after payment of premiums for five full years, it will have a surrender value, similarly determined, but decreasing and expiring with the extension term. The company will pay such value within sixty days after written demand therefor, upon surrender of the policy, with the written assent of the person to whom it is payable.

ALTERATIONS, ERASURES AND WAIVERS.—No modification, change or alteration hereof or endorsement hereon will be valid unless signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary, and no other person is authorized on behalf of the company to make, alter or discharge this contract or to waive forfeiture. Agents are not authorized to waive any of the terms or conditions of this policy or to extend the time for payment of premiums or other moneys due to the company, or to bind the company by making any promise or by accepting any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Premiums hereon are payable at the home office of the company in Boston, but may be paid to any of its authorized agents, subject to the conditions of the policy. Should such agent fail to call for any premium when due, it will be the duty of the insured to make immediate payment of the premiums either to the district office or to the home office. Failure of the agent to collect premiums will not relieve the insured from the obligation to pay the premiums when due, nor will the company assume any liability for such failure. No payment of premium shall be valid unless entered in the premium receipt book at the time of payment, by the agent, or other representative of the company, authorized to receive it, nor if made when more than four weeks in arrears, except as herein provided under "reinstatement."

POLICY WHEN VOID.—This policy shall be void, if in the application therefor, there is any misrepresentation, wilfully made or relating to a matter increasing the risk of loss, or if any premium shall not be paid when due, except as herein provided; or if the policy be assigned or pledged; or if any erasure or alteration be made otherwise than as herein provided; or if an industrial or weekly premium policy previously issued by this company on the life of the insured shall be in force on the date hereof or running as extended insurance, unless this policy bears an endorsement signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary, authorizing its continuance in addition to and previously issued insurance. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the issue of any prior policy or the existence of any previous application upon which a policy may not have been issued, and the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition.

PROOF OF CLAIM.—In case of death of the insured, proofs of claim shall be made in blanks to be provided by the company and shall contain full answers of the claimant, physician and other persons to all the questions asked therein and shall conform to the requirements thereof.

DECLARATION IN APPLICATION.

declarations as recorded above are fully and correctly set forth and complete, and are made by me to induce the John Hancock Life Insurance Company to enter into a contract of life insurance, all form part of such contract. I have made no other or different statements to the medical examiner or other representative of the company, and I agree that any misrepresentation herein, wilfully made or relating to the increasing the risk of loss, shall render the policy void, and that this policy shall not be binding upon the company unless upon its date I am alive and in good health and the premium duly paid. And I hereby declare that for any person who shall have interest in said policy the company's share of the division and apportionment of divisible surplus and the method of distribution thereof. The right is reserved to the insured when of lawful age to change the beneficiary from time to time, subject to the consent of the company, by written notice and endorsement as may be provided in the policy, but payment to any person presenting the policy and premium receipt book and appearing to the company to be equitably entitled shall be full satisfaction of all claim.

Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

INDUSTRIAL WHOLE LIFE INSURANCE.

The Life Insurance Company of Virginia in consideration of the weekly premium stated in the schedule below, which it agreed shall be paid in advance to the company, or to its authorized representative, on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract, agrees to pay at its home office, in the city of Richmond, Va., in accordance with the provisions of article third on the second page hereof, the amount of benefit provided for in the said schedule, within twenty-four hours after acceptance at its home office of satisfactory proofs of the death of the insured, named below, during the continuance of this policy, which is issued and accepted subject to the conditions and agreements below and on the following pages hereof, which are hereby referred to and each one of which is hereby made part of this contract: Provided, however, that no obligation is assumed by the company prior to the date and delivery of this policy, nor unless on said date the insured is alive and in sound health.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.—Number of policy 045678; weekly premium, 50 cents; name of insured, Richard Doe; age next birthday, thirty-five years; date of policy, April 1, 1916; amount of insurance, $138. If the death of the insured shall occur within the first six months of this policy, from any cause other than accident, only one-half the amount of this policy shall be payable. If death occur from accident during the first six months, or from any cause after six months, the full amount will be payable. In witness whereof, the said The Life Insurance Company of Virginia has, by its president and secretary, executed this contract at Richmond, Va., on the date named in said schedule.

CONDITIONS AND AGREEMENTS.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—Should the death of the insured occur while any premium hereon is in arrears not exceeding four weeks, the company will nevertheless pay the policy, subject to its conditions.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured is not correctly stated herein, no greater amount will be paid than the premium hereon would have purchased at the true age of entry.

FACILITY OF PAYMENT.—The company may make any payment provided for in this policy, to husband or wife, or any relative by blood, or lawful beneficiary, or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any other person who may appear to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured for his or her burial, or for any other purpose; and the production by the company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons, or of other sufficient proof of such payment to any or either of them shall be conclusive evidence that such benefits have been paid to the person or persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premiums, it will be reinstated within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid, upon the payment of premiums in arrears, provided evidence of insurability of the insured, satisfactory to the company, be furnished, but such reinstatement shall not become effective unless at the date thereof the insured is alive and in sound health.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—Each premium is due and payable at the home office of the company but will be accepted elsewhere by a duly authorized agent, who shall at the time of payment enter same in the receipt book belonging to this policy. If for any reason the agent shall not call for the premium when due it shall be the duty of the policyholder to bring or send said premium to the home office, or to the company's agent and in event of a failure to perform this duty within four weeks from the date on which said premium was due, this policy shall thereupon become void.

POLICY WHEN VOID.—This policy contains the entire contract between the company and the insured, and is non-participating; it shall be void if any premium shall not be paid according to the terms hereof; and it is agreed that this provision, which avoids the policy in case any premium shall be overdue, shall not be considered in any respect waived by any act of grace by the company in the acceptance of overdue premium upon this or any other policy. This policy shall be void if upon its date and delivery the insured be not alive and in sound health, or if this policy be assigned or otherwise parted with. If for any cause this policy is or shall become void, all premiums paid hereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided herein.

LIMITATIONS OF INSURANCE.—The liability of the company under this policy shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force on the date hereof, unless such previous policy has been specified in the application for this policy, in which case this policy shall contain an endorsement, signed by the president or secretary, setting forth all prior policies specified in said application.

LIMITATION.—No suit shall be brought against the company after one year from the date of the death of the insured. Proofs of death under this policy shall be presented to the company within one year from the date of the death of the insured, and shall be made upon blanks to be furnished by the company, and shall contain answers to each and propounded to the claimant, physicians and other persons, and shall contain a verdict, evidence and verdict of any coroner's inquest, if one shall be held. If any on set forth in this section is prohibited by the statutes of the State in which this policy is issued, the foregoing limitation shall be considered to be amended to agree to a minimum period of limitation permitted by such statute.

RATINGS AND WAIVERS.—Agents (which term includes superintendents and assistants) are not authorized to make, alter or discharge contracts or waive rates. They have no power, on behalf of the company, to receive a premium more than one week after the day on which the same is due, nor receipt for same in the pre-receipt book, and any payment of such premium to an agent, or to the company office, shall not be entitled by virtue of the contract to be credited upon any policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not, and shall be returned upon demand. No alteration made herein except by endorsement signed by the president shall be void.

INTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date for non-payment of premiums.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—This policy shall lapse, and, together with all amounts paid hereon, shall be forfeited to the company on the non-payment of any premium as herein provided. But if premiums, and all notes given for same, have been paid for at least three full years of insurance, and there is no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, it will, without any action on the part of the insured, immediately become paid-up, for an amount computed according to the table said paid-up insurance to be payable on the death of the insured, subject to all terms and agreements of this policy, except as to the payment of premiums and surrender values. If, however, there is any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the said amount of paid-up insurance shall be reduced in the same proportion as said indebtedness bears to the amount used to purchase said paid-up insurance.

SURRENDER PRIVILEGE.—The insured is requested to examine carefully the terms and conditions of this policy, and if its terms are not satisfactory, or if its conditions are not accepted and agreed to, the policy may be surrendered for cancellation within two years after its date, at the office of the company in the district where this policy is delivered, and the premiums paid hereon will be returned to the insured.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

INDUSTRIAL POLICY—AGE 35.

ADULT WHOLE LIFE—PAID-UP AT AGE 75.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, home office, New York City, in consideration of the payment of the premium mentioned in the schedule below, on or before each Monday, doth hereby agree, subject to the conditions below and on page two hereof, each of which is hereby made a part of this contract and contracts by the assured to be a part hereof, and with the privileges and concessions to policyholders on pages two and three hereof, which are hereby made part of this contract, to pay upon receipt of proofs of the death of the insured, made in the manner, to the extent and upon the blanks required herein, and upon surrender of this policy and all receipt books, the amount stipulated in said schedule. Provided, however that no obligation is assumed by the company prior to the date hereof, nor unless on said date the insured is alive and in sound health. Should the proposed insured not be alive or not be in sound health on said date, any amount paid to the company as premiums hereon shall be returned. The company may pay the amount due under this policy or grant any non-forfeiture privileges provided herein to either the beneficiary named below or to the executor or administrator, husband or wife, or any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any other person appearing to said company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, or for his or her burial; and the production of a receipt signed by either of said persons shall be conclusive evidence that all claims under this policy have been satisfied.

Name of beneficiary and relationship to the insured, Ellen Metropolis, wife.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.—Number of policy, Ar; dated April 1, 1910; name of the insured, Edward Metropolis; age next birthday, thirty-five years; weekly premium, ten cents; amount of insurance, $136.

One-half only of the above sum payable if death occur within six calendar months from date and the full amount if death occur thereafter.

CONDITIONS.

If the age of the insured is not correctly stated herein, no greater amount will be paid than the premium hereon would have purchased at the true age at entry.

This policy contains the entire agreement between the company and the insured and the holder and owner hereof. Its terms cannot be changed or its conditions varied, except by written agreement, signed by the president or secretary of the company. Therefore, agents (which term includes superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four weeks, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not.

If this policy be assigned or otherwise parted with, or if any erasure or alteration be made herein, except by endorsement signed by the secretary; or if any premium shall not be paid when due, this policy shall be void. And it is agreed that the foregoing provision which avoids the policy in case any premium shall be overdue shall not be considered in any respect waived by any act of grace by the company in the acceptance of overdue premiums upon this or any other policy.

Unless otherwise stated in the blank space below in a waiver signed by the secretary, this policy is void if the insured before its date has been rejected for insurance by the company or any other company, or has been attended by a physician for any serious disease, complaint; or has had before said date any pulmonary disease, or chronic bronchitis, or cancer, or disease of the heart, liver or kidneys; or if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement signed by the secretary that such prior policy may be in force. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition.

If this policy is or shall become void, all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided under privileges and concessions to policyholders.

Proofs of death under this policy shall be made upon blanks to be furnished by the company and shall contain answers to each question propounded to the claimant, physicians and other persons, and shall contain the record, evidence and verdict of the coroner's inquest, if any be held. All the contents of such proofs of death shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in behalf of, but not against the company.

PRIVILEGES AND CONCESSIONS TO POLICYHOLDERS.

RIGHT TO SURRENDER WITHIN TWO WEEKS.—If the terms of this policy are not satisfactory or if its conditions are not accepted and agreed to, the policy may be surrendered for cancellation at the office of the superintendent of the district (his address upon the premium receipt book covering this policy), within two weeks from the date hereof; and if so surrendered within said period, the premiums paid hereon will be refunded.

RIGHT TO EXCHANGE THIS POLICY FOR INSURANCE IN THE ORDINARY DEPARTMENT.—If premiums upon this policy have been fully paid for not less than ten years and the insured is eighteen years of age or over, the company will allow, for surrender and exchange of this policy, the full legal reserve, to be applied toward payment of premiums on a new policy in its "ordinary" department, where premiums are paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly, on the life of the person insured hereunder, subject to evidence satisfactory to the company of insurability.

ASSIGNMENT OF PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Should the insured survive to the first anniversary of the date of this policy after age seventy-four, no further payment of premiums will be required after that date.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after two years, except for fraud or misstatement of age.

GRACE PERIOD.—Should the death of the insured occur while any premium is in arrears exceeding four weeks, the company will nevertheless pay the policy, subject to its conditions.

RENEWAL.—Should this policy become void in consequence of non-payment of premium, it may be revived, if not more than fifty-two premiums are due, upon payment of all arrears and the presentation of evidence satisfactory to the company of the sound health of the insured.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the approval of the company, the insured, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy be not then assigned, may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect on the endorsement of the company on the policy by the company. After endorsement the policy will be returned.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—In the event of the death of the insured from accident within twelve months from the date of this policy, the full amount of insurance named in the policy will be paid subject to the policy conditions.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.

PAID-UP POLICY.—After premiums upon this policy have been fully paid for three years or more, then in case of default in the payment of any subsequent premium the company may, without action on the part of the holder, continue this policy as a free policy, payable on the same conditions as this policy, but upon which no further payment of premium will be required, for a reduced amount in accordance with the following table:

3 Years.	4 Years.	5 Years.	6 Years.	7 Years.	8 Years.	9 Years.	10 Years.	11 Years.
	$6	$8	$10	$12	$13	$15	$17	$19

	$23	$25	$27	$29	$30	$32	$34	$38

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After premiums upon this policy have been paid for the periods named in the table below, upon written application to the company made on the blanks furnished by it, accompanied by the surrender of this policy and all receipts, or other evidence of payment of premium the company will pay a cash surrender value in accordance with the following table:

Years.	11 Years.	12 Years.	13 Years.	14 Years.	15 Years.	16 Years.	17 Years.	18 Years.	19 Years.	20 Years.
$4	$10.04	$11.26	$12.50	$13.77	$15.05	$16.36	$17.69	$19.04	$20.40	$23.49

NOTE.—The two tables above are based on a weekly premium of five cents. The values in this policy are proportionate to the premium. If the premium is ten cents the values would be doubled. If twenty-five cents, they should be multiplied by five, and so on, while the values in the above tables are yearly values, the company will make proportionate increase based on quarter-year payments. Cash surrender and free policy values for subsequent years will be furnished on request.

Prudential Insurance Company.

INDUSTRIAL INFANTILE POLICY—WHOLE LIFE—PAID-UP AT 66

In consideration of the payment of the weekly premium as specified, on or before each and every Monday during the continuance of this policy or until the person herein designated as insured shall reach the age of seventy-five years, The Prudential Insurance Company of America immediately upon receipt of proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of policy, will pay at its home office, Newark, N. J., the amount of benefit herein specified, to the executors or administrators of the insured, unless payment be made under the provisions of the succeeding paragraph.

FACILITY OF PAYMENT.—It is understood and agreed that the said company may any payment or grant any non-forfeiture privilege provided for in this policy relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any person upon said company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, for his or her burial, or, if the insured be more than 10 years of age at the date of this policy, for any other purpose, and the production of company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons or of other sufficient evidence that such payment or privilege has been made or granted to the persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully paid.

PRELIMINARY PROVISION.—This policy shall not take effect if the insured die at the date hereof, or if on such date the insured be not in sound health, but in either the premiums paid hereon, if any, shall be returned.

SCHEDULE.—Name of insured, John Doe; age next birthday, two; if incorrect, company; weekly premium, five cents.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—No claim will be paid unless insured is over one year of age at policy.

PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized representative of the company; such payments to be recognized by the company must be entered at the time of payment in premium receipt book belonging with this policy. If for any reason the premium not called for when due it shall be the duty of the policyholder, before said premium be in arrears four weeks, to bring or send said premium to the home office of the company or to one of its district offices.

POLICY WHEN VOID.—This policy shall be void if there be in force upon the insured an industrial policy previously issued by this company, unless the first issued contains an endorsement, signed by the president or the secretary, assigning this policy to be in force at the same time; or if the policy be assigned; or if the weekly premium shall not be paid according to the terms hereof; or if the person under this policy is already insured under any policy or policies issued by this other company, and if the amount of insurance payable at the death of the insured such policy or policies, when added to the insurance payable under this policy exceed the amount fixed by the following table:

Age next birthday at time of death	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Limit of insurance.....	$ 360	$ 400	$ 520	$ 520	$ 520	$ 612	$ 700	$ 720

If for any cause this policy be or become void, all premiums paid hereon shall be forfeited to the company except as provided herein.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No condition, provision or privilege of this policy can be waived or modified in any case except by an endorsement hereon signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents, the secretary, one of the assistant secretaries, the actuary, the associate actuary or one of the assistant actuaries. No modification or change shall be made in this policy except such as is in accordance with the law of the state in which the same is issued. No agent has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any other contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying a premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise, or by making receiving any representation or information.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be misstated the amount payable on this policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

PRIVILEGES.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—Should the insured die while the premium on this policy is in arrears for a period not exceeding four weeks, the company will pay the amount of benefit provided herein, subject to the conditions of the policy, but after the expiration of the said period of grace, the company's liability under this policy shall cease, except as herein provided.

REVIVAL OF POLICY.—If this policy lapse for non-payment of premium, it will be revived within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid upon payment of all arrears, provided evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished, but such revival shall not take effect unless at the date thereof the insured is living and in sound health.

INCONTESTABILITY.—If the insured shall die one or more years after the date hereof, and if all due premiums shall have been paid, this policy shall be incontestable.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.—If this policy lapse for non-payment of premium and premiums have been duly paid for three full years, the insured, without any action on his or her part, will become entitled to extended insurance for the respective term indicated in the following schedule; the amount of insurance payable if death occur within said period shall be the same amount as that which could have been payable if this policy had been continued in force. Or, in lieu thereof, the insured may surrender the policy within three months after such lapse and will then be entitled at his or her option either to receive a paid-up life policy or payment in cash as specified in such schedule; provided, however, that if there be any indebtedness under this policy, such indebtedness will be deducted from the cash surrender value, or the term of the extended insurance or the amount of the paid-up life policy will be reduced to such term or amount as the net single premium value of the respective privilege reduced by such indebtedness shall provide according to the mortality table hereinafter specified.

* The extended insurance period dates from the date to which premiums have been paid and is the same for any amount of weekly premium. † These paid-up life policies are for each five cents of weekly premium; for a premium of three cents the policies are three-fifths of these amounts. § These cash surrender values are for each five cents of weekly premium; for a premium of three cents the values are three-fifths of these amounts.

NOTE.—Tables of automatic extended insurance, paid-up life policies and cash surrender values after twenty years will be furnished on request.

The surrender values under this policy are based upon the standard industrial mortality table with three and one-half per cent interest per annum, and the net value of such surrender value, for the first nineteen years, is at least equal to the entire reserve of this policy, according to the foregoing standard, less a percentage (not more than two and one-half) of the amount insured by the policy; thereafter, such net value is the entire reserve by said standard.

In computing benefits from the foregoing tables, due allowance will be made for each completed quarter of a year's premiums paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

This policy contains the entire contract between the parties hereto.

In witness whereof, the president and the secretary of said company have signed this policy at its home office in the city of Newark, N. J., on the above date.

This policy, if not satisfactory to the insured, may be surrendered within two weeks after its date at the branch office of the company, the address of which appears on the premium receipt book accompanying this policy, and the premiums paid hereon will be returned.

When the amount of insurance according to the terms of the adjoining table reaches the highest sum stated for an age, it will continue at that amount during the lifetime of the insured, subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

The amounts of the table are for a premium of 5 cents per week. No higher premium than 5 cents will be taken on this Table.

In witness whereof, the said, The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company, by its president and secretary, has signed this contract at its home office in Cincinnati, O. on February 1, 1911.

CONDITIONS.

This policy contains the entire contract between the company and the insured, and the holder or claimant hereof. Its terms cannot be changed, or its conditions altered or varied except in writing signed by the president or secretary of the company. Therefore, agents (which term includes superintendents, assistant superintendents, solicitors, collectors, inspectors and medical examiners), are not authorized to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies more than four weeks in arrears, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book; and all such arrears given to the agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy whether entered in the receipt book or not.

The weekly premium stipulated in the schedule on the preceding page hereof, shall be paid to the company, or its authorized agent, on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract and entered at the time of such payment in the premium receipt book pertaining to this contract. But this contract shall not be in force unless the first weekly premium has been paid, and the insured is alive and in sound health upon the date hereof, meaning thereby and referring solely to the state of health of the insured at the date of the delivery of this policy and not to any changes which may have taken place in the health of the insured between said date and any previous date; and shall also be void if the insured before its date, has been rejected for insurance by this or any other company, or has been attended by a physician for, or has had before said date, any tubercular disease or consumption, or chronic bronchitis, or cancer, or epilepsy, or disease of the brain, heart, liver or kidneys, and the evidence or testimony of any physician to, or medical adviser of, the insured as to such diseases or complaint shall be admissible.

This contract shall also be void if there be any previous policy in force, issued by this company on the same life, unless the existence of such previous policy be noted by an endorsement hereon, signed by the president or secretary of the company; and the con-shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and the issue of this policy, or the payment of any premium thereon, be deemed a waiver of such endorsement. In the event of the existence of any previous policy, the amount of such endorsement hereon as above provided, the liability, if any, of this company for this policy shall not exceed the amount of the premiums paid thereon.

For any reason the premium is not paid or is not collected by the agent when due, it shall be the duty of the policyholder, before the said premium shall be in arrears for four months, to bring or send said premium to the home office, or to one of its district offices, in event of a failure so to do, this policy without notice to any person or persons interested therein, shall thereupon lapse and become null and void.

The insured shall engage in, or be connected in any capacity, with or in, the manufacture, or retailing of spirituous, alcoholic, or malt liquors, without written permission of the president or secretary of the company, endorsed hereon, this policy shall become void, and the payment of any premiums to an agent while the insured is so engaged or connected, without the endorsed permission aforesaid, shall not be a waiver of this condition.

For any cause this policy shall be or become void, all premiums paid thereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided herein.

The amount of insurance provided in the schedule on first page hereof, will be paid by the company, at its home office, subject to the terms and conditions of this contract, within twenty-four hours after receipt at its said office, of satisfactory proof, made upon the policy furnished by the company, of the death of the insured named; together with a statement of the nature or character of the claimant's interest and demand, and where any payment can be claimed, the policy and receipt book must be surrendered to the company.

It is furthermore expressly provided and agreed, that the production by the company, of this policy, and of a receipt for the sum paid, signed by any person furnishing satisfactory to the company that he or she is an executor or administrator, husband or wife, or relative by blood, or lawful beneficiary, of the insured or to any other person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense or obligation on behalf of the insured, or for his or her burial, shall constitute conclusive evidence that such sum has been paid to and received by the persons lawfully entitled to the same, and that all claims and demands upon said company under this policy have been fully satisfied.

A suit shall be maintainable to enforce the performance of this contract until ten days after the filing in the principal office of the company, of the above-mentioned proof of death, nor unless such suit shall be commenced within six months next after the death of the person insured under this policy.

The benefits provided in this policy may be adjusted for misstatement of age. The policy may be amended by the president or secretary in writing, may make, alter or discharge contracts and may forfeitures.

PRIVILEGES.

This policy, if not satisfactory to the insured, may be surrendered within two weeks after its date, and all premiums paid thereon will be returned to the insured.

The beneficiary hereinbefore named, may be changed at the election of the insured, or the parents or guardian if a minor, subject to the written approval of the company. After this policy shall have been in force five years and the full premiums for said period shall have been paid, and within eight weeks after any premium is due and unpaid, the insured, upon the legal surrender of this policy and the receipt books thereto belonging, may, upon written application made by the insured upon blanks furnished by the company, provided the insured shall have reached the age of eighteen years at the date of surrender, a paid-up policy for an amount computed according to Table 1, upon which no further payments of premiums shall be required for a term of years expressed as the expectation of the life insured.

TABLE 1, PAID-UP POLICIES PER $1000 OF ORIGINAL INSURANCE.

If the original policy is for less than $1000, the paid-up policy will be proportionately less; thus if the original policy is for $100, the paid-up policy will be one-tenth of the amount in this table. The paid-up policy will be proportionately increased for each three months the premiums paid over and above the number of full years' premium indicated in the headlines of this table, but will be issued for the nearest even dollar only.

To find the sum to which a given amount per annum will increase, at compound interest, at any of the rates per cent and number of years expressed in the above Table:

Multiply the given amount per annum, by the sum to which one dollar per annum will increase at the rate and for the number of years required, marking off as many decimals from the product as there are decimals in the multiplier and the multiplicand.

COMPOUND INTEREST TABLE.

The following table shows the amount of money that must be invested annually, at compound interest, to amount to $1000 in a definite number of years:

EXPLANATION.—How much must I invest every year, at 5 per cent compound interest, so that the proceeds will amount to $1000 in twenty years? Look under the heading "5 per cent" at the right of twenty years, and you find $28.80 the answer, etc., etc.

NOTE.—The gross premiums in tables (2) and (4) are the net premiums (1) and (3) loaded 33 1/3 per cent. By subtracting (1) from (2); or (3) from (4), at any age in the table, the loading is ascertained, and this is the contribution of every policyholder insured for $1000 at the selected age, toward the payment of the company's expenses for one year.

NOTE.—The gross premiums in tables (2) and (4) are the net premiums (1) and (3) added 33⅓ per cent. By subtracting (1) from (2); or (3) from (4), at any age in the table, the loading is ascertained, and this is the contribution of every policy holder insured $1000 at the selected age, toward the payment of the company's expenses for one year.

PRESENT VALUE OF AN ANNUITY OF $1, FIRST PAYMENT AT ONCE.

ACCORDING TO THE COMBINED EXPERIENCE AND AMERICAN EXPERIENCE TABLES OF MORTALITY.

The following table will be useful in pointing out the amount of insurance which should be carried. Multiply the figures for the given age by the applicant's income and you have a fair idea of his insurable value, because the product represents the applicant's probable worth to his family or dependents.

JOINT LIFE INSURANCE.

late years there has been created a new avenue for the advancement of life insurance in the insuring of lives of men engaged in business partnerships in order to create a fund by which the estates of the survivors will be protected in the event of the death of a member of the firm. Considerable progress has been made along this line, as the system is a popular one and appeals at once to the common sense of those approached as a good thing. We quote the rates for these "joint life policies" for an insurance of $1000.

EQUATION OF LIFE.

This table of the "Equation of Life" will enable the agent to select out from the "American Experience" and the "Actuary or Combined Experience Tables of Mortality" the time when one-half of the tabular number of the living at a given age have passed over to the great majority, and vice versa, the time at which those who contemplate taking out endowment assure for long terms will do well to fix the maturity of their policy. In other words, out of two persons alive at a certain age this shows the time at which one will be living and the other dead.

THE SPECTATOR

An American Review of Insurance

PUBLISHED WEEKLY PRICE, $4.00 PER ANNUM

(ESTABLISHED 1868)

THE SPECTATOR is a live and progressive insurance journal, noted for its pungent and fearless discussion of all matters pertaining to the vast subject of insurance in every branch. In the many years of its existence it has built up a reputation for fair and honest treatment of insurance matters that has made it invaluable to propertyowners desiring insurance and to insurance men of every class. It contains the latest and freshest insurance news from every quarter, bright and sparkling correspondence from the principal insurance centers of the country, comments on current insurance events of the day, with special departments showing what the underwriters are doing in the different fields.

The most eminent writers on insurance in its various forms are contributors to its columns, and the aim of its proprietors is to present the science of the insurance systems in vogue without prejudice to any and in fairness to all. It is in this spirit that Fire, Life, Industrial, Accident, Natural Premium Life and Miscellaneous Insurance Companies, Associations and Societies are treated without fear or favor. It also gives the current news from different insurance centers each week, and each number is an epitome of all matters pertaining to insurance. It is the ambition of its proprietors to make THE SPECTATOR an invaluable journal to the commercial and business world and to every person identified with the insurance interest in any capacity.
